Ontario's Attorney-General Orders Arrests and Then Seizes All Assets

Group Suspended from Stock Exchange on Charges of Fraud and Bucketing

TORONTO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Suspension of fourteen of the fifty-one members of the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange as a result of charges of conspiracy to defraud and bucketing and arrest of thirteen persons caused uneasiness among [illegible] holders today.

The last of the brokers against whom charges have been laid, surrendered to police today. He is John W. Wray of the A. E. Moysey Company. Bail was set at $100,000.

THOUSANDS AFFECTED

Thirteen persons are under arrest, three of them held as material witnesses, while warrants also have been issued for I. W. C. Solloway and Harvey Mills of Solloway-Mills & Co.

Thousands of persons throughout the Dominion are affected. The suspension of five of the largest brokerage houses in Toronto followed the arrest of nine of their officers by Col. W. H. Price, Attorney for the Province of Ontario. Warrants for the arrest of three other brokers were issued.

The affairs of the involved firms have been taken over by the government and traders are wondering whether they can redeem stocks held by the companies by furnishing collateral to purchase the stocks outright.

GOVERNMENT IN CHARGE

Atty.-Gen. Price said it is not the position of the government to decide just what is to be done with this collateral.

"We stepped in," he said, "seized everything and prevented the possibility of transference. All these books are now held by us. Tilly, Johnston & Parmenter, one of Canada's outstanding legal firms, and Messrs. Clarkson and Edwards, two of the [illegible] competent accountants in the Province, will study the conditions of the firms and the action that will be taken in the interest of the clients.

"If there are persons, as there undoubtedly are, who state they own certain stock or collateral, let them make their claim. These claims in due course will be investigated and the claimants delivered their property."

The nine brokers arrested furnished bail in $100,000 each. They are:

D. S. Paterson, Edgar E. McLean and Austin Campbell of the firm of D. S. Paterson & Co.; Malcolm Stobie and Charles J. Forlong of Stobie, Forlong & Co.; William J. [illegible] and Maurice Young of Homer L. Gibson & Co.; James J. [illegible] and W. T. Shutt of Arthur E. Moysey & Co.

Three employees of brokerage houses were arrested as material witnesses and released under $25,000 bail each.

Warrants also were issued for

Will Rogers Remarks:

S.S. ILE DE FRANCE, Jan. 31.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I was sentenced to the disagreement conference for the duration of its existence, but I got time off for good behavior and am now out here on the ocean on the great French boat the S.S. Ile de France. Not only can't speak French but can't even pronounce the name of the boat. Going to be a lot of guessing games on when I feel well enough to go into the dining-room (which hasn't been yet.) Me and this ocean just don't get along, that's all there is to it.

Next year's disarmament conference got to be held in Claremore. Our team at the conference looked awful good. They have been holding skull practice among themselves every day. They are working up a lot of defensive plays among them to offset the trick plays of some of those other teams. Stimson is about the best choice we could have made unless we could have got Knute Rockne to go. Good night, I got to lay down.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

Communistic Disorders in Hamburg Continue; Situation Tense

BERLIN, Jan. 31. (AP)—The entire police force of the capital was ordered on emergency duty tomorrow to prevent Communistic demonstrations.

The Reds had announced plans for the demonstrations despite a recent order by the Minister of the Interior prohibiting open-air meetings.

The plans call for assemblage of groups of unemployed at various points in the city, whence they will march to a central meeting-place.

LITTLE AMERICA (Antarctica) Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Tomorrow is the beginning of our last month or the first of another year on the ice. So far we don't know which it is to be. The New York will not start through the pack yet for a few days as the result of all the information received by her officers. It would be useless to start before then, unless a sudden change occurs in the pack. But a few days after she has entered the pack we should know definitely if she will be able to come through and just now we are waiting for that moment.

In the meantime work of packing up the more valuable equipment is going on so that if a ship does come in it will be ready. And between these moments of endeavor to be busy there is probably the world's most humorous debating society in session lounging around a bunk in the mess hall.

Yesterday the topic for discussion was mules—their ancestry, habits and peculiarities; seven-year-old locusts; ants and startling tales of pet fish, which was won with the old story of the fish that fell off the bridge while following its owner and drowned.

Not even another year could halt the stream of humor that flows from that bunk, which has become the camp club. It makes up for a lot of things.

DRY CHIEF CALLED FOR DORAN QUIZ

Administrator for Idaho and Montana Ordered to Washington for Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—Prohibition Commissioner Doran today ordered John F. J. Herbert, dry administrator for Montana and Idaho, to come here for investigation of charges reported against him through Senators, Borah, Idaho, and Wheeler, Montana.

The prohibition commissioner and Senator Borah also engaged in an exchange of letters today over the administrator. Doran wrote Borah and asked him for the charges against Herbert. The Senator replied the prohibition bureau already had the charges against Herbert.

Frank S. Flynn in the legal department of the prohibition unit has supplied Senator Borah with a record, which he says tells of an investigation of Herbert, when the latter was administrator for Maryland.

Borah said that Flynn told him this record on Herbert was in the hands of the prohibition bureau at the time Herbert recently was transferred from Baltimore to Idaho.

EMMERSON TAKES HAND IN CHICAGO

Governor Calls for Taxes and County Decides to Mail Bills About June 1

CHICAGO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Gov. Emmerson cracked the whip of authority over Cook county's taxing officials today to protect the credit of Illinois.

As a result it was announced that tax books will leave the hands of the assessors and board of review of Cook county by May 1, which will assure the mailing of tax bills about June 1.

Cook county pays the major part of the State's taxes. As a result of its delay in payment the State is beginning to feel the pinch of poverty, the Governor said. Because it has not received its share of Cook's 1928 tax levy, he said, it has been unable to redeem $300,000 worth of waterway bonds which became due January 1, and now the soldiers' bonus bonds and the University of Illinois finances are seriously threatened.

WATERS OF SALTON SEA STILL RISE

Residents of Valley Not Alarmed, However, and Look for Higher Level

NILAND, Jan. 31. (AP)—The great sink of the Salton Sea, the brackish body of water with no outlet in the Imperial Valley, continues to rise, but Imperial Valley residents are not alarmed. In 1923 the level was 251 feet below sea level, while its average for the past twelve months' period is 246 feet below sea level. Drainage from the irrigation district waters from the Colorado River is expected to bring the level up to 232 feet below sea level.

Evaporation is the only means of depletion, and Imperial Valley residents expect in ten years to come the rise will inundate perhaps 2000 acres of cultivated lands, together with several thousand arid acres set aside by the government as a drainage area.

INUNDATION DENIED BY EL CENTRO CHAMBER

EL CENTRO, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—The El Centro Chamber of Commerce, through its secretary, Robert Hays, today denounced reports that agricultural lands surrounding the Salton Sea have been inundated by rise of the sea's level.

"The reports are entirely without foundation," said Mr. Hayes. "The water near the agricultural areas has not risen one inch, and not a single acre of land has been flooded. Sometimes high winds cause waters to rise a few inches at the north end of Salton Sea, but it should be understood that this condition is caused by winds and not floods. The water entering the Salton Sea from rains or storms is negligible. The Imperial Irrigation District will positively confirm this statement that there is absolutely no damage or danger."

NOTED SONG'S PRAISES SUNG

"Star Spangled Banner" Warbled for Committee to Urge Adoption as Official Anthem

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—The stirring notes of "The Star Spangled Banner," sung by two sopranos, rang today in the House Judiciary Committee room and echoed through the long corridors of the House Office Building as a group of patriotic organizations descended upon the Capitol to urge Congress to adopt officially as America's national anthem the now famous song of Francis Scott Key.

Although the song, inspired by the staunch defense of Fort McHenry at Baltimore against the British fleet in 1812, is regarded through custom as the official anthem to which a mighty nation stands at attention, Congress never formally has made it so.

BILL SUPPORTED

The effort of the patriotic societies was directed to that end. They urged approval of the Linthicum bill, which would authorize this action. For years Representative Linthicum of Maryland has sponsored the measure without success.

The two sopranos who sang the song are Mrs. Elsie Jorss-Reilley of Washington and Mrs. Grace Evelyn Boudlin of Baltimore. It also was played by the Navy Band. The women sought to demonstrate to the committee that singing of the song is not difficult as revised.

BACKED BY VETERANS

Official recognition of the song also was urged by Capt. Walter I. Joyce of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Joyce presented a petition signed by 5,000,000 citizens asking Congress to make the song the official national anthem. Twenty-five governors have signed it.

To meet objections that the song is too hard to sing signatures of 5000 musicians of the Musicians' Mutual Protective Union were included in the Joyce petition.

A subcommittee expects to begin consideration of the bill next week.

Tug Towing Barge from Port Arthur to Mobile Sinks in Mexico Gulf

BEAUMONT (Tex.) Jan. 31. (AP)—A radiogram from the Standard Oil tanker Liebre, bound for Beaumont, received today by M. T. Ball, president of the Sabine Towing Company at Port Arthur, stated the Sabine Company's tugboat Edgar F. Coney had sunk in the Gulf of Mexico with a loss of the crew of thirteen.

The tugboat sailed from Port Arthur with a barge in tow for Mobile Tuesday morning. She was overdue at Mobile twenty-four hours when the message was received that the barge was found afloat. The steamer reported that the master of the barge had hoisted a distress signal and gave the information that the tugboat and its crew had gone down.

The entire personnel of the crew is not known at the towing company headquarters. Four of the men are reported to be William Brennan, master; C. G. Pyle, chief engineer; O. R. Kenney, first mate, and R. Durio, steward, all having families in Port Arthur.

Girl in Arctic Plans Hop From Icebound Ship

SEATTLE Jan. 31. (AP)—Marion Swenson, Seattle high school girl, who has been icebound on the fur trading vessel Nanuk at North Cape, Siberia, since last fall, is coming home, she radioed to the Seattle Times today.

"Daddy has decided that we will fly to Nome either on the first or second plane out from the Nanuk," the girl's message said. "It may be a long time before we leave, however, as the two Fairchild planes sent out to search for Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Borland probably won't fly to Alaska before the bodies are found. They will be used to bring the furs from the Nanuk when their other work is completed.

"After we reach Nome we will fly to Fairbanks and take the train for Seward where we will board a steamer for Seattle. I've had a wonderful experience but it will be good to get home to Seattle."

Americans Pour Into Mexico City

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—There is an influx of American tourists to Mexico exceeding all estimates to attend the inauguration of President-elect Ortiz Rubio on next Wednesday.

It has reached such proportions that with all the hotels filled to overflowing and many of the visitors housed in private homes, the National Railways of Mexico has made arrangements to take care of additional arrivals in Pullman cars so located in the railway yards to allow easy access to and from the station. Four cars already are being used in this manner, with corresponding charges made per day for lower or an upper berth. Restaurant service is furnished by stationary dining cars coupled to the sleepers.

DEATH GODS FACE FIGHT

Medicine Man's Life at Stake

Navajo Warriors Rally in Desert for Fire Rites to Oust Doom Devils

If Dance Fails, Mystery of Eagle Feathers, Holiest Magic, Planned

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Jan. 31. (NANA)—Riding across desert spaces, usually dry and sandy but now covered with snow and making the trek the more tiring, nearly 2000 braves of the Navajo tribe tonight were drawing close to Oraibi, where lies Dugeye Clitsoil, oldest of the tribe's medicine men, withered and sere with his 102 years, and ill, fearing that unless the men of his tribe can away the gods of death, he soon will be headed toward the happy hunting ground to join his illustrious ancestors.

When death seemed nearing earlier this week, the swiftest runners of the tribe were dispatched to distant mesas of the tribe, that the valiant men might gather for the dance which, it is hoped, will save the aged medicine man's life.

FIRE CANAL BEGUN

Early in the morning hour, not halting to rest or sleep, the warriors from such distant mesas as Te En Ta, in the far north, Nig Doit Soe Pko, to the west, and Na Al Tee, in the east, began the fashioning of the fire canal, the first move toward the famous fire dance, the chant which is expected to enable the suffering chieftain to rise from his buffalo robes, possessed only by tribal leaders, and once more take his place at the council fire.

Cedar and pinon pine will be utilized in the building of the fire canal and in this brush a circle of fire will be built with the early rays of the dawn, a medicine man brought from the high mesas of the Hopi country, adjoining the Navajo reservation, applying the torch which will start the sacred ceremony.

While preparations for this are under way, lesser chieftains of the Navajo people will spread their famous sand paintings, some depicting the heroic deeds of the sick medicine man, and others, in sands of brilliant colors and hues, addressed as prayers to the gods of the tribe that their leader might be spared them for years to come.

DANCING WILL BEGIN

When these, after ritualistic chants, have been completed and destroyed, two score of the fire dancers, worked to frenzy by the flames and the intensity of their effort in behalf of their dying chief, will begin the dance, whirling madly about the fiery circle and chanting wildly to drive the death devil from his hogan.

Dipping their hands into the burning pitch as they whirl around the fire in their mad dance, these braves, clad only in the breech clout, will rub the flaming pitch over their bodies, and, like so many living torches, will continue their wild dance.

This dance will continue far into the morning, growing more and more frenzied, while squaws and children, who today followed their braves across the waste lands to Oraibi, will take part in the chanting, forming an ever-moving circle around the flaming dance.

MAGIC MAY BE TRIED

Should, however, it prove important to drive the devils of death from the hogan of Dugeye Clitsoil, then will the medicine men and the chiefs of the tribe engage in even more sacred ceremonies, for then the most holy of Navajo ceremonies, the mystery of the eagle feathers, will be invoked.

Then, by some subtle magic known only to the medicine men of the tribe, and only the oldest of these, for the secret is whispered by dying men to those only a trifle less ancient, will white feathers of the golden eagle be made to dance in a holy bowl near the flaming pitch fire, fed by the mourning squaws.

This eagle-feather ceremony, as baffling as some of the tricks of

Dominions Block Choosing of Committeemen for Study of Paris Proposal

Draft Text of French Plan for Tonnage Limitation Given to Delegates

LONDON, Jan. 31. (AP)—The French plan for smoothing the road of the five-power naval conference by means of a compromise between the global and category systems of tonnage limitation was seemingly halted at an executive session of the conference today.

The difficulty arose when the British were unable to fill their two places on a special committee for which yesterday's session voted with the idea that the committee would study the French suggestion. Until the membership of this committee is completed, it is probable the subject will be considered by the full conference, sitting as a committee of the whole.

Reports are current that the British difficulty arises from inability to satisfy the dominion delegates. Besides the empire government delegations, there are representatives of all British elements.

Only general principles were discussed at the executive session today. It is probable, however, that definite proposals will be forthcoming next Tuesday to which date the committee of the whole adjourned.

DRAFT OF PROPOSALS

The French issued a draft text of their proposal tonight. By it each nation would be given a total tonnage for its navy, divided into six classes of warships. A certain percentage, the figure being undetermined, could be transferred from one category to another upon notice being given one year in advance.

Besides the blank left for transfer percentages, the draft also left open the figures for total tonnages. The work of the conference for the next few weeks is likely to be devoted to efforts to fill these gaps.

So long as the question is debated in committee of the whole the desires of the British dominions regarding their representation are likely to be fully met. Ramsay MacDonald, Prime Minister of Great Britain and chairman of the conference, held a two and one-half-hour session with the dominion delegates this morning. It was admitted later that a real problem exists. Whether the subterfuge of having the conference meet as a committee of the whole will prove a permanent solution of it or only a temporary measure, is not likely to be determined until after Tuesday's meeting. The delegates have scattered for their week-end rests.

ADDRESSES MADE

Addresses were made by A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, for Great Britain; Reijiro Wakatsuki, head of the Japanese group; Rear-Admiral Giuseppe Sirianni for Italy, Secretary of the Navy Charles Francis Adams for the United States, and Rene Massigli for France.

The very nature of the French proposal, which is almost as wide in its scope as the whole disarmament problem itself, necessitates a slow progress. Consequently, the delegates anticipate long negotiations before full agreement is attained. The main thing is that the proposal has been placed before the conference in concrete form.

The exact percentage of transfer allowed from one category to another varies according to the defense ideas of each nation. The establishment of total tonnages involves the whole question of fleet ratios. This, of course, ultimately reaches to the problem of French-Italian parity, to the desire of the Japanese for a 70 per cent ratio on cruisers, to the determination of what constitutes actual parity between Great Britain and the United States and to all similar problems.

The question whether tonnage can be transferred from any category is likewise comprehensive. The French draft contains no reference to particular categories, but the British have repeatedly frowned on any

DIRIGIBLE LAUNCHES GLIDE

Airship Los Angeles Used in First Test of Kind W Navy Man Riding Motorless Plane

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—While the dirigible Los Angeles was cruising about 3000 feet above the Naval Air Station at Lakehurst, N. J., today with the navy blimps J-3 and J-4, and the metal ship ZMC-2 hovering about her, a tiny apparatus was seen to become detached from the keel close to the dirigible, amidships. The apparatus nosed down and clear of the bulking sides of the Los Angeles, leveled off. The first glider ever to be launched from an airship had taken the air successfully.

Seated in the 200-pound glider was Lieut. Ralph S. Barnaby, who weighs 140 pounds and is the only licensed glider pilot of the United States Navy. An eight-knot breeze was blowing on the ground, a bit freshened aloft and conditions were ideal for the test.

TWELVE MINUTES IN AIR

In a series of graceful circles the tiny glider maneuvered above the Lakehurst field, crossing it twelve times before Lieut. Barnaby landed twelve minutes after he had been released from the dirigible.

"I could have remained aloft an hour or more had I so desired," he said, highly pleased with the success of the experiment, which had gone off without a hitch after weeks of careful planning. Many naval officers witnessed the test.

The Los Angeles took to the air followed by the blimps and the metal ship, all of them flying in formation during the ten minutes before the glider was released.

PASSENGER IN DIRIGIBLE

While the Los Angeles was making altitude Lieut. Barnaby rode in the dirigible with the other officers. When 3000 feet had been reached he climbed into the glider which was suspended to a cross bar close to the Los Angeles' keel amidships. The releasing mechproposal permitting transfers from the most powerful classes, such as battleships.

An American spokesman tonight said he understands that transfers were not to be made from classes of warships limited by the Washington treaties. These took in battleships and aircraft carriers.

The preparation of the French draft of the compromise plan resulted from a suggestion made at today's session by Mr. Adams. He and Hugh Gibson, Ambassador to Belgium, had been named as American members of the dormant special committee and when today's meeting was called unexpectedly, Secretary of State Stimson turned the work over to these two and did not attend the session.

Col. Stimson and Ambassador Morrow tonight had a conference with Premier Tardieu of France, who leaves for Paris tomorrow.

The American delegates and their wives are to be week-end guests of Prime Minister MacDonald, and the later's daughter, Miss Ishbel MacDonald, at Chequers.

WOMEN ARRIVE WITH NAVY CUT PLEA

LONDON, Jan. 31. (AP)—With a trunk and six large brief cases full of signatures, five women, three of them Americans and two Japanese, arrived here today to put a plea for armament reduction before the delegates to the naval conference.

Mrs. Edgerton Parsons, Mrs. Casper Whitney and Miss Josephine Schein, representing the American conference on the cause and cure of war, with Mrs. Tsune Gauntlet and Miss Uta Hayashi, representing the organized women of Japan, went into conference with the British women's crusaders, who are joining them in presentation of peace memorials.

COTTON SLUMP LAID TO LEGGE

Senator Harris Charges $50,000,000 Loss

Drop Follows Publication of Press Interview

Chairman Says Reporter Garbled Statement

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—Blame for yesterday's decline in the cotton market was placed on Chairman Legge of the Farm Board today by Senator Harris, Democrat, Georgia, who contended in the Senate that the drop of $2.50 a bale reduced the value of cotton on hand by $50,000,000.

The Georgia Senator based his charge first on a newspaper account that Legge had told reporters in an informal conference yesterday that the board was not going to buy any cotton. After being asked by Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican leader, what the chairman actually had said, Harris obtained the facts from Legget himself and repeated a while later:

"I wish to say that the statement was unwise, was uncalled for, and that it cost us millions of dollars even in the way he put it."

LEGGE EXPLAINS

The Farm Board chairman had written to the Senator that the "only foundation for reports carried in the press dispatches yesterday afternoon was an answer that I made to a question of a newspaper man at an informal conference I had with press representatives."

"I was asked," Legge explained, "as to the truth of a published report to the effect that the American Cotton Co-operative Association was going to buy several million bales of cotton at from $20 to $25 a bale above the market prices. My reply was that the Farm Board was not going to buy any cotton—that the cotton association was going to be ready in a few days to deal in cotton, but that I did not think it would do anything as foolish as that.

STATEMENT GARBLED

"Later in the day, on being informed that reports of what I said apparently had resulted in a further decline in cotton prices, the inclosed press release was issued making it clear that the board is not buying cotton or any other commodity at any price and that its cotton-loan policy is unchanged."

The press release referred to said that "reports of what the board contemplates doing evidently have been garbled."

Harris's statement led to several others in the same vein, although Senator Watson insisted the blame rested with those who sent out the report Legge characterized as garbled.

magic of the late Houdini, is the last resort, the tribe's final appeal to the gods and its last stand against the devils of death, in behalf of the stricken chief.

DEATH CHANT TILL END

Should this fail, Dugeye Clitsoil is doomed to join his ancestors and the tribesmen will begin the haunting death chant which will float over the desert until the end finally comes to the ancient chieftain.

Should this occur, then the tribe will indulge in weeks of mourning, the women of the tribe will cut their hair to shoulder length, with these primitive residents of Arizona a badge of mourning, and the body of their chief will be buried afar in the wastes of the reservation, in a grave never to be marked, to be hidden from white and Indian, alone and known only to the gods of the tribe. At the same time, Dugeye Clitsoil's hogan will be burned with all his possessions, his horse and dog will be killed and the aged chieftain, one of the few who remember the coming of the white man, the going of the buffalo herds from the plains to the east of them, and who has seen the fading out of the Navajo splendor, will live only in the memories of his clansmen.

CANADA STOCK BROKERS HELD

I. W. C. Solloway and Harvey Mills, heads of the coast-to-coast brokerage firm bearing their names. Col. Price said these will not be served until the accused have answered charges preferred against them by the Alberta government under the Security Prevention Act.

The fifteenth warrant was issued against W. Wray of the Moysey company. The warrant was forwarded to Montreal.

Officers of the Attorney-General's department raided the offices of the affected firms. All books, records and securities were seized and their bank accounts tied up. One firm, Stobie, Forlong & Co., countered this action by voluntary assignment in bankruptcy.

All the brokers involved are charged with violation of the criminal code, which Col. Price explained involved conspiracy in affecting the price of stocks and bucketing. He charged that some of the men involved controlled several companies and traded back and forth. Conviction would carry a sentence of seven years imprisonment.

PARTNER EXPLAINS ACTION OF BROKERS

WINNIPEG (Man.) Jan. 31. (AP)—Action of Stobie-Forlong-Matthews, Ltd., brokers, in going into voluntary liquidation at Winnipeg was taken "to avoid a run on the company and its western branches" George W. Matthews, one of the partners of the firm, said today. The move involved branches at Calgary and Edmonton, Alta., Regina, Saskatoon and Moose Jaw, Sask., and Winnipeg.

British Columbian offices of Stobie, Forlong & Company, Ltd., are not affected by the Winnipeg firm's liquidation, Matthews stated. He said they are connected, instead, with the Toronto firm of the same name, which went into voluntary assignment at Toronto. The firms of Stobie-Forlong, Ltd., and Solloway-Mills & Co., Ltd., have been temporarily suspended from trading on the Vancouver exchange.

MINNESOTA SUSPENDS BROKERAGE LICENSES

ST. PAUL (Minn.) Jan. 31. (AP)—The licenses issued by the Minnesota State Securities Commission to Stobie, Forlong & Matthews, Inc., to operate brokerage offices in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth, have been suspended, it was announced today.

An order to show cause why the licenses should not be revoked was issued by C. W. Gillam, State Securities Commissioner. A hearing of the order will be held February 14, next.

BERLIN FEARS RED RIOTING

Large groups of unemployed refused to obey orders to disperse, and the police used their weapons in breaking up gatherings. Many persons were injured.

The most serious fighting occurred at a new building, where the unemployed tried to force workers to lay down their tools tomorrow as a prelude to a sympathetic strike. The police opened fire on the demonstrators when other methods failed to check them.

Twenty persons were arrested during the day, but the total number of the casualties had not been estimated this evening.

EFFORT PROCEEDS TO REMOVE MAYOR

EUREKA, Jan. 31. (AP)—Circulators of petitions asking a recall election in an attempt to oust from office Mrs. Emily L. Jones, this city's first woman Mayor, are attempting to bring the list of signatures to the 1200 required by law. About 900 have been reported obtained.

The petition makes numerous charges, including those that Mayor Jones "has failed to establish or maintain public confidence" and that she "has not the necessary training and experience" properly to manage or develop the city's growth.

WETS SPENT FOR WALSH SAYS TARR

Federal Official Asserts Brewers Had G.O.P. Aid in Massachusetts Election

BOSTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—Brewers and "wet" Republicans were blamed by U. S. Atty. Tarr in charges published today for helping to raise $74,000 which he said was used to elect David I. Walsh, Democrat, to the office of United States Senator in 1926 over William M. Butler, Republican.

The $74,000, he said in an address at the Boston Art Club, came from a fund of $336,465 raised by the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment and was spent in Massachusetts by the Constitutional Liberty League, the State branch of the association, and the Democratic State Committee and Democratic leaders.

He also charged, after declaring his belief that the people of the State are not "wet" in their sympathies, that another fund will be raised to elect a Democratic "wet" Senator in the fall. He asserted that a campaign against the policies of President Hoover and the national Republican platform is under way.

He declared that "wet" Republicans are working with "wet" organizations and the Democrats to disrupt the Republican party in the State. Tarr made the charges during an address on "What Is the Matter With the Republican Party of Massachusetts?"

The Constitutional Liberty League today issued a statement of "protest and denial" of the charges.

GLIDER FLIES FROM AIRSHIP

anism, similar in its operation to the conventional bomb release gear, was operated by a member of the crew aboard the dirigible.

The glider used by Lieut. Barnaby, recently purchased by the Navy and the only one owned by that branch of the United States government, was made in Germany and is classified as of the secondary training type. It is a monoplane. The same glider was used by Lieut. Barnaby last summer at Cape Cod when he qualified for the first glider license issued in this country.

Barnaby has been experimenting with gliders since 1909, and is attached to the Naval Bureau of Aeronautics in Washington, where he is in charge of all glider work.

Only Five Left in Wyoming Case

CHEYENNE (Wyo.) Jan. 31. (AP)—The government's conspiracy case collapsed here today in Federal Court against al but five of the twenty-nine persons originally indicted for conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law, when Judge Kennedy sustained motions for directed verdicts for seven more persons involved in the hearing.

The remaining defendants are William C. Irving, former Wyoming law enforcement commissioner; Biasette Alfonso, Thermopolis; Mike Bell, Thermopolis; Olinto Marcante, Kemmerer, and Charles Redmon, Kemmerer.

Islander's Newspaper Says Scores Died in Riot

Propaganda Circulated in Watsonville Section

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Anti-American propaganda described as "inflammatory," which has made its appearance following the disorders against Filipinos in the last several days, caused a new note of apprehension in the Pajaro Valley tonight. It was the outstanding development of the day. The propaganda appeared in the Watsonville section in the form of a paper bearing the name of "Ang-Bantay," proclaimed as "California's only Filipino weekly," and bearing a Los Angeles address.

The publication announces as its manager, Pablo Manlapit, assertedly exiled from Hawaii for fomenting a sugar plantation strike which culminated in a riot in which twenty persons were reported to have lost their lives and who subsequently is declared to have been identified by Los Angeles police with Communistic activities in that section.

WILD EXAGGERATIONS

Under a banner line on its first page reading:

"Wholesale murder," the publication prints a purported first-hand report of the recent rioting in which it is asserted "scores of Filipinos were beaten to death" and that "hundreds are missing."

In the recent disorder one Filipino lettuce picker was slain, Watsonville authorities point out, and whether he was killed by a member of his own race or an American has not been determined.

The publication excoriates D. W. Rohrback, justice of the peace of Pajaro township, as the instigator of the riots. Rohrback was the author of a resolution submitted early this month to the North Monterey Chamber of Commerce in which he advocated removal of all Filipinos from the district.

WORKERS NOT AFFECTED

Notwithstanding the bombing of the Filipino Federation of America clubhouse at Stockton, Frank De Andreis of the State Immigration and Housing Commission, said Filipino workers are flocking into the district to engage in asparagus picking, which will be at its height in March.

Reports that secret orders had been issued to the One Hundred and Forty-third Field Artillery of the California National Guard to stand ready for mobilization were branded "pure rot" by Adjt.-Gen. Mittelstaedt.

Miss Carrie Victorini, 16 years of age, daughter of a rancher near Watsonville, who disappeared from her home last Sunday night, and was declared to be hiding with Filipino friends, was found today in a San Jose rooming-house and was turned over to her parents. She explained her disappearance as a voluntary action to escape household drudgery.

INDEPENDENCE IN TEN YEARS PROPOSED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—A bill to provide for the immediate establishment of the "Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands" under a plan of progressive autonomy looking to complete withdrawal of American sovereignity in ten years was introduced today by Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan.

The measure is patterned along lines suggested by the late Secretary of War Weeks but goes further by proposing progressive tariff autonomy within ten years of quasi independence. The Weeks's plan contemplated complete withdrawal of American sovereignty in twenty-five years.

FORGERIES CHARGED TO SOVIET

Counterfeit Money Said to Have Been Made by Russian Government

BERLIN, Jan. 31. (AP)—Trial of two Georgians in the so-called Chervonetz counterfeiting case has developed overnight into an expose of sensational international features in which the Russian soviet government is asserted to be the principal figure.

Counsel for the two Georgians declared that the soviet Politbureau (one of the governing bodies of the U.S.S.R.) decided two years ago to forge British pound notes and dollar notes of the United States for distribution if these powers intervened in a Russian war against China.

Many asserted details of actual soviet forgeries were listed by the defense counsel in a statement which said the counterfeited notes were manufactured in the soviet government's own printing house in Leningrad and in a Russian city on the Don River. It was charged these notes were put into circulation in Europe and in Asia.

The prosecutor replied to the assertions that they were not proved and that the court could not investigate all the forgeries. The court ruled the defense counsel's assertions were immaterial at the present trial, which was adjourned until Monday.

Italian Naval Budget Gains

ROME, Jan. 31. (AP)—The Italian naval budget for 1930-1931, made public today, calls for expenditure of $77,682,032, which is approximately $1,826,800 more than last year's.

A good portion of this increase is laid out in higher rates of pay for the personnel of the Navy.

IS THERE A REMEDY FOR MASS MURDER?

WAR is the supreme folly of mankind. Realistic pictures of it such as the play "Journey's End" act powerfully to bring to our minds the true character of "mass murder." But more than a spasm of repugnance is required to put an end to the folly. War has definite causes. It is fostered by imperialistic ambitions, economic rivalry, nationalist antagonisms, increase in armaments, newspaper incitement, religious bigotry, racial hostility. We shall have to organize human life so as to eliminate these causes.

You are invited to hear E. Burdette Backus speak on the subject, using "Journey's End" as a basis for the discussion, at the First Unitarian Church, West 8th Street just east of Vermont, Sunday at 10:50 A.M. Music by double quartet from A Cappella Choir of U.C.L.A.

DEATH COMES TO DR. FAUNCE

Brown University Loses Its President Emeritus

Pronounced Views Held on Educational Topics

Liberal Training Favored in Work at College

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) Jan. 31. (AP)—Dr. William Herbert Perry Faunce, president emeritus of Brown University, died late today at his home here.

Death was caused by heart disease and bronchial pneumonia. Dr. Faunce was in his seventy-first year.

Dr. Faunce, for thirty years president of Brown University, had pronounced individualistic views regarding education and college training.

He was an advocate of liberal education as opposed to that along vocational and occupational lines, and believed that a young man about to enter college had not reached the years in which he was competent to choose a career.

Discussing that subject after he had been president of Brown some years, Dr. Faunce said: "If I were entering college today, I certainly would not attempt to choose a life career before entrance. What does a boy of 17 or 18 know about his own latent capacities or the changing spheres of private opportunity and public service?"

POINTS NOT ENOUGH

He also held that if education did not show a person how to think for himself it was futile. It was his belief that education could not be estimated by the acquiring of a certain number of points, which might be attained almost by the process of memorizing a set of tables.

In the selection of students for freshman classes, Dr. Faunce insisted that a mere number of points was not sufficient to certify that a man was fit to profit by a college course.

"He may present points without number," he said once, "but if he is lazy or vicious, if he is destitute of the instincts of a gentleman or loyalty to truth and honor, we do not want him."

On the subject of coeducation, he said he was old-fashioned enough to be thoroughly opposed to it, except as a makeshift until the colleges can afford something better. In his opinion, to treat men and women in exactly the same way, academically and socially, is to damage both. Likewise, as between the budding genius and the commonplace mind, he favored giving the exceptional mind opportunity for exceptional achievement.

Dr. Faunce was born at Worcester, Mass., January 15, 1859, the son of Rev. Daniel W. and Mary Perry Faunce. He was educated to follow his father in church work, having been graduated from Brown in 1880 and from the Newton Theological Seminary four years later. He served five years as pastor of the State-street Baptist Church at Springfield, Mass., and ten years at the Fifth-avenue Baptist Church, New York.

BOOKS WRITTEN

In 1899 Dr. Faunce was elected president of Brown University and directed its affairs for thirty years. He then retired.

On completing his theological course Dr. Faunce in June, 1884, married Miss Sarah Rogers Edson of Lynn, Mass. Their only son, Harry Edson Faunce, died after being graduated from Brown.

Although never an athlete, Dr. Faunce was fond of outdoor sports and indulged in golf and horseback riding for exercise and recreation. He urged all freshmen to follow some form of outdoor sport, but condemned any tendency to make sport a "species of war." He advocated participation in sports "not only for physical development, but for release of the play instinct, for resting tired nerves, for learning to make quick decisions, to judge distance, time and chance, to face opponents unterrified, and to be a gentleman and good sport."

In recognition of his education work, Dr. Faunce received degrees from nearly a dozen American colleges and universities. He was author of "The Educational Ideal in the Ministry," "What Does Christianity Mean?" "The New Horizon of State and Church."

He helped earn his college tuition by acting as organist of a Providence church. He also gave music lessons for a time.

BLOW AIMED AT CHICAGO BOOZE DIVES

Gangsters' Pocketbooks May Suffer as Move to Bring Halt to Bombings

CHICAGO, Jan. 31. (AP)—The State's Attorney, John A. Swanson, has been presented by his special investigator, Pat Roche, with a plan for eliminating bombings from the county's catalogue of crime.

The plan, reduced to its essentials, calls for the closing of every speakeasy and gambling place in Chicago. Roche does not believe the plan as difficult as it sounds.

Word would be passed along that every such place must be closed. The grand jury would stand by to give prompt action against any owners, police or politicians who attempted to oppose the clean-up campaign.

With elimination of gambling and liquor places, Roche said, the gangsters' sources of revenue will have been removed, and thus a daily business estimated at $200,000 will have been checked. With their income cut off, Roche believes, the gangsters will take steps to halt the bombings, which they will hold responsible for the clean-up campaign, and will take steps to prevent their recurrence.

The plan was made known following the bombing of a wholesale grocery store. State's Attorney Swanson was studying the proposal today.

Press-Telegram Nonsuit Upheld

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Action of the Los Angeles Superior Court in declaring a nonsuit in the suit of Belle McCord Roberts and the Daily Telegram Company of Long Beach against W. P. Prisk, president and editor of the Long Beach Press-Telegram; Charles H. Prisk, W. H. Hosking, business manager of the newspaper; A. J. Hosking, and the Press-Telegram Publishing Company, charging misappropriation of $75,000, was upheld today in a Third District Appellate Court decision.

It was charged that the four defendants, as directors of the publishing company, purchased $75,000 worth of stock in the Press-Telegram Building Company without legal authority. The suit was brought to restore the funds to the publishing company. The directorates of the two corporations are identical. Mrs. Roberts is vice-president of the publishing company.

State Guarded Against Fruit Fly's Invasion

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 31. (AP)—California is amply protected against invasion of the Mediterranean fruit fly and will continue to be so throughout 1930, Director Hecke of the State Department of Agriculture, told members of Gov. Young's council here today.

Hecke declared that with the existing pest-eradication organization the State can place a quarantine on any county and start work eliminating the fruit fly within twenty-four hours' notice. He said that the State is primarily interested in preventing the fly from entering the State and that border guards will be maintained for this purpose.

Five Children Perish in Fire

NAPANEE (Ont.) Jan. 31. (AP)—Five small children perished in their burning home at North Fredericksburg Station, five miles east of here, today.

They ranged from 1 to 9 years of age and were the family of Arthur Lloyd.

TWO DIE IN MINE BLAST

BONNERS FERRY (Idaho) Jan. 31. (AP)—John Skann, 25 years of age, and Herman Herberg, 39, were killed today in a mine explosion at Leonia, Idaho, twenty-five miles east of here. George Wilson was injured.

WORDS BANDIED ON IMMIGRATION

Free and Employment Chief Clash at Hearing

Californian Fights Plan for Negroes in Imperial

Farm Bureau Official Calls for Joint Study

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Spirited clashes between Representative Free of California and F. I. Jones, director-general of the United States Employment Service and witness before the House Committee on Immigration, enlivened that body's hearings today on the pending bills to restrict immigration from the Western Hemisphere.

"Why don't you tell the truth; why aren't you fair on this subject?" Representative Free demanded of Jones when the latter stated that a call for 5000 laborers had been sent out from Harlington, Tex., but that only twenty-five could be placed out of the 165 sent.

"I am telling the truth," Mr. Jones replied. Later he admitted that he knew that between the time the call went out and the time the labor arrived a killing frost wiped out more than 60 per cent of the truck produce, cutting the demand for labor.

JONES HITS BACK

Still later in the testimony Mr. Jones turned on Representative Free with "You can't kid me, Congressman."

"I am not trying to kid you, I'm trying to pound some sense into your head," Mr. Free replied. At this juncture Representative Johnson of Washington, chairman of the committee, ruled these remarks out of the record. Mr. Free protested and the remarks apparently stayed in.

Mr. Jones inserted in the record a letter from Texas stating that two dam projects had advertised for men at 20 cents an hour. He characterized this as an insult to American labor, and said it was a direct result of Mexican immigration. From then on he and Mr. Free began their battles.

REORGANIZATION URGED

Characterizing the witness as a "propagandista and idealist" Mr. Free told the committee that he thinks it is about time for reorganization of Mr. Jones's service. Under cross-examination Jones said there are three Federal farm labor offices in Texas, two in Oregon and none in California. He suggested to the committee that negro labor could be imported from New York, which is hard hit, he said, by unemployment, to Imperial Valley for labor there. Mr. Free promptly challenged the witness and told the committee that California has had enough of race problems without inviting another.

Other witnesses who appeared before the committee were Ben Garza, president of the League of United Latin American Citizens, with headquarters at Corpus Christi, Tex.; G. C. Wilmot of El Paso, director of the Federal immigration district around the city, and Chester H. Gray of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Mr. Gray presented a resolution adopted by the Farm Bureau Federation in 1927 asking that a joint Congressional committee be appointed to study the restriction of immigration from nationals of countries in the Western Hemisphere before Congress takes action on proposed restriction bills.

FINAL SOLUTION SOUGHT

The federation, Gray told the committee, wants a final solution to the problem, involving as little harm to border and inland farmers as possible during the transition from unrestricted to restricted immigration, and does not feel that the Immigration Committee can gather sufficient data through its hearings in Washington.

He said farmers with their supplies of help cut off tend to go into production of commodities such as butter and milk, which can be handled by less help but which is in world competition and the "surplus class."

"To most people," he said, "diversification means milking a cow."

Mr. Wilmot of the El Paso station, United States immigration service, testified that legal entries in El Paso district ports are decreasing, due to the tightening up of the Labor and State departments on visa regulations, and the introduction of bond requirements on temporary visitors.

This witness estimated that Mexican immigration will be cut this year to less than 18,000.

BOX ADDRESSES WOMEN

While the hearing was in progress at the Capitol, Representative Box, Democrat, of Texas, author of one of the restriction bills, was urging support of his measure in a speech before the Women's Patriotic Council on National Defense at Continental Memorial Hall.

"The whole Western Hemisphere must be covered by our restrictive system," he said. "The coming of 40,000 to 60,000 Mexican peons through the ports annually and others in unknown but large numbers around the stations is so inconsistent with our policy that it defeats the national purpose."

Mr. Box neglected to call attention to the fact that the figures he used are old, and that Mexican immigration of types that would be halted by enactment of a quota law are now coming in at the rate of only 434 a month, or a total of only a little above 5000 a year, due to tighter border regulations put in force a year ago by the State and Labor departments.

INFLUX GROWING

The Texas Representative asserted in his speech that while foreign-born Mexicans resident in the United States numbered but 103,392 in 1900, they had increased to 321,215 by 1910 and to 486,418 in 1920. "The major movement of Mexican immigration did not begin until 1910," he said, predicting that the 1930 census will show upward of 2,000,000 Mexicans in this country.

Representative Box said that during the last Congressional recess he and Representative Jenkins of Ohio, another member of the House Immigration Committee, made a nation-wide survey of the so-called Mexican problem and that reports to them showed conclusively that the Mexicans in the United States are constantly and rapidly increasing in number, that there are evidences of a coming racial problem, that mixed schools are not satisfactory to the American whites, that there is some intermarrying to the detriment of the American blood and that the Mexicans in most instances live under bad housing and sanitary conditions.

"No other alien people entering America," declared Box, "ever served as easier channels for race intermarriage and legitimate blood intermixture than do these Mexicans, with whom both black and white races intermarry in many instances. White, Mexican and negro blood cannot be kept separate when we have a mongrel population numbering hundreds of thousands or even millions, some of which intermarry with both other races, making the blood of all three flow back and forth in a sickening amalgamation."

NEW PREMIER HAS HOBBIES

Horses and Music Interest Gen. Berenguer, Who Reorganizes Band

MADRID, Jan. 31. (AP)—Gen. Damaso Berenguer, new Spanish Premier, has two recreational interests, horses and music.

One of his first acts on becoming chief of the royal household military staff, which post he relinquished to become Premier, was to reorganize the royal band.

The music of this organization previously had been that of brass instruments entirely, but Gen. Berenguer convinced the King his method was much better, so now it uses many stringed instruments.

Hoover Lack of Experience as to Legislation Hit

Hobbs, Wool Leader, Denies Holding Like View

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—Senate lobby investigators today heard a year-old speech by Joseph R. Grundy, Republican Senator from Pennsylvania, expressing the view that President Hoover "doesn't know anything at all from experience what legislation means."

The speech was made at a meeting of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers before Mr. Hoover was inaugurated and before Grundy was appointed to the Senate. Grundy was expressing concern over the future of the tariff bill, at that time just getting started in Congress.

Questioned later by newspaper men about his remarks on the President, Grundy replied:

"If it's in the record, I said it. At that time it was my appraisal of things."

PORTION OF SPEECH

The speech said in part:

"My concern is not lessened at all by the knowledge that the President-elect, while he is a very fine fellow and the State that I have the honor of coming from gave him almost 1,000,000 majority to show its confidence in him, has never had any legislative experience.

"He never ran for office before. He never ran for even the office of dog catcher. He doesn't know anything at all, from experience, what legislation means. His mind runs on many other subjects than economic subjects."

Grundy has announced that he is a candidate for re-election to the Senate. The Republican primaries in Pennsylvania are in May, followed by the general election in November.

VIEW NOT SHARED

Franklin Hobbs of Boston, president of the wool association, who testified today before the committee, said he did not share in this view of President Hoover nor did his association.

Grundy also was quoted as saying, after calling attention to the Republican victory in the 1928 Presidential election:

"Since the election what has taken place? Our President-elect has slipped out of the country and has gone down to South America on other kinds of business. He won't be back here until January, and then he plans to sojourn for a while somewhere in the South."

Grundy was reported to have added that women "never knew anything about the tariff."

NEW YORK COMMISSION SLASHES PHONE RATES

ALBANY (N. Y.) Jan. 1. (AP)—The Public Service Commission today ordered the New York Telephone Company to put into effect at midnight tonight a new rate schedule which, in effect, reduced by 20 per cent a new schedule already announced by the telephone company.

Telephone company officials indicated that they will move for a Federal Court injunction restraining the commission from enforcing its order.

OPERA TROUPE GETS BACK PAY PROMISE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Payment of approximately $12,000 due them in back salary was promised fifty-five members of the Standard Columbia Opera Company here today by Mrs. Hector Geiger of Los Angeles and Pasadena, sponsor of the company. In addition, Mrs. Geiger told the State Labor Commission, before whom she appeared today, she will pay transportation to Los Angeles for all members from the southern city.

WET FEBRUARY PADRE'S AUGURY

Father Ricard's Almanac Foretells Rains

Seventeen Days of Showers in Month on Tap

March Entering Like Lion Also Prophesied

SANTA CLARA, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Father Jerome S. Ricard, "Padre of Rains" who is ill in the O'Connor Sanatorium, worknig with his assistants at the observatory at University of Santa Clara has compiled the following forecast for February:

February 1, 2, 3—An area of low pressure will settle over the Northwest during this period and gradually unsettle the weather along the whole Pacific Slope, with snows over our mountainous districts and rain in the great valleys of California.

February 4, 5, 6—Still unsettled, with clearings here and there.

STILL CLOUDY

February 7, 8, 9—Cloudy, with sprinkles of no great quantity.

February 10, 11, 12, 13—Fair over Washington and British Columbia and to the south and southwest as well, a period of warm weather alternating with cold.

February 14, 15, 16, 17—A cumulative area of low pressures will arrive over the Northwest and gradually creep down the coast, dropping generous rain over our mountains and valleys.

February 18, 19—An increase of the above storm will intensify and prolong the above climatic conditions generally; rains and snows over the coast and far in the interior.

REAL RAINS NOW

February 20, 21, 22—Still another depression will enter on the Pacific States, with more generous rains than before. California may partially escape because of the high pressures that will attempt to enter at the same time.

February 23, 24—Tending to clear along the whole coast, with a few drops of rain here and there during the process.

February 25, 26—A period of fine weather will now set in along the coast from British Columbia to Mexico and gradually follow the storm far inland.

February 27, 28—The morning of the first date will see a minor depression over the Northwest, quickly passing to the eastward. Fair and warm in California and Southwest generally.

NB—The first days of March to be considerably disturbed.

FATHER AND SON INJURED

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 31.—M. H. Compton, 70 years of age, of Porterville, sustained probably fatal injuries, and his son, Byron, 18-year-old Porterville High School student, was also injured on the Golden State Highway, ten miles south of here, when a machine driven by young Compton plunged off the road and into a ditch as the youth attempted to avoid striking an approaching automobile following an unsuccessful attempt to pass a truck and trailer.

The road was so slippery that the brakes proved useless. The father suffered a probable fractured skull, broken clavicle, body bruises and probable internal injuries. The boy sustained facial cuts and bruises and a sprained hand.

Mystery Veils Woman's Death

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 31. (AP)—The crushed body of Mrs. Margaret Wymer, 28 years of age, comely divorcee, was found early today lying at the rear of an apartment-house here, from where she had plunged from a third-story window.

Officials are attempting to determine whether the woman was thrown, leaped or fell as she was adjusting a window of her apartment preparatory to retiring.

Papers found among the victim's effects indicated she was divorced from Ray Wymer, former Sacramentan, a year ago. During a part of the couple's married life they lived at the apartment-house where she died today. Later they moved to San Francisco and the divorce followed.

Four months ago the woman returned to the apartment-house and registered under what is believed to have been her maiden name, Margaret Lester.

STATE RULES CITY MILK LAWS LEGAL

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Proposed ordinances of cities to prohibit the sale of inferior grades of milk would not conflict with the State pure-milk law, it was declared by Atty.-Gen. Webb in a ruling made to G. H. Hecke, director of the State Department of Agriculture, today. The law divides milk into grades of certified, guaranteed, grade A and grade B. Hecke indicated that some cities have proposed to prohibit sale of grade B milk.

PERSIA EMBARGOES IMPORT OF SILVER

TEHERAN (Persia) Jan. 31. (AP) The National Assembly today adopted a bill prohibiting the import of silver into Persia because of the depreciation in price of that metal and the serious hampering of trade resulting from the consequent dearness of foreign exchange.

RADIO AMATEUR AIMS OUTLINED

President Maxim of "Hams" Exhorts Senators

Tells of Benefits from Unselfish Group

Congressional Recognition of League Asked

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—(NANA) Hiram Percy Maxim, noted inventor and father of the international amateur movement, outlined the aims and principles of the radio amateurs here today before the United States Senate Committee on Radio. His testimony struck a refreshing note following so closely days of concentration upon the commercial aspects of the radio science.

While commercial companies are virtually stumbling over each other in their eager scramble for possession of the incalculably valuable short waves, the world's "hams" unostentatiously continue to pursue their labors of love on the few radio channels left to them for the purpose of talking through space to each other by code and voice.

There is no profit motive in the American Radio Relay League, which has about 17,000 members, young and old, throughout the country. They are pledged to a code forbidding the use of their equipment for commercial purposes. Their great service, in addition to developing fields unheeded by those in the business of communications, is to stand by in emergencies.

IN TIMES OF STRESS

Thus it was that amateurs leaped into the breach to establish contacts with the outside world when other means of communication were destroyed during the Florida hurricanes, the Mississippi floods, the New England floods, the California dam break and other times of stress and disaster.

The A.R.R.L. is the prime mover in the International Amateur Radio Union, whose fourteen other units in about as many other countries bring the membership in the world amateur movement to approximately 25,000. American conceived and sponsored, and with a preponderantly American membership, the national and international organizations have had Mr. Maxim as president since their inception just before the war.

It was the amateurs who pioneered the short waves below 200 meters, now so precious for all forms of nation-wide and world-wide communication. From the ranks of the "hams" has come a large share of engineering talent now making radio broadcasting and the other blessings of radio available to everybody.

A rapt group of Senators heard Mr. Maxim narrate the growth of the amateur movement and tell how it thrives on sheer interest in a hobby. As Mr. Maxim, himself a boyishly enthusiastic "ham," put it, they "work for the pure love of the thrill they get out of sending messages through the ether and getting back replies."

BOND NARROWING

They are designated "hams" because of their nonprofessional character and only as a term of affection. Mr. Maxim asserted—and there is plenty of evidence to support him in the youthful amateurs who have grown to manhood and leadership in the various fields of radio—that they are "the pick of the land in mentality and resoluteness of character."

Mr. Maxim then told how other needs for radio channels have crowded them into narrower bands of channels, and how they are now working on the ultra-short waves below ten meters just as they formerly did on the waves below 200 meters. He urged attention to preservation of the integrity of the amateurs in any more legislation that may be written to cover radio, saying the Federal Radio Commission has already given them all the freedom of action possible under international treaty.

Paul M. Segal, the Washington counsel of the American Radio Relay League, asked the committee to give specific recognition to amateurs in the pending Couzens bill creating a commission on communications. Such recognition has been accorded in other radio acts, but should not be left to implication in future legislation, Mr. Segal said.

BOBBY TROUT AIMS AT MAN-MADE MARK

ALAMEDA, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Miss Bobby Trout, Los Angeles aviatrix, before taking off for Los Angeles this afternoon in a Maddux plane, announced she is planning an assault on the endurance record for men sometime in April. She will have a companion, but said it will not be Miss Elinor Smith of New York, with whom Miss Trout now jointly hold's the women's endurance aloft. The take-off, she indicated, will be at Stockton.

CHURCH SURVEYS NEW AGE

Federal Council Reports on State Interference; Decline-of-Home Investigation Fruitless

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—The issue of the church and the state and the passing of the home as the social unit, with its attendant problems, are the principal subject treated in a report on "Social Work of the Churches" compiled by investigators for the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

The report, written by F. Earnest Johnson after several years of research, lists the problem of church and state under three captions:

"Should the church attempt to influence government in behalf of legislative proposals such as social insurance or factory legislation?

CHURCH IN POLITICS

"To what extent should the church participate in partisan political activity in order to secure the election or defeat of certain candidates for office?

"To what extent should the church accept dictation from the state in matters affecting Christian conscience, particularly with reference to war? Is the church independent enough to oppose the will of the State?"

Regarding modern home life the report said:

"The home apparently has ceased in most of our communities to be the unit of human association. At the base this phemonenon is economic. The home once was the place where many of the life-sustaining processes were in large measure carried on, such as the production of food and clothing."

THE PASSING HOME

The reasons given for the lessening significance of the home are:

The relatively advanced age at which marriage occurs; the growth of cities and the crowding of homes into apartments.

The migration of women from the home into industry, business and the professions.

No solution of the problem is offered. The report declares that the rehabilitation of the home "remains an open and pertinent question."

DIRIGIBLE BASE ACTION URGED

Jahncke Asks for Choice of One of California Sites

Sunnyvale Lobby Jubilant Over Letter to Britten

Appeal Taken as Indicating Department Neutrality

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Adherents of the Sunnyvale (Santa Clara county) site for the naval dirigible base to be located in California were jubilant today over a letter from Acting Secretary of the Navy Jahncke to Chairman Britten of the House Naval Affairs Committee which, according to their interpretation, indicates that the Navy Department now has adopted a neutral attitude as between Sunnyvale and the Camp Kearny site at San Diego.

The letter recommends that Congress enact "either" the Swing bill providing for the selection of Camp Kearny or the Free bill placing the base at Sunnyvale.

However, it sets forth the fact that Secretary of the Navy Adams, who is now at the London arms conference, and the General Board of the Navy had united in urging selection of Camp Kearny. The letter is a recital of steps that have been taken toward the selection of the dirigible base, of reports that have been made, first by the special investigating committee, and then by the General Board and the Secretary, and ends with the request that some action be taken by Congress.

The Sunnyvale lobby has been extremely aggressive. In contrast, those interested in seeing the dirigibles based at San Diego have been relatively inactive, being content to rest on the merits of their case and the favorable reports made by the Secretary and General Board.

Woman Links County Officials to Liquor Plot

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 31. (AP)—Ruth Morgan May, 23 years of age, comely sweetheart of an oil-field deputy sheriff, now dead, testified in Federal Court today that on numerous occasions she had seen money collected for protection of bootlegging joints delivered to Randall Pitman, county attorney, and Frank Fox, former sheriff.

The young woman said that Oscar Motley, the deputy with whom she lived, was in charge of collections from liquor dispensaries in Earlsboro, boom oil town, and the oil fields in its vicinity. Records purporting to show collections and disbursements of protection money, which the witness said she kept, in antagonism to the wishes of Fox, were turned over to the government by her and introduced in evidence.

The government charges, in its trial of thirty-two persons charged with a conspiracy against the national prohibition laws, that Fox and Pitman were leaders of a ring that dominated the liquor traffic of the county.

Fight on Cotton Boll Worm Instant Necessity

Congress Rushes War Fund for New Infestation

California, Periled by Near Plague Spot, May Help

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Emergency action was begun in Congress today to protect the cotton industry of the Southwest from the destruction threatened by discovery of heavy pink boll worm infestation in Arizona.

Advised of the seriousness of the situation, the House Agricultural Committee met and quickly voted a favorable report on the resolution of Representative Lewis W. Douglas of Arizona rushing Federal funds to Arizona for an eradication compaign. House leaders plan to give the legislation special right of way Monday and the Senate is expected speedily to follow suit by letting the measure have momentary precedence over the tariff. No opposition is anticipated as the resolution has the support of the administration and Budget Bureau.

TEN-DAY DEADLINE

Action is declared necessary within the next ten days, as growers by that time would normally begin to plan cotton acreage which must be kept bare or turned to other crops for the next year or two if the boll worm is to be driven from Arizona and kept from spreading to California, New Mexico and other territory.

The Douglas resolution authorizes an appropriation of $2,500,000 and gives Arizona, which has no adequate funds immediately available and which has no meeting of its Legislature this year, until next year to take care of its half of the eradication expense under the usual Federal policy. However, the guaranty that the State will give its share must be made at once and the resolution provides that it may be given by individuals, associations or corporations in form acceptable to the Secretary of Agriculture.

CALIFORNIA'S INTEREST

Representative Douglas said he is informed that prominent Arizona citizens will meet at Phoenix Monday to draw up the necessary guaranty. The suggestion has been made in Washington that perhaps California interests will want to cooperate in this meeting since the boll worm, if not stamped out in Arizona, almost certainly will jump to their State, making it almost equally to California's benefit that the eradication work be immediate and effective.

The boll worm has apparently made its way to Arizona from Texas, where it has caused gigantic losses, skipping over New Mexico, where the climate is not to its liking. The gravity of the infestation lies largely in the fact that climatic and other conditions in Arizona are ideal for the propagation and spread of the pest.

CAMPAIGN PROPOSED

The most effective way of fighting the boll worm is to completely denude infested areas and plant late in buffer zones, and this is the program intended for Arizona. The appropriation proposed by Representative Douglas is to indemnify landowners for losses accruing in this process.

For the clearing work required the administration itself swung in in action today with the Budget Bureau recommending an appropriation of $587,500 to President Hoover, and the latter promptly sending it along to Congress, where it was laid before the Appropriations Committee of the House. This suggested appropriation contemplates the clearing of cotton on 47,000 acres of Arizona land, at an estimated cost of $12.50 per acre. The action of the Budget Bureau shows that the administration is fully awake to the dangers from the boll worm and there are indications that the matter probably has had the personal attention of President Hoover.

PERIL IMMEDIATE

In a statement explaining the deadly seriousness of the boll worm threat Representative Douglas declared that if his resolution is not immediately passed eradication efforts will collapse and "we will have with us forever the most serious of menaces to the cotton industry in Arizona, California, New Mexico and Texas, if not the entire South."

"In the Salt River and Gila valleys in the State of Arizona hard winter frosts are practically unknown," he said. "The occurrence, therefore, of the pink boll worm in those areas constitutes a much more real menace, not only to the cotton industry of Arizona, but to the entire southern tier of States from the Atlantic to the Pacific, than any heretofore discovered infestation. It therefore requires as strenuous if not more strenuous action to tradicate.

ESSENTIAL METHODS

"The two essential items necessary to the destruction of the pest are:

"(1.) The establishment of noncotton zones in which cotton cannot be planted.

"(2.) The cleaning up of fields within such noncotton zones.

"If either of these two phases of the campaign against the pink boll worm should fail, it is practically certain that the pest will spread into California on the west and into New Mexico and Texas on the east.

"Noncotton zones cannot, either in fact or law, be maintained unless provision for compensation is made for the actual and necessary losses sustained as a result of the establishment of such zones.

"Because of the absence of hard winter frosts in the cotton areas in the State of Arizona, noncotton zones extending for a distance of several miles beyond the points of infestation are absolutely essential to the eradication of the pest. The question of compensation to farmers within said zones thus is basic to the problem of destroying the pest."

ARIZONA SLAYER CONVICTED

CLIFTON (Ariz.) Jan. 31. (AP)—W. W. Frazier was convicted of second-degree murder by a Superior Court jury here today for the slaying last November of Tom Maness, prominent Greenlee county cattleman. He will be sentenced later.

RICH WOMAN TURNS ON GAS TO END LIFE

CHICAGO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Money isn't everything, and Mrs. Elizabeth Welge, knowing it, is dead. Her wealth was estimated in excess of $500,000, which she inherited from her father. But her health was poor, and she blamed this for her act in a note found after police broke into her apartment yesterday and found her dead from gas. She was 61 years of age.

SPANISH REVOLT LEADERS TAKEN

Reports of Movement for Old Regime Persist

HENDAYE (France) Jan. 31. (AP) Continued agitation in Madrid, with arrests of many prominent persons, were reported by people who crossed the frontier today. A strong movement in favor of an immediate return to a constitutional regime persists, say these reports, despite the promise of the new government to provide elections.

It is said that the Berenguer government is taking energetic measures to nip in the bud any open revolt.

STUDENTS' STRIKE IN MADRID PUT DOWN

MADRID, Jan. 31. (AP)—The new Spanish government under Gen. Damasco Berenguer capped its first day's work today by settling the strike of university students. It was this strike which gave the first inkling of the crisis which resulted in the downfall of Primo de Rivera.

CEMENT GOES ON FREE LIST

Tariff Question Settled by 40-to-35 Senate Vote

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—Another major building material was restored to the tariff free list today by the Senate when it voted, 40 to 35, to eliminate from the Hawley-Smoot bill a proposed levy of 8 cents a hundred pounds on hydraulic cement.

Reunited after several splits in their respective groups, the Democrats and Republican independents—who have been generally successful in striking out tariff increases on industrial products—proved too strong for the cement duty advocates. They voted an amendment by Senator McMaster, Republican independent, South Dakota, to retain the product in its present free category. Both the House and Senate Finance Committee measures proposed a rate of 8 cents a hundred pounds.

Twenty-four Democrats, fifteen Republicans and the one Farmer-Labor Senator, Shipstead, of Minnesota, supported the free-list amendment. Twenty-nine Republicans and six Democrats opposed it.

MAN RACES THROUGH SNOW SANS PANTS TO WIN BET

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—The prize for daring—a $50 prize, incidentally—during Washington's big snow, has gone to Andrew Madden, 23 years of age, who lives in an apartment on Spring Road.

On the night the snow began a Madden family conversation reached its climax in a declaration by the husband that for $50 he would run, sans coat, sans shoes, and sans pants to a near-by bakery.

"I'll bet you $50 you will not," said Mrs. Madden.

"It's a bet," returned Madden and promptly forgot about it.

Nor did he recall it the morning after as he awakened and looked out to see a half-foot of snow on the ground. He remembered when he looked in vain for his clothing and found only an undergarment.

"You bet me $50 that you would run up to the bakery on Fourteenth street without any coat, pants, or shoes," Mrs. Madden reminded. "Your clothes are locked up."

Madden did not hesitate. He donned the union suit and he went out. There were few pedestrians on the street and they gave him plenty of room, as did the customers in the bakery. Madden threw down a coin.

"A pint of milk," he panted, "and keep the change."

He sprinted the block back to his house and dashed upstairs. His wife took one look at him and paid the fifty.

German Army Check Ceases

BERLIN, Jan. 31. (AP)—At the German government's request, the ambassadors' conference has agreed to withdraw from Berlin the British and French military experts appointed when the interallied military commission was dissolved. Since then these experts have been keeping an eye on Germany's disarmament as directed in the Versailles Treaty. Their functions ceased officially today.

NEW DRY PLANS UP AGAIN TODAY

Williamson Bill Will Get More Consideration

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—The House Expenditures Committee was recalled today to meet tomorrow to reconsider the Williamson bill to transfer the prohibition enforcement unit from the Treasury to the Justice Department, as recommended by President Hoover and his Law Enforcement Commission.

The amendment adopted by the committee to authorize the Attorney-General to draft regulations under which the Secretary of the Treasury should issue industrial alcohol permits has met serious opposition among members of the House. A substitute provision has been drafted by Chairman Williamson of the committee. This would make the drafting of the regulations a joint responsibility of the Cabinet officers, but would leave the administration of the Prohibition Bureau entirely under the Justice Department.

LOS ANGELES ANNUAL SMALL HOMES EXPOSITION

AMERICA LOOKS AT LOS ANGELES TODAY

Exposition Hailed as National Event

Today you may look upon a sight that no other city can see or ever has seen. Only in Los Angeles would such an exposition be possible — this breath-taking array of small homes created by nationally known architects, furnished by skilled decorators, prepared after months of planning at a cost of many thousands of dollars.

Not just a model home, not merely a few exhibits — but a whole amazing avenue of homes that reach out and grip you with their beauty; both sides of the street lined with prize models designed by such masters of the architectural art as Gordon B. Kaufmann, Carl Jules Weyl, Roland E. Coate, George J. Adams and Franz Herding — each set off like a brilliant jewel by a background of trees, flowers and shrubs with plazas conceived by Olmstead Brothers, noted city planners.

FURNISHINGS BY BARKER BROS.

A dazzling and magnificent sight in itself. The Exposition takes on heightened charm from its location in beautiful Leimert Park. Through winding drives, banked by trees and velvety lawns, in a setting dotted by parks and plazas you enter Leimert Park as you do a restful haven. It has an air of its own, a park-like charm, that will make your visit to the Exposition doubly enthralling.

And in the homes — what masterpieces of decorative art! Keeping in mind that these are small homes, not to be outfitted at great expense, Barker Bros. have achieved miracles of beauty and comfort in furnishing a number of the model dwellings.

Think of the sights you will see, the home-building ideas you will gather, in viewing this mammoth Exposition of THIRTY-FIVE HOMES. You'll see them in Stucco, in Stone-Tile, and in the NEW process of Insulated Concrete reinforced with steel. You'll see living rooms, bathrooms, fireplaces, bedrooms, staircases and fixtures that you'd like to lift up bodily and take along with you.

Truly this greatest of all Home Expositions is worthy of your visit. Not only because it represents the best and newest ideas in home building, landscaping and furnishing — but also because it will entertain you, thrill you with beauty, give you sights that you will remember for months. Everyone is invited.

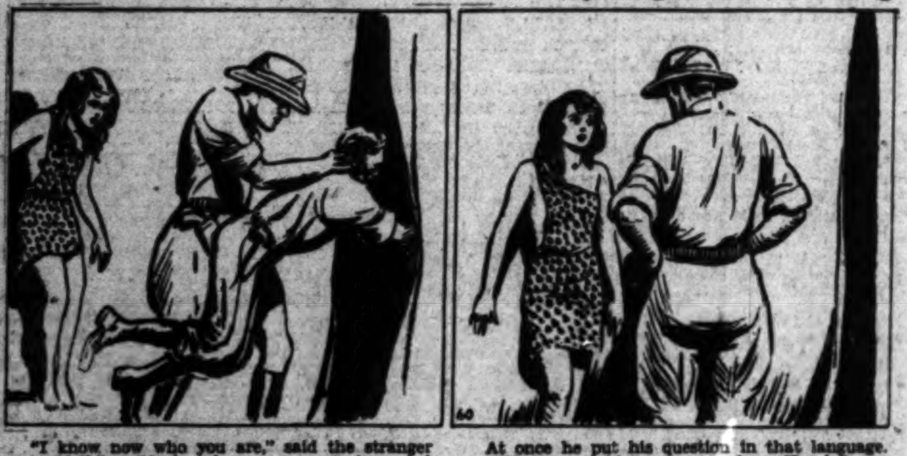
A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

THE SON OF TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs



"I know now who you are," said the stranger to Malbihn. "And such as you are not wanted in our country. I will spare your life but the next time you see me, remember who I am." He spoke a name into the scoundrel's ear that filled the Swede with wide-eyed terror, before he was sent sprawling through the tent door. Changing his tone, the stranger addressed Meriem in a tongue she did not understand. She replied in Arabic.

At once he put his question in that language. "They were taking me away from Korak," was all she answered. "Who are your people? Who is Korak?" he asked, looking at her strange, barbaric garments wonderingly. "Why, Korak is an ape. I have no other people. Korak and I live in the jungle alone since Akut went to be king of the apes. I am Meriem. I too am an ape!" The stranger watched her closely and a pitying light came into his eyes.

Gaining her confidence, he learned more of Meriem's story, but in the end he was as much mystified as in the beginning. He knew the jungle well; knew that men had lived alone and naked among the savage beasts for years; but a girl! It was not possible! He guessed that her Korak and their life among the apes was but a figment of a disordered mind. He could not allow this poor, insane child to wander longer amid the jungle.

At last he persuaded her to return with him to his "village" or "douar" as he called it in Arabic. "There my wife will take care of you until we can find Korak or Korak finds us," he explained. "Korak will find his way to me," the girl said simply. "Let us go to your 'douar'." On the fifth day they came suddenly upon a great plain and from the edge of the forest the girl saw in the distance a sight that caused her to draw back.

ASSESSMENT RELIEF TOLD

San Diego County Supervisors Announce 'Pyramiding' of District Levies Will be Discontinued

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 31.—Announcement that the County Board of Supervisors no longer will permit "pyramiding" of district assessments has been followed by reports that a larger proportion of landowners will be able to meet individual assessments for district improvement, Charles Good, chairman of the board, said today. Former custom of tax officials to "pile up" delinquent taxes each year upon such property owners in a given district as struggled to meet the district obligation, had produced an alarming situation. This will not be done in the future under the board's present plan to assess each year only the normal due, just as if no individual property owners had been delinquent the past year.

"Most property owners, when entering a proposed improvement district, prepared themselves financially to meet their share of the assessments," the chairman explained. "These owners are still able to meet their individual tax, provided they are not burdened with a proportionate share of delinquent taxes of their unfortunate neighbors."

The present plan will result in fewer faults, Cook believes. Bondholders also appear to be satisfied with the new arrangement, "on the sound theory that it will be better to get their money, even if a bit slower, than a lot of land they might have trouble in disposing of without loss."

"The improvement district tax situation had reached such a pass the people could no longer stand it," the chairman commented. "It got to the point where the districts had to have relief. We're providing that relief in the form of the nonpyramiding plan and the result is already gratifying and encouraging."

CANADIAN IN TROUBLE AT SAN DIEGO

R. W. Dickin, Montreal Bank Clerk, Arrested Near Border for Embezzlement

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Russell Wilbert Dickin, assistant cashier in the head office of the Bank of Montreal at Montreal, was arrested here today by Undersheriff Sexson on a telegraphic warrant from Canadian provincial police stating the man was wanted for falsifying public records and for the theft of $25,000.

Arrest was made at the Mexican border at San Ysidro just after Dickin had crossed over from Tia Juana. Sexson says the man had been attending the races at Agua Caliente for several days.

As soon as Sexson informed Dickin he was under arrest, the Sheriff's deputy states, the man announced that he would return voluntarily and would waive extradition. During a conversation that followed, Sexson says the man admitted that during the last seven or eight years, he had embezzled $80,000.

First information that Dickin was in this vicinity came today, when Sheriff Cooper received a telegram from Morris C. La Lande, Chief of Provincial Police at Quebec, requesting aid in the search that had extended over the entire continent since Dickin's departure from Quebec on the 22nd inst.

Dickin told the arresting officer that he had been with the bank for fifteen years and that he has a wife in Montreal.

Galusha Cole for Annexing

PASADENA, Jan. 31.—If Galusha M. Cole, who will be 104 years of age next August, is as wise as he is old, this city should immediately annex to Los Angeles. Recovered from a cold which confined him to his home several days, this city's "most revered resident" said today that the annexation of Pasadena to Los Angeles is the principal plank in his platform of hopes at the present time.

"If we become a part of Los Angeles," he asserted, "our taxes will become lower and the town will grow much faster. Pasadena's City Hall is very unhandy to get around in and can't hold a candle to the Long Beach City Hall from the standpoint of comfort and cost much more because of the corridor space."

Cole asserted that local residents would vote overwhelmingly in favor of annexation with Los Angeles if given an opportunity.

LAWNDALE INSTITUTION IN SESSION

New Adolph Leuzinger High School Begins Its First Semester

LAWNDALE, Jan. 31.—With an enrollment of 155 boys and 123 girl students, classes at the new Adolph Leuzinger High School opened this week. The preponderance of boy students over the number of girls is unique in the records of the Inglewood Union High School District, of which system the new school is a part.

Classes taught this year include all Hawthorne city and Lawndale freshmen and sophomore students who formerly attended the Inglewood school. The curriculum extends through the two-year course covering physical education for both boys and girls.

Mrs. Ruth Darsie, formerly of the English department of Inglewood High School, is dean of girls and Harold O. Simar of the history department dean of boys. Supt. George M. Green is in direct charge.

Dedication services have been planned for March 5, next, upon the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Inglewood Union High School District, and will be elaborate.

One-Quarter of New Highway to be Ready Soon

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 31—Within a few weeks approximately one-fourth of the proposed Maricopa-Carpinteria-Ventura Highway which will make the San Joaquin Valley less than five hours away from this city by automobile, will be completed.

Nearly twenty-five miles of the road has been finished. One section from the San Joaquin Valley to the foot of Pine Mountain is now ready. This project cost $124,000. The six-mile strip up the mountain, the contract for which was let for $271,000, is nearing completion, as is the two-mile strip west from Tico Station in the Ojai Valley.

Supervisor Stanwood estimated it would take $250,000 to build the proposed highway through the Casitas Pass. The new road when finished is to be about 100 miles long. It is to conform to the specifications of the State Department of Public Works, with grades of only 6 or 7 per cent.

"South Gate" to Appear on Cars

SOUTH GATE, Jan. 31. — After appearing before the Board of Public Utilities of the City of Los Angeles in an effort to have the name of South Gate placed on the dash signs of the Los Angeles Street Railway Company, the Chamber of Commerce has been successful, and the name of this city will appear along with that of Huntington and Walnut Park, these signs being on the J cars of the street railway company.

It is understood the Public Utilities Board has established a rule heretofore that no more than two names be placed on these dash signs. On the signs in use for several years only two lines were used, one being taken up by the name of Huntington Park and the other Walnut Park. Harold Pomeroy, secretary of the local chamber, states that South Gate will appear on these signs just as soon as the railway company has them in readiness.

PUBLISHERS INCORPORATE

Ventura County Publishing Company Formed to Take Over Santa Paula Review and Fillmore American

VENTURA, Jan. 31.—Articles of incorporation have been filed at Sacramento for the Ventura County Publishing Company, Ltd. Today they were put on record with the County Clerk here. Permission to issue 7500 shares of assessable stock of $10 par value has been given. Mark Edward is attorney for the incorporators, who propose to take over the Santa Paula Review, a morning daily, and the Fillmore America, weekly newspaper.

The incorporators listed are B. De Hoyos, in whose name the Review was recently purchased; his wife, Aletta De Hoyos; W. R. Stewart, city editor; Frank McCain, who is said to have been engaged for some time in publicity work of the Hueneme harbor project, and Joseph H. Montgomery and Jean Ambrose of Los Angeles.

The Review began daily publication September 1, last year.

West-side Route Declared to Threaten Lives of Trees

Nature Lovers Preparing for Fight to Save Rare Growth

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 31. — Announcement has just been made that the California State Highway Commission has washed its hands of all responsibility as to the placing of the new Torrey Pines grade on the highway just north of La Jolla and leading into San Diego.

Tree lovers, not only of California, but of the entire West, are watching developments with interest, praying that whatever is done the beautiful virgin stand of Torrey Pines will be preserved. As these trees are found only two places in the world, in a limited area in San Diego county, and on Santa Rosa Island, off the California coast, organizations whose main object it is to preserve the wonderful trees of California are rolling up their sleeves for a fight.

Two projections are being considered, one on the east side and the other on the west side of what is known as the Torrey Pines hill, one of the most picturesque roads in Southern California or the State, but with a grade that is dreaded by cars of small power and by timid drivers. Engineers have just reported that they do not believe a road on the east side would be feasible.

EROSION FEARED

Those opposing the west side, which would skirt the coast and run through La Jolla, declare that a highway on this side would destroy many of the 700 beautiful pines. A few of this number would have to be cut down, it is asserted, while many would be killed by erosion.

Those determined to save the trees at any cost declare that should operations be started on the west bluff, they will immediately file an injunction and have the entire matter thrashed out in the courts. Many still believe that a road on the east cliff could be built with safety, and assert that few if any of the pines would have to fall under the ax or be ruined by erosion.

These trees, which few motorists fail to stop and admire when driving to San Diego or Agua Caliente, are in the San Diego Park system though twenty-one miles from the center of the city.

LA JOLLA DIVIDED

La Jolla is not a unit on the question of where the highway should go. The "go-getters" who admit they would like to divert at least a small portion of the coast travel through their town, have favored the west side, but are willing to approve the eastern road should it at least give travelers an option as to whether to include La Jolla or to take the now-being-built Rose Canyon cutoff.

The other element in La Jolla, which numbers many, asserts that it has come there to get away from traffic and people, and does not care whether tourists include the town in their route or not, really preferring that they do not.

Valley Center to Get Large Walnut Plant

NORTH LOS ANGELES, Jan. 31. It is learned here today that the San Fernando Valley Walnut Growers' Association, after several years of contemplation, will abandon its present location and processing plant at North Hollywood and will shortly begin the construction of its new $50,000 plant here.

The move is made to have the plant more centrally located in the valley. Most of the larger walnut groves now are either in the center or in the western end of the valley area. At the annual meeting of the association on February 10, next, David Brown, manager, will make formal announcement of the site, and detail of plans will be given out. The new plant will be large enough and equipped sufficiently to handle 2000 tons of nuts each harvesting season.

During the past season 1150 tons of nuts were handled by two shifts working night and day. Young walnut groves in the valley are now maturing so fast that it is expected that 2000 tons will be the yearly output within the next two or three years.

For several years the processing plant has been at North Hollywood, or in what was formerly known as the Lankershim district. Four or five years ago the bulk of the walnut crop came from the eastern part of the valley. Conditions have changed because of the rapid home building in the North Hollywood section and the maturing of new groves in the central and west part of the valley.

Burglar Raids Woman's Club

GLENDALE, Jan. 31.—A passkey burglar is sought today by police on charges of having robbed the office of the Tuesday Afternoon Club yesterday, escaping with $200 in cash, $400 in checks, and a hand bag containing $8, following a daylight raid on the club office while the members were in session in an adjacent room. Mrs. A. A. Barton, office manager, told Detective Sergeant Hegi and Detective Merrell that she had locked the office when she entered the clubroom, and when she returned half an hour later the desk in which she had placed the money had been ransacked. Suspicion is said to point to a stranger who remained in the club lobby for an hour and who told one of the women that he was expecting his sister to meet him there.

CHINO PROTESTS PRISON

Following Inspection of Proposed Site Near There, Committee Tells Governor it is Not Wanted

CHINO, Jan. 31.—This valley is one of too much contentment and prosperity for the residents to worry about having a prison in their midst and Gov. Young and State Senator Lyman King know that they do not want such an institution in the valley. Last Sunday the Governor paid an unheralded visit here accompanied by a real estate agent. After his visit it became known that he was surveying sites for a junior prison to be built somewhere in Southern California to harbor criminals from 18 to 24 years of age.

At once a delegation of local leading citizens got together and their visits to the Governor have borne fruit, it was said today. He has assured the delegation no State institution will be built in Chino Valley that is objectionable to the community.

The committee of protest consisted of representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, Planning Commission, Farm Center and Board of Education, M. L. Birnie, Edwin Rhodes, Roy Sebring and A. R. Brown.

The site the agent sought to sell to the State for the junior penitentiary was said to be 1000 acres east of Euclid avenue, property of the American Beet Sugar Company. Gov. Young and Senator King were told by the commission that one of the contemplated new State hospitals would be considered as a valued adjunct to the valley.

Following the personal appearance of protest, the committee forwarded written protest for permanent record.

PROPOSED PRISON IN SIMI TO BE DISCUSSED

MOORPARK, Jan. 31.—The proposal to establish a penitentiary in the Simi Valley is to be the chief topic of discussion at the meeting of the Simi Valley Lions' Club next Tuesday. The conference will be held here.

Resolutions have been adopted by other county organizations favoring Simi Valley as a location but so far no definite opinion has been voiced by any one group, it is stated. The action that will be taken by the Lions' Club members is likely to be regarded as indicative of the sentiment in Moorpark and adjoining sections.

The site for the proposed penal institution is on the McCoy ranch back in the hills and will not be visible to the traffic on the large highway passing through the valley.

FIRE TAKES COSTUME WARDROBE

Blaze Started by Furnace Overheating Destroys All Garments for School Play

GLENDALE, Jan. 31.—Fire that was caused by an overheated furnace in the Thomas A. Edison school on South Pacific avenue last night destroyed the costume wardrobe of the recreation department of the city schools, causing a loss of $500. The costume wardrobe contained approximately 8000 garments and accessories, as shown by recent check by the recreation department, about half of the entire amount being destroyed. Among the garments that were lost was a collection that had just been completed for a fashion show that was to be staged tomorrow in aid of the College Women's Club and that was also to be given later for the Parent-Teacher Association. The schools had been collecting the costumes for more than three years.

Disagreement in Assessing May Be Ironed Out

REDLANDS, Jan. 31.—An attempt to iron out disagreements of property owners in the High-avenue extension assessment district is to be made next Monday when the members of the City Planning Commission will sit as a neutral body during the discussion of various phases of the improvement project by interested owners. The conference is the result of protests made at the Council meeting two weeks ago and has been requested by a number of the owners of property in the assessment district.

It is hoped that the owners, many of whom have registered protests with the municipal board against the recommendations of benefits and damages assessment made by members of a special commission following several months' study and survey of the situation, may agree upon a plan suitable to all. Should such a plan be realized, the result will be submitted to the Councilmen for consideration at a meeting on Wednesday.

Views of many of the interested owners vary widely, according to expressions before the Council. The original plan to extend High avenue from Orange to Third street was instituted several months ago and has received the indorsement of the Council and of the special commission.

Several interested owners stated that in their opinion the thoroughfare should be extended westerly as far as Texas street. Others were of the opinion that it would be better to extend and widen Stuart avenue instead of High avenue. Some objected to the size of the assessment district and others to the amounts of benefits and damages assessed. The assessment district includes territory bounded by Colton avenue and the Santa Fe Railway tracks and from Third street easterly to include frontages on both sides of Orange.

Boy Bicyclist Struck by Auto Retains Seat

INGLEWOOD, Jan. 31.—A freak accident in which serious injury was miraculously escaped by Harvey Williams, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Williams, 615 South Osage street, occurred here last evening when the automobile driven by Vernon Zilligitt struck the child and carried him a short distance beneath the bumper and yet did not disturb his perfect balance on the bicycle which he was riding, and on which he was still seated when taken from the car.

The child was badly shaken and bruised and severely shocked, but sustained no serious injuries, it was said at the Centinela Hospital, where he was rushed immediately.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Osage and Kelso streets, and was declared unavoidable by eyewitnesses, who say the child dashed suddenly in front of the oncoming car.

Planes Annoy Poultrymen

ONTARIO, Jan. 31.—Residents in the poultry raising section, south and east of here, threaten to take concerted action against Uncle Sam if he doesn't tell his student flyers from March Field to keep their ships higher in the air.

According to J. R. Dearmin, the poultrymen in that district are suffering heavy losses because of the planes skimming over their poultry ranches. The hens become so frightened, it is asserted, they have quit laying eggs and several have been killed as they broke their wings in frantic efforts to escape the roar of the planes over the hen houses.

'Gold Memorial' Plans Progress

NEWHALL, Jan. 31.—Work upon the "Gold Memorial" to commemorate and permanently mark the spot of the first gold discovery in California is making headway here. The dedication of the temporary monument will be made on March 9, next, by the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West.

It is the present plan to locate it as near as possible on the exact spot in Placerita Canyon where the first nuggets were found by Francisco Lopez. This was a number of years before the famous gold rush in the northern part of the State. This work is being carried on by representatives of the State Park Commission, members of La Mesa Club and the Kiwanis Club. Reports of progress made will be discussed at a meeting of La Mesa Club on Monday.

This also will be the annual dinner of descendants of the Jayhawkers of the Indiana wagon train, who after a disastrous journey through Death Valley in the 50's landed here on the old Newhall Rancho. It is the intention of descendant members to erect a memorial on the old ranch site.

MAN POSING AS DRY AGENT SUSPECTED

HUNTINGTON PARK, Jan. 31.—A stranger called at a local residence while men folk were absent and posing as a dry agent, at the same time showing a nickle-plated badge, informed the landlady that he had received complaints that tenants of the house had liquor at times, and that he was there to investigate. The landlady turned keys to two of the apartments over to the stranger and he unlocked the doors of each, looked around and then left. The incident was later reported to the police, who are of the belief that the man intended securing a "lay" of the place with the intention of probable burglary later, or that he might have been a hi-jacker and if liquor was found would have left with it in his possession. The man was described as being about 38 years of age, 6 feet in height and weighing about 190 pounds.

DRY FORCES STAGE RAID IN CALEXICO

First Incident of Kind in Border City's History Nets Four Arrests and Fines

CALEXICO, Jan. 31.—Federal prohibition agents invaded this city yesterday for the first time since the Eighteenth Amendment was adopted and arrested two men and two women on charges of violating the Volstead law. The raid surprised every one in the town, including the local police, who have always boasted that Calexico was the dryest town in the United States, so far as illegal liquor is concerned. Just across the street in Mexico there are two breweries and eighty bars, and the proximity of this liquor supply has been discouraging to bootleggers in this vicinity.

Yesterday's arrests were made at local hotels where, it was asserted by the Federal agents, alcoholic drinks were being dispensed to the patrons. Sadie Self and John Trevarro of the Arcade Hotel pleaded guilty to the charges against them and were fined $500 each. Maude Anderson of the Aztec Hotel was fined $150. Bert Stephens, the fourth defendant, was fined $500 and sentenced to ninety days.

Ventura May Buy Play Seat

VENTURA, Jan. 31.—The co-operation of the service clubs of this city was pledged to John Steven McGroarty, author of the Mission Play, who met the leaders of the clubs yesterday afternoon. McGroarty spoke of the 3000th performance of the Mission Play that will be given Monday night, February 17, at San Gabriel. At that performance the seats each will be sold for $100, and McGroarty was here to make sure that some one would represent Ventura at the performance. All the mission towns will be represented and will answer to a roll call. The members of the clubs yesterday said that they would have a representative at the play. One seat will be bought by the clubs and they will prorate the cost between the Lions, Rotary, Kiwanians, Knights of Columbus, City of San Buenaventura and the Chamber of Commerce.

YOUTH ARRESTED ON ENTICEMENT CHARGE

HUNTINGTON PARK, Jan. 31.—Juan Mendoza, charged with fraudulently enticing Lucy Chacon, minor daughter of Mrs. Rosa Chacon, away from her home on the 28th inst., has been arrested and placed under $2000 bail for his preliminary hearing before Judge Edward H. Miller tomorrow. He was committed to the County Jail. It is said that the two young people had been much in each other's company and that they gave the information that they were going to Tia Juana last Sunday. The girl failed to return to her home and the mother filed the complaint. The parties reside in county territory.

WINIFRED WESTOVER SUED FOR PAINT BILL

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 31.—Winifred Westover, former wife of William S. Hart, motion-picture actor, appeared in the Malibu Township Court yesterday and in answer to a suit for $208 brought by Jeff Bullington, a painter, declared the painting job in question had been so unsatisfactory that she had to employ other painters to do it all over again. She has a home in the exclusive Malibu Beach colony, north of Las Flores. John L. Webster, justice of the peace, took the case under advisement for a few days in order to qualify himself more fully as a connoisseur of house painting.

CITY CLUB FORMED TO AID CANDIDATES

HUNTINGTON PARK, Jan. 31.—An organization is being formed here to be known as the City Club and its object is to support candidates for the City Council at the election in April. Charles Hedgcock, attorney, has been selected president and Louis J. Meller of the Meller Electric Company, secretary-treasurer. It is stated that names of two prominent citizens as candidates will be announced within the next few days, and that another will be selected. The terms of Councilmen Jerome C. Scofield, John C. Flick and John A. Mosher will expire in April.

DRAMA AUTHORITY SPEAKS

Prof. George Pierce Baker of Harvard in University of Redlands Address, Pleads for Faith in Art

REDLANDS, Jan. 31.—America will never be an artistic nation until it can view the dramas of other countries and find enjoyment in their differences instead of being so smug and conceited as to think that only those dramas which are like its own are worthy of production, was the contention of George Pierce Baker of Harvard University, American authority on drama, who addressed an audience at the University of Redlands chapel today.

Introduced by Prof. Egbert Ray Nichols of the university as "the dean of American drama," Prof. Baker presented a thorough discussion on modern drama, disclosing in his talk a keen sense of humor which permitted him to see the follies of modern dramatists, while earnestly beseeching his audience to have faith in them and in the drama of the future.

Although Prof. Baker's lecture was ostensibly directed to the students of the university, there were pitifully few to be seen in the audience, which was, in numbers, unworthy of both the speaker and the subject, it was declared.

There is a great deal to be said for the drama of today, stated Prof. Baker, for it has won through a period of readjustment and unpopularity and has taken on a power and depth of character, as well as a consciousness of the action of human life against the great unknown forces. It has discovered, with the help of Eugene O'Neill, that it is not immoral to question life, and the result is a vast improvement over the drama of the latter part of the nineteenth century.

MAN KILLED ON WAY TO BRIDE

Speeding to Her Graduation, He Dies in Motor Crash

Fatality Occurs Near Point Magu; Two Women Hurt

Girl-Wife Was to Have Been Given Diploma That Night

VENTURA, Jan. 31.—On his way here to see his bride of three weeks graduate from Senior High School, Gaylord C. Dondo, 24 years of age, of Los Angeles, was killed in an automobile collision late yesterday afternoon at Point Magu, ten miles southeast of Oxnard. Those injured in the crash are: Mrs. Cora B. Malone, of the Hotel Vista Del Arroyo, Pasadena, who suffered a fractured rib, and Mrs. F. L. Dodd of New York City, who was visiting Mrs. Malone in Pasadena, and who sustained a lacerated left leg. Their injuries were not serious enough to warrant going to the hospital, and today they were taken back to Pasadena.

Dondo was on his way here from Los Angeles, where he had been employed as an automobile mechanic, to see his wife, the former Madeline Anais Sutton of this city, graduate. The couple were married the 10th inst. in Los Angeles. Mrs. Dondo had returned to finish her high school course, and the two had planned to go to Los Angeles to live after the exercises last night.

DRIVER SAID ON WRONG SIDE

Dondo, alone in a high-powered roadster, is said in the report of the accident turned into the highway patrol this morning by Officer Joe Nobel, to have been rounding a curve to the right at a high rate of speed, driving on the left side of the road.

Mrs. Malone and Mrs. Dodd, in a sedan with the former at the wheel, came around the curve going toward Los Angeles, saw the other machine hurtling toward them, ran half-way off the pavement to avoid a collision, but met Dondo's car head on. Dondo was thrown out of his machine and onto the side of the road upon his head.

A fortunate, unconscious act on the part of Mrs. Dodd probably saved the two women from being drowned. According to statements to Officer Nobel, Mrs. Dodd, asleep at the time of the impact, lurched forward in her seat, shoving the transmission gear from high into reverse. This caused the car to spin quickly backward on the pavement. If this had not happened, according to Nobel, the car undoubtedly would have gone into the ocean.

BRIDE ABSENT FROM PLACE

The bride of three weeks, now a widow at the age of 20, was absent from the commencement exercises last night, and a brief announcement from the platform of the school auditorium told guests of the tragedy that had happened.

Dondo had lived here up to about three months ago, when he left for Los Angeles. His parents had lived here, but left a year ago, and are now residing at Sawtelle.

TWO INJURED IN SANTA ANA WHEN CAR OVERTURNS

SANTA ANA, Jan. 31.—Col. W. A. McCord, 58 years of age, of Pasadena, received a broken arm and Mrs. Katherine Sullivan, Los Angeles, was slightly injured, when a large machine turned over at Seventeenth street and Tustin avenue today. Several other persons in the machine escaped injury. Col. McCord and Mrs. Sullivan were brought to the Santa Ana Valley Hospital.

Robert Meyer, 6 years of age, resident at the Orange County Fair Grounds, received a broken arm at noon Thursday, when he fell while at play.

Famous Author Addresses Club

INGLEWOOD, Jan. 31.—Dr. Ernest Thompson Seton, internationally known naturalist, author and lecturer, addressed the Authors' and Artists' Club of this city at its meeting here last evening in the Lindburgh studios.

Dr. Seton, who frequently writes under the pen name of Seton-Thompson, recounted interesting experiences with animal life in many remote places where he has tracked both large and small beasts. He also told many incidents bringing out the high sense of humor which he assert exists in the animal kingdom.

Miss Muriel Nixon Steele, author of "Animal Capers," also was present, bringing with her an aunt, Mrs. D. M. Harrison, who although 80 years of age sang several solos for the group. More than sixty were present at the meeting of the club, which has been recently organized in Inglewood.

JEWISH SANATORIUM REALIZES LARGE SUM

ONTARIO, Jan. 31. — Annual dinner meeting of Ontario-Pomona Jewish Consumptive Relief Association at Paradise Health Resort here last night netted $800 for the relief fund, I. Langsner, president of the association, announced today. The goal was set at $1000. The deficit is expected to be raised among the active members of this city and Pomona. Nearly 2000 Jews gathered for the banquet, which was featured by the appearance of Mrs. Feizele Panitz, prominent singer of folk songs and Calman Lubovisky, prominent radio violinist.

Helene Madison Sets New World Record in 220-Yard Free-Style at Club

A world's record and two Pacific Coast marks were broken last night in the swimming meet held in the Los Angeles Athletic Club pool. Helene Madison, 16-year-old swimmer from the Crystal Club, Seattle, set a new record of 2m. 39s. flat in the 220-yard free style, and Buster Crabbe of the L.A.A.C. swam 500 yards in 5m. 42 2-5s. for a new Coast mark.

Helene Madison defeated Josephine McKim, star swimmer for the L.A.A.C., in setting the new record, thereby furnishing something of an upset. By the end of the second lap in the 100-foot pool, the Seattle girl was out in front, and it was evident that she would win. Stiff Right to Stomach Cuts Fight Short BOSTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—Ace Hudkins, the Nebraska Wildcat, battered Arthur Flynn of Lawrence, to the canvas for the full count here tonight in the third round of the Boston Garden's feature contest. Hudkins weighed 165; Flynn, 169.

ACE HUDKINS

Flynn gave the wild-swinging westerner a man-sized beating in the first round when he battered the Ace about the head and body with both hands and avoided punishment in catching him with a stiff left jab when Hudkins tried to come in.

Halfway through the second, one of Hudkins's wild rights caught Flynn flush on the jaw and he dropped for a four count. The Lawrence boy was groggy when he arose and Hudkins punished him with terrific lefts to the body.

Flynn appeared fresh when he came out for the third and he whaled Hudkins with an impressive two-fisted attack to the head. The latter missed on many of his wide swings, but late in the round he suddenly changed his tactics and ripped a straight hard right to the pitt of Flynn's stomach. Flynn dropped and stayed out until long after Referee Johnny Martin ended his count.

Stanford Puts on Wild Rally to Win, 40-37

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—A fighting Stanford basketball team, decisively outscored in the first half, came from behind tonight to snatch a 40-37 win from the fast U.C.L.A. five in an extra-period game.

Stanford trailed, 23-10, at half time, and U.C.L.A. looked like an easy winner, but with the opening of the second period the Cardinals started fast to overhaul the Bruins. McCandless, Berg and Rothert scored field goals to move the Cardinals to within four points of the southerners. More goals by Tyler and Berg tied the score at 29-29. Then McCandless, Stanford center, put one through the hoop to give the Cardinals a two-point lead with one minute of playing time remaining. Coach Hunt substituted Vance Fawcett for McCandless and Stanford started a stalling game, which was broken up when Rothert fouled Capt. Wilds of U.C.L.A.

This was Rothert's fourth personal foul and he was ejected from the game. Wilds missed his free throw but sent a long field goal to tie the score at 31-31 as the gun sounded.

In the extra period the Bruins, getting the jump at center with Rothert out of the game, worked

So exciting was the contest in its closing minutes that three men and a boy were said to have fainted during the festivities.

JESS MORTENSON

By their victory the Trojans moved into first place in the Coast Conference standings, southern division, inasmuch as U.C.L.A. lost to Stanford, 40 to 37, in another surprising tilt. Troy leads with four wins and two defeats, while U.C.L.A. has two wins and two losses.

No more pulse-quickening finale has been seen here this year. With two minutes left to play California was leading, 22 to 20. Hubert Caldwell, giant Trojan guard, sent Southern California rooters into a frenzy of cheering one minute later when he tied the score with a neat field goal from ten feet in front of the basket.

CALDWELL FOXES BEARS

Caldwell outfoxed the Bears on that shot. He had been handling the ball a lot all evening, but generally when close to the basket had passed it to a team-mate for the attempt. This time the big Trojan guard dribbled from midcourt to the free-throw line and then, instead of

JOE CANTILLON PASSES ON

Old Man of Baseball Dies at Kentucky Home After Valiant Fight Against Paralysis; Had Played Ball in More Than Dozen Leagues

HICKMAN (Ky.) Jan. 31. (AP)—[illegible] Cantillon, "grand old man of baseball," died at his home here today.

High on a bluff overlooking the [illegible] River that he loved, [illegible] for days had been waging a valiant fight against paralysis—a fight full of the spirit and courage he had displayed on the diamond for fifty-two years.

When the great umpire called the game today, Joe's last thoughts in his last moments of [illegible] were for his friends, as they had been through much of his sixty-nine years of life.

"Don't worry," he would say, "Don't call my brother. I will be all right."

Cantillon's passing removed one of the most picturesque figures in the baseball world. Since he started his career as bat boy for the Janesville (Wis.) club in 1878, "Pongo Joe" had served as manager, umpire, player and scout in a dozen leagues, had discovered some of

SAN CARLOS POLOISTS WIN

Hopping Leads Rancho Riders to Victory Over Cypress Point by 7-to-4 Score

BY FRANK ROCHE

Rancho San Carlos horsemen led by E. A. S. Hopping, an international polo figure, galloped to a 7-to-4 victory yesterday over the Cypress Point four at the Midwick Country Club Field.

The game, a special match affair, served to introduce the Rancho riders to Southern California fans and they seemed well pleased with the introduction as the San Carlos team gave them a good many thrills during the six chukkers of play. Two of the San Carlos stars, Aiden Roark and Capt. Forrester, figured in spills during the fourth chukker but lucky neither was hurt. The San Carlos team will play the Argentine four Sunday at Midwick in the second game of the Pacific Coast open championships.

CAPT. WESLEY WHITE.

Yesterday's tilt which was cut down two chukkers so as not to give the San Carlos players and their mounts too much work before their debut in the championship tournament brought out some very interesting polo. Hopping and Roark stood out for the winning four, while Arthur Perkins and Walford shined in the mallet limelight for Cypress Point.

Hopping, who played with the last American Big Four in the international series of 1928, looks every bit the horseman the experts say he is. Although a trifle out of practice, Hopping was nevertheless the big factor in the Rancho victory. He gave them a good start in the opening period by registering two goals before the fans had a chance to get comfortably seated.

Hopping did not score after the first chukker but he was the thorn in the side of the Cypress Point riders throughout the game, especially when they threatened to break through for a score. George Moore and Roark did the rest of the scoring for the winning four. Moore tallied twice and Roark three times.

Midwick's Big Four and Laddie Sanford's Hurricanes will clash this afternoon in a special match game. Long Jim Colt will play at No. 3 for the Hurricanes in Carlos Uranga's place, it was announced. The championship series will be resumed tomorrow.

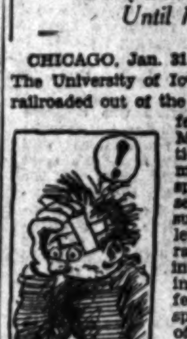
CAREY SIGNED TO COACH PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 31. (AP)—Max Carey, former outfielder of the Pittsburgh National League club, today signed a contract to coach the Pirates. He was released by the Pirates in 1926 and was claimed by Brooklyn by the waiver route. He played with Brooklyn until the close of last season.

IOWA TO BE REINSTATED TODAY

Western Conference Decides to Railroad Hawkeyes Back into Good Standing; Iowans Must Wait Until 1931 Before Resuming Schedules

CHICAGO, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—The University of Iowa, which was railroaded out of the Western Conference last May for violation of agreement with respect to proselyting and subsidizing athletes, will be railroaded back into good standing in the conference at a special meeting of the conference faculty committee at the University Club tomorrow afternoon. It is not expected that Iowa will be able to schedule any athletic contests with conference schools until 1931, however, as this year's schedules have been completed.



The sudden decision of the conference to lift the ban on the Hawkeyes came, it is said, because of professional fear of further penalization of the Hawkeye school by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, which will meet March 7.

A committee of the North Central Association, of which President Gage of Coe College is chairman, has been appointed to investigate the situation at Iowa.

The sentiment of the conference apparently is that Iowa has done enough penance without being put in the spot of having to endure more. All of the conditions for which Iowa was suspended have not been cleared up, including the fund with which Hawkeye athletes were taken care of last fall, but the conference apparently is willing to overlook this in the face of a serious danger to a member school.

That Iowa has been pretty well assured of clearance is indicated by the action of the school in postponing the annual national Iowa night, which is usually held on February 25, Founders' Day, until March 10, following the north meeting, when a celebration can be staged.

HUSKIES NOSE OUT COUGAR FIVE, 32-29

SEATTLE (Wash.) Jan. 31. (AP)—In a thrilling overtime battle, the University of Washington basketball team nosed out a 32-to-29 victory over Washington State College here tonight to gain a tie with the Staters for the northern division of the Pacific Coast Conference leadership. The Cougars staged a spectacular last-minute rally to tie the count 29-to-29, at the end of the last regular period.

BELL DEFEATS JORDAN

The Bell High School basketball team handed the Jordan quintet a 21-to-8 shellacking yesterday in the winners' gym. The score at the end of the first half was 10 to 1, with Jordan on the short end. Bell's lightweights won the league championship as a result of the 12-to-7 victory over the Jordan babes.

AL SINGER WINNER OVER LOAYZA IN EASY FASHION

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—Clever young Al Singer, the Bronx beauty, punched a few more holes in Stanislaus Loayza, tough old war horse of the lightweight division, in a sensational fight that drew 18,000 of the faithful to the battle pit tonight.

The sparkling Jewish lad, hailed as another Benny Leonard and a coming champion, won the ten-round decision with ease. He belted the rugged Loayza, knocked him down for a count of nine in the third round, and was himself in danger only once.

After absorbing enough punishment to stow away most of the current lightweights, Loayza flashed a dogged rally in the tenth round, but the sting had been drawn for most of the South American's punches.

The big crowd cheered the milling continually and gave Loayza a wild ovation as he left the ring. Singer weighed 134½; Loayza, 136½.

WOODS CHANGES EDICT; FILIPINO OFF RING BILL

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 31. (AP)—An appeal that he prevent Filipino boxers from entering contests in El Centro tonight because a member of their race was held in jail for "sequestering" a white girl, was received from Brawley late today by William Hanlon, chairman of the State Athletic Commission. The matter was referred to Commissioner James Woods, San Francisco, who said he "would act immediately."

Earlier in the day Woods reversed Hanlon's order barring Filipinos from boxing contests so far as Southern California was concerned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (AP)—James Woods, boxing commissioner of the Southern California district, said here tonight he "had advised" the boxing promoter at El Centro to take a Filipino boxer off the card scheduled for there tonight.

Woods's action was a direct reversal of his attitude this morning, when he issued an order permitting Southern California promoters to use Filipinos on their programs.

Considerable praise was heard in local boxing circles of the action of William Hanlon of Sacramento, chairman of the commission, in barring Filipinos temporarily on account of the recent disturbances in Watsonville.

Shute, Espinosa Shoot Par Smashing 68's to Tie for San Antonio Open Le

COLUMBUS STAR SHINING LIGHT

Denny Mixes Birdies With Pars for Fine Score

Two Three Putt Greens Keep Al from Bagging 66

Manero, Mike Turnesa Tie for Second Place

BRACKENRIDGE PARK (San Antonio, Tex.) Jan. 31. (AP)—Densmore Shute, Columbus (O.) youngster, and Al Espinosa, Chicago veteran professional blazed a par-breaking trail over this deceitful municipal course today to lead a field of almost 150 golfers in the opening round of the ninth annual Texas open golf tournament. Each shot the par 71 layout in 68 strokes to gain a leg on the $1500 first prize.

DENSMORE SHUTE

Shute, who had his first taste of important victory in the recent Los Angeles open, apparently found it pleasant. He posted his 68 early in the day and let the field shoot at it. Late in the afternoon, after scores of crack shots had fallen by the wayside, Espinosa came through to equal the mark. But for two three-putt greens coming in the Chicago star would have led the field at the quarter mark.

Starting early and neglected by the gallery, Shute turned in a remarkable round. His card showed fifteen pars and three birdies. Espinosa was not so steady. He burned up the first nine with a 32, four under par, but went one over perfect figures on the way back.

Shute's card:

In ....344 534 343—33—68

Espinosa's card:

Out ....334 343 435—32

In ....344 644 533—36—68

While this pair were cracking par wide open, dozens of other starters found the going tough. Among those who threw in the sponge was George Turnesa, Elmsford (N. Y.) stylist, a former Texas open champion. He had a ragged 38 going out and finally gave it up after he had smacked two out of bounds and taken an eight on the par 4 twelfth.

A hole in one enlivened the day's festivities. Jack Forrester, New Jersey professional champion, plunked his tee shot in on the 190-yard tenth to round out a 73 score.

Two strokes behind the leaders were two young Elmsford (N. Y.) par shooters, Tony Manero and Mike Turnesa, each with a 70. The younger Turnesa brother took a 37 on the outward trip, one over par, but slipped two strokes from perfect figures coming in. Manero was even par out and one under on the back nine.

One stroke further back, but still well in the running, were Johnnie Golden, Paterson, N. J.; P. P. Hart, Wheeling, W. Va., and Ray Mangrum, Los Angeles, each with a standard 71.

Seventy-two was a popular figure for the day, no less than eleven turning in that score. Included in the bracket were such favorites as Horton Smith, unattached; Bill Mehlhorn, unattached, defending champion; Frank Walsh, Chicago; Bobby Cruickshank, Purchase, N. Y.; Ed Dudley, Wilmington, Del., and Harry Cooper, unattached.

Others in that slot were George Aulbach, Waco, Tex.; Tom Creavy, New York; Julius Ackerbloom, Little Rock; Herman Barron, Port Chester, N. Y., and Tucker Bowles, San Antonio. All were within easy striking distance.

Horton Smith, favorite of the gallery, appeared on the verge of passing out of the picture early when he had a wobbly 38 on the first nine, but he rallied to produce a 34 coming in. At that, luck was in his corner. On one hole he sliced deep into the woods, but the ball cracked a spectator in the neck and bounced back onto the fairway.

Among those who recorded 73's was Tom Rakletts, Youngstown, O., winning professional in yesterday's amateur-professional best-ball event. He was bracketed with eight others, including Al Watrous, Detroit; Billie Burke, Greenwich, Ct., and Jack Forrester, Hackensack, N. J.

Murdock Gets Unlucky Draw

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Eddie Murdock, 141½, Tulsa, Okla., and Frankie Stetson, 140 3-4, San Francisco, fought ten rounds to a draw here tonight. Referee Eddie Burns's decision drew the disapproval of the crowd, the opinion being that Murdock had the advantage throughout.

In the seventh round, Murdock floored Stetson for a nine count with a right to the jaw. The San Francisco boy made his strongest showing in the ninth which he won with a sharp attack to the body. Murdock's cleverness and ring experience puzzled his opponent and the Oklahoman also landed the harder punches.

Stetson was considerably more effective at close range, but had but few chances to work on Murdock's body.

RECALL THYE'S BOUTS WITH WALTER MILLER

Veteran followers of the wrestling game here are showing a great deal of interest in the special event of "Carnation" Lou Daro's wrestling show at the Olympic Wednesday night, as it will bring back Ted Thye of Portland for his first mat appearance here since his memorable battles with Walter Miller at the L.A.A.C. for the world's middleweight title about a decade ago.

The battles here between Miller and Thye were some of the roughest and most spectacular seen here at that time. Thye, who now weighs more than 190 pounds, will clash with Howard Cantonwine, 220-pound Iowan, in the bout preceding the finish mat battle between Everett Marshall and Dr. Karl Sarpolis.

Thye, who has held both the world's middleweight and light-heavyweight mat title in his time, and only recently developed into a heavyweight, is rated as one of the fastest and roughest grapplers of his weight in the game today. The wristlocks, with which he is an expert and which brought both titles, are said to have proven just as effective against heavyweights as they did against his lighter foes in the past decade or more. Thye is even today rated by mat promoters and critics as one of the greatest wrestlers the game has ever produced.

The Portland mat star was one of the very first to invade Australia for mat battles. He was followed by such old-timers as Mike Yokel, Sam Clapham, Ad Santell, Walter Miller, Jim Browning and John Pesek from this country. He returned a few years ago after spending two years on the island, losing only to Santell, according to reports received here.

CLUB FACE IS OPEN—CLUB IS TAKEN BACK OUTSIDE AS IN DIAGRAM

BY SOL METZGER

Abe Mitchell is one of the keenest theorists of golf. The long-hitting British pro not only can play his shots, but unlike so many other stars, he can explain just how it is done. Abe isn't so orthodox either. However, he gives golfers food for thought. After all, that is what we most need.

Abe uses a rather wide-open stance, feet imbedded deep in sand and eyes on the spot back of ball he is to hit. But Abe says that an explosion must be cut. As a cut shot is nothing more than a shot played purposely for a slice the majority of us ought to be grand out of sand.

To get this cut Abe stresses taking the club back outside the line as shown in the sketch. Thus, coming down, you pull your clubhead in and across the ball.

Why waste the years trying to lower your score by disregarding instructions? Sol Metzger has prepared a free leaflet on the pivot which he will send to any reader requesting it. Address Sol Metzger, care of The Times, and inclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

RECORDS FALL IN SWIMFEST

against Olive Hatch of the Mercuries, her time being 1m. 3 4-5s.

The previous world's record in the 220-yard event was established by Martha Norelius in Miami on February 28, 1926, in the time of 2m. 40 1-5s.

Buster Crabbe was handicapped by 1m. 23s. in the 500-yard race, but he finished first, in addition to setting a record. The new record bettered the old one of 5m. 53s. flat, by 10 3-5s. Crabbe held the old record also. Buster's time was slowed up a little, when he was startled by a timer's gun going off over his head just as he started the last lap, and stopped an instant in bewilderment. Bartells of the L.A.A.C. finished second to Crabbe.

The feature exhibition of the evening was given by little Joy Crew, 4-year-old swimmer. Joy gave an exhibition of plain and fancy diving, including a plunge from the 10-foot board. Georgia Coleman of the club, the national diving champion, gave an exhibition from the high board, also. Mickey Riley, Johnny Riley and Dutch Smith also gave a feature diving show.

The 100-yard handicap girls' race in three heats and a final was won by Louise Wough of the Lake Norconian Club in the time of 1m. 22 1-5s., Polly Foster of the Pacific Coast Club and Phyllis Bell finishing second and third, respectively. The 200-foot race for L.A.A.C. junior boys of the Class A handicap was won by Allen Pete in 48 2-5s. Bobby Vidano finished second in the time of 46 2-5s.

The 100-yard handicap race for men was won by Duke Callaghan of the Hollywood Athletic Club in 1m. 2s. flat, Hall and Plescia finishing second and third, respectively.

The Hollywood Athletic Club water polo team defeated the Los Angeles Athletic Club water dogs, 3 to 2, in a game that opened the swim meet.

L.A.A.C. junior boys' handicap, 100 feet—First heat: Won by Kretchman, Goodin second, Earl Daniels third. Time, 24s. flat. Second heat: Won by Bob Daniels, Kellogg second, Reardon third. Time, 24 2-5s.

220-yard match race—Won by Helene Madison, Crystal Club, Seattle; Josephine McKim, L.A.A.C., second. Time, 2m. 39s. flat. (New world's record.)

L.A.A.C. junior boys, Class A handicap—Won by Allen Pete, Bobby Vidano second. Time, 48 2-5s.

100-yard handicap, girls—First heat: Won by Polly Foster, Babe Walton second, time, 1m. 21 4-5s. Second heat: Won by Betty Cobb, Phyllis Bell second. Time, 1m. 22 3-5s. Third heat: Won by Louise Wough, Georgia Coleman second. Final heat: Won by Louise Wough, Polly Foster second, Phyllis Bell third. Time, 1m. 22 1-5s.

500-yard handicap, men—Won by Buster Crabbe, Bartells second, McNulley third. Time, 5m. 42 3-5s. (New Pacific Coast record.)

100-yard handicap for men—Won by Duke Callaghan, Hall second, Plescia third. Time, 1m. 2s. flat.

100-yard match race—Won by Helene Madison, Olive Hatch second. Time, 1m. 3 4-5s. (New Pacific Coast record.)

Racing Fans to Witness Race of Two Heroes

When the automobiles and motorcycles run at the American Legion Speedway February 9, next, two of the pilots who handle mounts in the program of events will be the reigning heroes of the day when they go to the post. The pair—"Stubby" Stubblefield, a racing car skipper, and Ralph Stalnaker, a motorbike rider—already have made their gestures toward the annual sportsmanship trophies handed out for unusual and sacrificing daring on the track.

Stubblefield turned in a bit of sportsmanship last Sunday which drew the plaudits of the fans. The diminutive pilot's Garnant Special had crashed into the top rail as it rounded the north bend in the forty-fourth lap of the long-distance grind.

Seeing that the machine was about to roll down in the path of oncoming machines, "Stubby" got control of the brakes. He then stood at his guns and, while in danger of being hit by oncoming machines, he stood there and waved his helmet to flag the other drivers down on the course. A possible serious smash-up was averted.

Gotham Board Sticks to Ban on Risko Bout

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—Madison Square Garden officials appeared before the New York State Athletic Commission today to urge that Victorio Campolo and Johnny Risko be permitted to fight February 7, next, but their plea was refused, the ring solons sticking to their original decision that "Campolo is too big for Risko."

Armed with Risko's record against the best of the heavyweights, William Carey, president of the Garden Corporation, and Tom McArdle, matchmaker, vigorously pleaded their case, but found the commission adamant.

The Ace Hudkins-Maxie Rosenbloom bout February 14 was approved.

A bout between Al Brown, bantamweight champion, and Johnny Erickson at the Olympic Club here February 8 was sanctioned as a title affair.

BLUE POLOISTS FACE UPLIFTERS TOMORROW

An even dozen polo ponies from the Denver stables of Steen Fletcher, prominent sportsman of that city, arrived at the Uplifters' Ranch yesterday and Fletcher was promptly signed up by the Santa Monica Blues mallet squad. If his mounts lose their travel stiffness Fletcher will get into action tomorrow when the Blues clash with the Uplifters' four in the second game of their series. Fletcher's addition to the Blues' line-up will make the side slight favorites tomorrow. Snowy Baker, Australian athlete and horseman, who recently had his handicap rating increased by the United States Polo Association, will ride with the Blues. Clair Brunson heads the Uplifters' riders.

FOUR SOCCER GAMES ON TOMORROW'S CARD

One of the best soccer football cards of the year will be presented at Loyola Field tomorrow by City League teams. The feature game at 3 o'clock will pit the league-leading Hollywood Sheiks against the L.A. A.C. Mercuries. The club team is now in second place, only 3 points behind Hollywood, and an L.A.A.C. victory tomorrow will throw the league into another three-cornered fight between Hollywood, the L.A. A.C. and Magyars. The opening game at Loyola will find the Magyars meeting the Spanish-Americans. At the Pasadena Rose Bowl the Scottish Highlanders face a revamped Richfield eleven at 1 o'clock and at 3 o'clock the Sons of St. George mix with the fast-coming Pasadena A.C.C. eleven.

GONDOLIER FIVE IN WIN OVER INGLEWOOD

The Venice cage team scored a 34-to-14 victory over the Inglewood quintet last night in the Gondoliers' gym. Glech and Sorenson of the Venice squad were in fine fettle, and tied for high-point honors with 14 apiece.

It was necessary to play three extra periods before the Venice babes could be established a winner over the Inglewood lightweights. The final score was 28 to 26.

The line-ups:

Venice.		Inglewood.
Glech (14)	F.	Scarry (8)

MIDWICK MAY GET SOUTHLAND AMATEUR TOURNAMENT IN MAY

Midwick Country Club, one of the finest tests of golf in the Pacific Southwest, will likely be selected as the site of the 1930 Southern California Amateur Championship. This was the general report yesterday, when it was announced that the tournament will be staged the week of May 19 to 25. It is understood that Midwick officials are agreeable to holding the championship if the course is officially chosen. Gibson Dunlap of Rancho is the defending amateur champion.

BOY MUSHER IS DERBY FAVORITE

Seventeen-Year-Old Youth Close Second to Stover

BY RALPH HUSTON

"Times" Staff Correspondent

LAKE TAHOE, Jan. 31.—A 17-year-old kid who cuddles and pets his dogs like any 10-year-old, raced to second place here today, in the first leg of the annual ninety-mile dog derby of the Sierra Club, and became the popular favorite to take first honors in the annual snow classic. He is Delbert Groom, who came from Rigby, Idaho, to race his seven-dog team of Irish setters in the annual classic. He finished just five minutes behind Roy Stover of Sacramento, whose elapsed time of 2h. 31m. 4s. led the nine-team field in the second running of the classic.

Groom was the ninth to leave Tahoe Tavern in the 15.53-mile downhill trek to Truckee, and he finished seventh at the bottom of the hill. His dogs, eager to be off again, were impatient with the fifteen-minute wait which the rules prescribe, and Groom kneeled down in the snow to soothe them. Back again, up the same trail, they flew, passing team after team, and when the finish line at the 31.05-mile lap was reached, Groom was in second place.

Stover piloted his dogs in a carefully planned, and well-executed race, to nurse them into first place. He is in a fine position, with a five-minute lead on the field in elapsed time, and hopes to increase it in tomorrow's dash. The final thirty miles will be raced on Sunday.

Thula Geelan, the only woman entrant, took the lead at 1 o'clock today, when Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco sent the teams away in the classic event. She wound up in third place in elapsed time, ten minutes behind Stover. Earl Kimball of Reno, was just a minute behind Mrs. Geelan with Tud Kent of Ogden, another minute back. Scotty Allan, veteran of a number of historic derbies in Alaska, and his son George, were forced to withdraw from the race, when seven of their dogs died. The runners are said to have lapped up water around faucets where lye had been placed. Nero, famous lead dog of the elder Allan's team, was one of the victims.

Kimball had the best elapsed time record on the downhill run to Truckee, finishing in 1:05:47. He was followed by Stover in 1:07:35. The latter took sixteen minutes more to make the upgrade return. Tahoe Tavern is actually about 1200 feet higher than Truckee, but the road goes higher than 7000 feet in several spots.

Roy Peterson had trouble in the downhill run, when shortly after the start, his two lead dogs started fighting. It took him several minutes to quiet them and rearrange his trace lines, and he lost considerable time.

Wendel Robie finished eighth for the day, but hardly expected to do better. He is racing a team of green pups, preparing them for next year's race, rather than attempting to win with them this year.

Tahoe Tavern was crowded with spectators for the annual event all of whom were still marveling over America's most beautiful scenic trip on the Southern Pacific through Donner Pass, and by historic Donner Lake, where the unfortunate immigrant party suffered almost total extinction during the gold rush days. H. M. Miles, director of the publicity bureau of the Espee, and Fenton Gresser, his aide, were on hand, directing the unique sightseeing train which follows the racers along their course, and seeing that all necessary information was available to all hands.

Standings after the first day's competition are as follows: First, Roy Stover (Sacramento,) 2:31:04. Second, Delbert Groom (Rigby, Idaho,) 2:36:00. Third, Thula Geelan (McCall, Idaho,) 2:41:18. Fourth, Earl Kimball (Reno,) 2:42:17. Fifth, Tud Kent (Ogden,) 2:43:18. Sixth, Fay Delezene (Nome,) 2:45:06. Seventh, Ray Peterson (Salt Lake,) 2:56:16. Eighth, Wendell Robie (Auburn, Cal.) 3:42:33. Ninth, Charles Kennedy (Ashton Idaho.) 3:50:47.

PIRATES POUND OUT WIN OVER SPARTANS

Manuel Laranetta's San Pedro Pirates nosed out the Huntington Park Spartans, 18-17, in a closely contested Bay League game played yesterday afternoon at San Pedro. Larson of San Pedro and Arbelbide and Martin of Huntington Park tied for high-scoring honors with 6 points apiece. The Pirate lightweights won a preliminary game from the Spartan babes, 31-22. Roddy of San Pedro led the scoring with 13 points.

The line-ups:

Trojan Cagers Defeat Bears in 24-22 Tilt

passing, took a shot on his own hook. As the ball plunked through the net the Trojan rooters almost raised the roof.

Fighting desperately for possession of the ball, the Trojans got the ensuing tip-off, Caldwell outleaping Capt. Ten Eyck. Quick as a flash Lehners, who took the casaba as it came down, flipped it to Pierce. This chap, in turn, whipped it from midcourt to Mortensen, standing almost on the sideline halfway between the center of the floor and the basket.

Uncorking a long, arching shot, Jess eased the ball against the backboard and there being plenty of "English" thereon, the casaba came swishing down through the net for 2 points and the old ball game.

EVEN GUN EXCITED

There was only time for the tip-off and a couple of passes by the Trojans before the game ended. Due to some confusion at the timekeeper's table the final gun never did go off, Referee Dempsey halting the game by use of his own whistle.

The game was terribly slow in the first half and fiercely contested in the second. Guarding was so close during the first period that neither team got a good shot at the basket, and those that were made were so hurried that few connected, the period ending, 7 to 5, in favor of S. C.

Troy at one time during this stanza had a 6-to-0 lead, but Vendt, guard, finally broke the ice for California and near the end of the canto the Bears moved up to within two points of their foes.

Baskets by Mortensen and Smith, while Ten Eyck was getting one for California, made the count 11 to 7 soon after the second half opened. Action was more spirited and the boys began to find the hoop.

Neilson, who substituted for Tripp, caged a goal, but Smith and Gardner came back with baskets for the Trojans, and when Gardner followed his with a free throw the count stood, 16 to 9, and Troy appeared to have the game sewed up.

But the Bears had only started. After taking time out and inserting Tripp back into the battle, Nibs Price's boys got going for fair. Tripp broke loose and made two baskets in a row. Then the Trojans got a bad break when Caldwell, in under the basket, flipped the ball out quickly, but tossed it right into the hands of Neilson, Bear forward. It was child's play for Neilson to cage the casaba and Troy's lead was cut to one point, 16 to 15.

BEARS TAKE LEAD, 17-16

Joel Coffield, subbing for Davis, came through with a nice follow-in basket after a missed shot by Neilson and the Bears took the lead, 17 to 16. Vendt added another field goal and Caldwell retaliated by converting a foul, leaving the Bears ahead, 19 to 18.

At this point Coffield broke loose, dribbled all the way down the court and sank a basket to the roars of the Bear rooters. Smith converted a free throw for Troy and it was 21 to 19 with time almost gone. Coffield followed with a free throw and the Bears enjoyed a three-point lead with only two minutes to play. Caldwell was fouled and cashed in to make it 22 to 20, and then followed up with his field goal as already described.

Big Jess, hero of Troy's track team last year and a fine football player as well, then made his winning shot to cinch the game.

Sam Barry's team will be hard to beat from now on. The Trojans have one game left with Stanford and two with U.C.L.A. If they win two of the three they can't get worse than a tie for first place.

HARVARD FIVE COPS GAME FROM CAL-PREP

Coach Jack Manildi's Harvard Military School casaba tossers handed the Cal-prep basketball team a 28-20 defeat yesterday afternoon on the Cadets' home courts. Shindelar of the Cadets made the most points in the game, having 14 points to his credit. Jasper and Shaffer tied for high-point place on the Cal-prep team, both having 7 points. Capt. Don McInnis of the Cadets made 12 points for his team and was the outstanding player of the game.

The Cadets defeated the Cal-prep team in the lightweight game by a score of 17-3. The high-point man of the game was Wilkinson of Harvard, making 10 points for his team.

DOWNEY TRIPS EL MONTE

Downey High nosed out the El Monte Lions last night 28-24 in a San Gabriel League game played at Downey. Orbin Davis of the Lions led the scoring with 10 points. El Monte Class B team won the preliminiinary game, 28-20. Montgomery led the scoring for the winners with 10 digits.

HOLLYWOOD PUCKS START DRIVE ON SECOND PLACE

"Smokey" Harris, veteran manager of the Hollywood Millionaires, today served notice on the rest of the California Hockey League that his ball club is through losing 1-point games or any other games for that matter and that the drive into second place is to be started against the colorful San Francisco Tigers at the Winter Garden Ice Palace Monday night.

"You can tell the rest of them for me that from now on the Millionaires are going to be the toughest ones in the league," he said, and there was no bragadocio in the tone, merely a statement of fact. "We've lost entirely too many games by 1-point margins the past few weeks and if anybody does it again it will be because the boys are crippled."

With this statement he added the information that the club was dickering with an American association team for one player who should make the team just as tough as he wants it. The Millionaires have until February 10 to get this player and in the meantime is going to do plenty of slashing to get out of the cellar.

"Some of the players on the club have been in a slump," declared Harris, "and unless they snap out of it Monday night they better start looking for new berths. I'm not in the habit of managing losers and I don't intend to start with Hollywood."

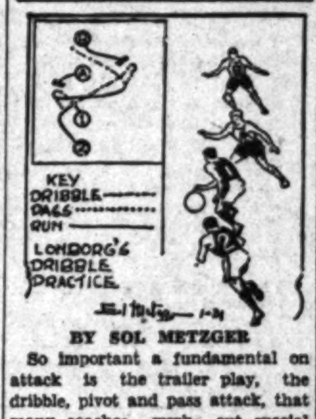
LIONS AND PIRATES TO MIX ON ICE TONIGHT

Second place in the Southern California Amateur Hockey League is at stake tonight, when the league-leading Gilmore Lions clash with their foremost competitors in business, the Union Oil Pirates, at the Winter Garden Ice Palace.

The Union Oilers have been making rapid strides during the past two weeks of the race, losing only one game in the last five played. They decisively trounced Gilmore and Union last week, and unless all signs fail, should add another victory to their win column tonight.

Capt. Desmond Henry and Bullet Tulloch of Union are playing good hockey, especially in their dashes up the ice. Not much is expected from defense players as far as scoring goals, but this combination is getting its share of the scores.

Lonborg Cage Attack Lauded



BY SOL METZGER

So important a fundamental on attack is the trailer play, the dribble, pivot and pass attack, that many coaches work out special practice stunts to perfect their charges in its execution. One of the best is employed by Lonborg at Northwestern.

No. 1 dribbles up court with his opponent A charging him and his team-mate No. 2 trailing him. No. 2's opponent is already back to defend the basket. As A rushes No. 1 he pivots and passes to No. 2 and then follows No. 2 as No. 2 in turn dribbles.

The best scheme is to have the pairs take turns at dribbling and at playing defense. In that way all four gain skill in working the play and also in breaking it up when opponents use it.

the ball down the floor and Knowles was left open for an easy shot under the basket. Stanford came back when Doub sank one from outside the foul line to tie things up again.

Wilds tossed one through the hoop to put the Bruins ahead again, then Fawcett sneaked in for a "sucker" shot to even matters at 35-35. McCandless was substituted for Tyler, who had twisted his knee. Berg got a field goal on a long shot and Reynolds followed up with a free throw after being fouled by Lubin. McCandless made things safe for Stanford with another bucket. Just before the end of the extra period, Wilds dropped a long one to move U.C.L.A. two points nearer but the gun ended the U.C.L.A. rally.

PASADENA FIVE WINS

Pasadena High Bulldog five defeated the Santa Ana cagers last night, 26-23, in a Coast League game played in the Bulldogs' gym. Horren of Santa Ana and Crosby of Pasadena tied for high-point honors with 10 points apiece.

Buckeye Belle Surprises in Border Event

AGUA CALIENTE (Mex.) Jan. 31.—Buckeye Belle, once winner of the Tia Juana Oaks stake race fillies, scored a surprise victory over a good field this afternoon in the featured number of the race program, a seven-furlong dash for selling platers. Buckeye Belle, far back in her last three efforts, was ready to run today. Displaying sudden improvement, she went to the front with the rise of the barrier and was never in danger again. She finished the seven furlongs a length and one-half in front of Richu with Love Charm getting the show. Jack Alexander tried to force the pace for a time, but tired and dropped out of the picture. Time for the seven furlongs was 1:26 2-5.

Candidates for the speed handicap, first of the major stake events, which will be decided Sunday, had final workouts today. Most of them were nothing more than light breezes. Tomorrow the acceptance of weights given by Jack B. Campbell, racing secretary, will be noted. Among those expected to start are My Dandy, Shasta Bullet, Alexander Pantages, Chicleight, Golden Prince, Vanity, Eskimo, Listo, Ervast, Gold Rush, Greyola and Good and Hot. A fast track is assured as the strip was dry today. Results:

First race, six furlongs—Tecolote (Hurlburt,) won; Edward K. (Richardson,) second; Argue (O'Brien,) third. Time, 1:15.

Second race, six furlongs—Element (Depass,) won; Red Plume (Pollard,) second; Nation Wide (Teasdale,) third. Time, 1:14 1-5.

Third race, three furlongs—Miss Keaton (Morrison,) won; Aspasia (Meredith,) second; Shasta Melody (Coltiletti,) third. Time, 0:35 2-5.

Fourth race, six furlongs—Kit King Bank (C. Miller,) won; Guinea Hen (Moran,) second; Mac Maxim (Schutte,) third. Time, 1:13 2-5.

Fifth race, mile and one-sixteenth—Hill and Hill (Cox,) won; Jim's Dream (Richardson,) second; Deposition (Wilson,) third. Time, 1:49 2-5.

Sixth race, six furlongs: Buckeye Belle (Corbett,) won; Richu (Greco,) second; Love Charm (Wolverton,) third. Time, 1:26 2-5.

Seventh race, mile and one-sixteenth—Omrah (Morrison,) won; Golden School (Level,) second; Brownie Smile (Redding,) third. Time, 1:48 1-5.

Eighth race, seven furlongs—Sandy River (O'Brien,) won; Subway Tube (Moran,) second; Zest (Coltiletti,) third. Time, 1:28 3-5.

JOE CANTILLON PASSES AWAY

the outstanding players of the game and was known from coast to coast as one of the "canniest heads" the game ever had produced.

While serving as bat boy at Janesville, Joe studied the game. He studied the styles of the outstanding players. Then he practiced. When his chance came he was ready, and he started as a player with Green Bay of the old Wisconsin League.

Cantillon served as a player for several years, when his keen judgment and quick decisions attracted the attentions of club owners. Then he became a manager, first at Burlington, Iowa, and then in succession at Dubuque, Iowa; Marinette, Wis.; Rockford, Ill.; Oakland, Calif., and Dayton, O.

Then he umpired in the American League and later managed the Washington Senators, was manager of the Minneapolis and the Little Rock clubs and in 1928, again scouted for the White Sox, relinquishing this position to serve as supervisor of umpires in the American Association, a position which he held at his death.

Cantillon was born in Janesville, Wis., August 19, 1861. Until twenty years ago, he had made his home wherever he happened to be. Then one day, while on a boat trip down the Mississippi River, Joe noticed a house at Hickman, Ky., perched high on a bluff overlooking the Mississippi River.

Cantillon will be buried Monday in the family plot at Janesville.

MERCURY TRACK TEAM CALLED FOR WORKOUT

With only two weeks remaining before the opening meet of the season at Occidental College, the 15th inst., Los Angeles A.C. track-and-field athletes have been urged to report to Bovard Field, U.S.C., for a workout this afternoon. Commissioner Boyd Comstock, who is rebuilding his famous team of "forgotten men," is anxious to have all the athletes on hand.

Redlands Meets Caltech Five

BAPTISTS DOPED TO ANNEX GAME

Whittier Host to Sagehens in Hot Clash

Occidental Plays La Verne in Third Tilt

Redlands and Pomona Are Undefeated Teams

Three Southern California Conference games are on tap for basketball fans tonight. The league-leading Redlands outfit clashes with Caltech at the engineering institution in a game that should prove fairly easy for the Redlands crew. The Bulldogs are championship-bound while the Caltech boys have yet to win a conference tilt. Coach Ashel Cunningham's men have polished off Oxy and La Verne in a manner which stamps them as the class of the conference. The Bulldogs have succeeded in working together in such a way that their teamwork is a revelation.

AL PUTNAM

La Verne, holding second place with San Diego, plays Occidental at Eagle Rock tonight. The Leopards defeated the Tigers, 22 to 24, at La Verne last week and Ed. Kienholz's boys will be out for revenge this evening.

In the other game the Pomona Sagehens and the Whittier Poets clash on the Quakers' court. From the standpoint of interest and closeness the Sagehens and Poets will undoubtedly put on a real game as the teams are evenly matched. Although the Sagehens are undefeated in conference circles they must be given much of an edge over the Whittier outfit for the Sagehens have played only the tail-enders, Caltech and San Diego. Whittier was defeated by La Verne in her only conference start.

The Sagehen attack centers around Capt. Clarence Bishop, center, and Harold Hadfield and Alfred Pelham, forwards. This is the second season that these boys have been playing together and their real teamwork is beginning to show itself as a result.

Whittier College used to put out some mighty fine basketball teams and although the present outfit is not quite up to par the Poets are capable of giving any team in the conference a real battle. Dink Walker and Bill Payne are the Whittier stand-bys.

JUNIOR CAGE TITLE AT STAKE TONIGHT

The Long Beach and Los Angeles junior colleges clash on the basketball court out at the Hollywood High School gym tonight at 8 o'clock, in all probability the championship of the Southern California Junior College Conference will be decided. These two teams, along with Chaffey Junior College, are leading the conference composed of thirteen junior colleges. Long Beach, State Jaysee basketball champs of last year, defeated the Riverside Tigers on the Riverside court last Saturday night by a score of 34 to 10. The Angel City quintet, which has bowled over all opposition to date, handed the Santa Monica Corsairs the short end of a 52-to-32 fray on the beach court.

Other games booked for tonight are Santa Monica at Riverside, Santa Ana at Pomona, Glendale at Chaffey, Citrus at Fullerton, Compton at Pasadena, while San Bernardino draws a bye.

Josephine McKim and Helen Madison will renew their aquatic duel tonight when they meet in a special 100-yard race in the feature of a swimming program at the Deauville Beach Club.

A dual swimming meet between the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A. paddlers and the Deauville water dogs is also listed. Topping the performers on the Deauville team is Tom Medlicott, who in 1927 held the all-round aquatic prep championship of the Southwest, according to his coach, Howard Ploessel. Others on the beach club squad are Robert Crosby, and the White brothers, Jack and Sheldon.

Georgia Coleman, national women's diving champion, is listed to give an exhibition.

CARNERA "WINS" IN FIRST ROUND

result of the sudden ending of the bout, Frederick Gardner, a member of the commission, announced that the purses of both Carnera and the Canadian giant would be held up pending an investigation of the match.

Gardner said the judges, and the referee, Dave Barry, would be consulted as to the genuineness of the knockdowns and that Carnera and his Canadian opponent also would be requested to appear at the commissioner's meeting next Tuesday.

Commissioner Gardner did not definitely say that he suspected Rioux of "taking a dive" but said The knockdowns looked suspicious. The crowd of 17,349, which paid $59,625 to witness the fight, tossed missiles into the ring and cut loose with a chorus of boos after Rioux buried his chin in the canvas, flat on his face, while Referee Barry tolled off the usual ten count.

Rioux, spotting the Venetian giant sixty-three and one-quarter pounds, was so badly frightened, or at any rate appeared to be that way, that he adopted the unique defensive method of hitting the canvas every time Primo laid a heavy glove on him.

The first punch Carnera threw at the Canadian was a left hook to the head that appeared to shake him up. Then he began the serious business of throwing right punches.

The first right-hand wallop Primo landed knocked Rioux to his knees, but he jumped up at the count of one with a pained expression spreading over his face. The next bombshell was a left hook that hit the big Canadian on the back of the head and sent him diving between Primo's legs. Three other right-hand wallops each scored a knockdown before Primo lashed out with the right-hand punch that glanced the peak of Rioux's chin.

That punch ended the fight. It did not travel more than six inches. It crashed against Rioux's chin and his legs flew out from under him as if he had touched an electric wire. He landed flat on his face, apparently dead to the world. After he had been counted out his seconds dragged him to his corner for a sponging of cold water while the crowd expressed its disapproval by booing and throwing newspapers and other missiles into the ring.

Rioux never landed a punch. He never even tried to land a punch. He seemed to anticipate that he was in for a tough evening, and nobody in particular paid much attention to him before the fight started.

The Italian giant making his second American appearance scaled 269 pounds to 205 3-4 for Rioux.

In the ten-round semi-wind-up King Tut, the rough and tough lightweight challenger from Minneapolis, defeated Bruce Flowers, New Rochelle (N. Y.) negro. He knocked Flowers down twice for counts of nine in the seventh round, but the negro came back gamely in the last two frames to outbox the Minnesota fighter.

Leon Cie, manager of Carnera, was indignant at the action of Commissioner Gardner.

"If the Illinois commission wants to hold up Primo's share of the gate, what can I do?" the Frenchman asked.

The Italian Goliath raged in a torrent of French and Italian when he finally was made to understand what it was all about.

"I hit him first on the nose with a straight left," his interpreter quoted him as saying.

"My second blow was a straight right which landed on the temple and split my glove. The third blow was to the shoulder and the fourth struck my opponent on the chin, but he was dazed from the first blow. It stunned him and he could not lift his arms except to shield himself."

GEHRIG HAS CLOSE SHAVE IN AUTO CRASH

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—Lou Gehrig, first baseman of the Yankee baseball team, narrowly escaped injury tonight when his automobile was struck and practically demolished by a street car in the Bronx.

Witnesses said Gehrig stopped his automobile on the street-car tracks when the traffic light turned red. The rails were icy and the street car slid into the automobile.

Forty passengers on the car were shaken up but no one was hurt.

GLENDALE VICTORIOUS

Coach Bert Stanley's Glendale High basketball team advanced another step toward the Coast League title last night by trimming the Long Beach Jackrabbits, 37-21. The game was played in the Glendale gym. Capt. Shelby Johns of Glendale led the scoring with 21 points.

The score by quarters:

Glendale	8	8	10	12—37
Long Beach	3	7	4	7—21

RESUME PLAY IN TOURNEY

Expect Upsets as City Open Tennis Starts Again Tomorrow

Southland fans are expecting several upsets in the fourth annual Los Angeles open tennis championships tomorrow when play is resumed at 8 o'clock at Griffith Park Playground, located at Riverside Drive and Los Feliz Boulevard. In addition to fourth-round men's singles and quarterfinal women's singles contests, two rounds of doubles will also be held.

GLADYS PATZ.

Lester Stoefen of the Los Angeles Athletic Club opposes Richard Lusch, former Hollywood High player, in one of the many feature singles games. Stoefen is seeded fourth and rates considerably above his foe, but Lusch has enjoyed a brilliant prep record, and has the game that may upset the Mercury color-bearer.

Gladys Patz, defending singles champion, is billed against Dorothy Workman, the leading El Monte product. Miss Workman has been a consistent junior winner in the Southland and has several exceptional triumphs to her credit. She is out gunning for Miss Patz, but for a victory she must stroke steadily and very accurately to defeat the title-holder.

Other feature pairings in which upsets are not unlikely are: Henry Culley, Santa Barbara, vs. Dick Skeen, Hollywood; Art Kussman vs. Percy Guilford; Jack De Lara vs. Frank Westsmith; Ben Gorchakoff vs. Gerald Bartosh; Clif Robins vs. Clayton Paige, and Elbert Lewis vs. Len Dworkin. Ellsworth Vines is an overwhelming favorite against Ned Wheldon.

Ellsworth Vines and Ben Gorchakoff, the top-seeded doubles team, carrying the L.A.A.C. colors, will be seen in three successive doubles games today, provided the combination wins each previous match. The favorites are billed against Dale Robinson and Martin Hansen, an Occidental combination, in the first bracket, and the winners of the Endo-Sakamota vs. Patchen-partner tilt. The winners of the Hovey-Carlson vs. Tibball-Lusch match may surprise the favorites.

Gladys Patz and Gertie Hauswald are the leading women's doubles team. They meet Miss Reed and partner in their preliminary round engagement, while Miss Manning and Miss Park, second seeded team, face Miss M. Laret and Miss O'Malley in a first-round tilt. There are only eight entries in this event.

CAMPBELL PUTS ROSS TO SLEEP

charge. Ross made a few feeble efforts to protect himself, but did no leading or countering.

This subsequently led to the gallery gods breaking forth into a Bronx cheer. It was then that Ross stuck out the right hand which Campbell encountered.

The cheer that broke out was quelled when Campbell planted left and right to Ross's chin, and the Buffalo fighter sank to the floor and curled up like a kitten.

Then the razzberry chorus started.

The kayo went down in the books as Campbell's eleventh straight, the seventh in local rings.

The defi of William Hanlon's order barring Filipino fighters because of race trouble in the north was seen in the semi-wind-up. Young Carpentero, a brown brother, fought a gritty battle against Tommy Gardner, but lost after six rounds.

In the special event Frankie Diaz and Bert Lamb battled six rounds to a draw.

John Spencer won by a technical knockout from Nifty Gonzales in the second round. Gonzales failed to answer the bell at the start of the third round because of a bad cut over his forehead.

Mickey McLaughlin dragged down a decision from Horace Smith in four rounds.

BEVERLY HILLS IN WIN OVER TIGERS

Coach Jerry Martin's Beverly Hills High School Tartars cinched second place in the final standings of the San Fernando Valley League yesterday afternoon in the Los Angeles High gymnasium. The score was 35 to 20, the Tartars leading throughout the game. Rose of Beverly Hills, a center, was high-point man of the afternoon with 11 points, while Ullum, San Fernando forward, led the valley quintet with 10 digits. In a preliminary game, the Beverly Hills B team won from San Fernando team, 22 to 20, in an extra period game, winning the lueague title. The Tartars Class D team won the title yesterday, and the Class C team tied for first place.

The line-ups:

Beverly Hills (35.)		San Fernando (20.)
Church (9)	F.	Judy
McNab (6)	F.	Ullum (10)
Rose (11)	C.	Fiegle (2)
Galloway	G.	Rarson
Raymond	G.	Cartio

Substitutions—For Beverly Hills, Briay (4;) San Fernando, Lawson, Le Bank (2.)

ROTH DEFEATS FIRPO

DETROIT, Jan. 31. (AP)—Terry Roth, Brooklyn, won a six-round decision over Pete Firpo of Detroit in the featured bout of Olympia's benefit card tonight. The benefit was for the widowed mother of Mickey Darmon, lightweight boxer, who died after being knocked out a week ago.

WEST STOPS MARTIN

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 31. (AP)—Indian Joe West, Phoenix, Ariz., stopped Nick Martin, Cleveland, in the seventh round of a ten-round bout here tonight. West weighed 162½, Martin 164.

PORT COMMERCE TOTAL HOLDS UP

January Figures Given Out by Chamber Bureau

Value of Tonnage Handled in Month $87,361,744

Increase Over 1928 Period Fixed at $12,000,000

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

Commerce passing in and out of Los Angeles-Long Beach Harbor during January totaled 1,942,099 tons valued at $87,361,744, according to estimates last night by the marine exchange of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. Values are $12,000,000 above those of January a year ago, but $2,000,000 under December, last, which is declared less than usual for the first month of the year.

In comparing the two months, intercoastal shipments disclosed the largest gain, climbing from $9,445,165 a year ago to $14,858,225. Intercoastal receipts gained $3,500,000 to $23,762,965, while foreign exports were $16,554,488, an increase of $4,000,000.

Oil shipments during January totaled 9,239,?19 barrels, of which 3,644,148 went to American Pacific States, 2,444,721 Pacific foreign; 1,979,213 Atlantic domestic and 1,151,467 barrels to foreign ports on the Atlantic. The total fell short of January a year ago by 1,300,000 barrels. Lumber receipts were 88,183,000 board feet, brought in by eighty-seven vessels.

Six hundred and sixty-two vessels arrived during the month just closed, an average of more than twenty-one for every day. Of them 221 carried passengers, 212 handled only general cargo, 147 transported oil, sixty-four brought in lumber and eighteen were classed as miscellaneous. Classed according to their service, 179 plied foreign, 125 intercoastal, 350 coastwise and eight to Hawaii.

Shipments by trades, in tons and dollars, follow:

Trades—	Tons.	Value.
Foreign exports	506,443	$16,554,488
Foreign imports	79,977	4,034,269
Hawaiian shipments	29,968	460,367
Hawaiian receipts	4,143	506,122
Intercoastal shipments	283,975	14,858,225
Intercoastal receipts	103,994	23,762,965
Coastwise shipments	586,158	11,710,932
Coastwise receipts	347,511	15,374,375
Total	1,942,099	$87,361,744

ORIENTAL EXODUS TO LATIN AMERICAS HEAVY

Four hundred more Japanese and Chinese arrived yesterday from the Orient on the N.Y.K. liner Anyo Maru bound outward on that liner today for Chile, Brazil, and other South American countries. Several Caucasians also will embark from here.

The oriental influx into Northern South America is declared a bountiful source of revenue to several steamship lines, the vessels of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha alone carrying an average of 300 to 400 each voyage. Estimates are made that this line alone transports possibly 9000 to 10,000 orientals to South America yearly, and the service has been running for nine years.

Most of the Japanese are reported settling in Brazil, particularly in the coffee fields.

The Lassco coastwise liner Yale arrived from San Francisco yesterday on her first trip since the installation upon it of a fathometer. The device, now being installed on many liners, discloses instantaneously the depth of water under the ship, and is regarded as an important aid to safety. Capt. Johnson reported the instrument worked entirely satisfactorily. The Harvard of the same line, is to be similarly equipped.

Radio telephonic service has bridged communications between the islands of Hawaii and Oahu, and subscribers on any phone system in one island now may telephone direct to parties on the other island, it was reported yesterday by Jay G. Ihmsen, district manager of telephones in Albany, N. Y. Ihmsen was one of 291 passengers returning from Hawaii yesterday on the Lassco liner City of Honolulu. The liner will make a quick turn-around, sailing at noon today for Hawaii with 300 passengers and freight.

The new Reardon-Smith motorship Fresno City arrived from the North Pacific early yesterday and sailed for United Kingdom last night on the return of her first round voyage in this service. Cotton and general cargo were lifted here, and the ship will stop at San Diego for more cotton. Capt. Dan Davies commands her.

Another new German tank motorship, the Biscayo of the Atlantic Tank Rhederei, is due here in ten days from Hamburg to begin a trip charter carrying gasoline for the Union Oil Company. She is a sister ship of the Mittelmeer, Skagerac, Adria and the Kattegat of the same line. Capt. A. R. Paulsen is agent.

The new Westfal-Larsen motorship Villanger discharged coffee and corned beef from Latin America yesterday, underwent fumigation and will sail today for San Francisco with bananas from Puntarenas, Costa Rica. She is completing her first round voyage.

California Bank President is New Utility Director

Miller Announces Proposal to Reclassify Stock

Limited Charter Plan Will be Submitted to Vote

James R. Page, Los Angeles banker and identified with a number of the city's commercial and industrial enterprises, was elected a director yesterday of the Southern California Edison Company. His election fills the vacancy caused by the death last year of E. W. Rollins.

John B. Miller, chairman, who made the announcement, also outlined the proposal of the directors to reorganize the capital structure of the organization through a reclassification of the preferred stock issues. The board also voted to add the abbreviation "Ltd." to the corporate name of the institution.

INTERESTS BROAD

Mr. Page has played an outstanding role as an executive in the development of Southern California business in the field of banking, investment, building and public utility management. He serves on the boards of a large number of Los Angeles corporations, and is also active in a number of philanthropic and educational organizations.

Following ten years of activity in the public-utility field with the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation and later with the Southern California Edison Company as assistant district manager in Los Angeles, he helped organize the investment banking house of Stevens, Page & Sterling in 1913. When this partnership was purchased by the Los Angeles-First National Trust and Savings Bank in 1927, he became a vice-president and director of that organization. He was educated in the Los Angeles public schools and attended the University of Southern California.

Organizations of which Mr. Page is a director include, in addition to the California Bank, the California Group Corporation, California Securities Company, I. N. Van Nuys Building, International Re-Insurance Corporation, Consolidated Steel Corporation, Mortgage Guarantee Company and California Trust Company. He is president of the Los Angeles Metabolic Clinic, trustee of the Good Samaritan Hospital and Barlow Sanitarium, Scripps College and Harvard School, and a director as well as secretary and treasurer of the Catalina Island School for Boys, and a director of California Institute Associates, Pasadena.

STOCK RECLASSIFIED

In the reclassification of the Edison company's authorized preferred issues, the Class A 7 per cent stock, which totaled $30,000,000, will be reduced to $27,000,000, and this $3,000,000 difference will be added to the Class A 6 per cent issue, increasing the amount to $53,000,000. The Class C 5½ per cent stock, which totaled $45,000,000, will be increased to $66,000,000. With the common stock capitalization of $100,000,000 and the $4,000,000 first preferred, which will remain unchanged, the new set-up will give the company a total capital stock of $250,000,000.

Change of the company's name to the Southern California Edison Company, Ltd., will enable the company to avail itself of the benefits of the new legislation in California last year, providing for the elimination of stockholders' liability, Mr. Miller stated.

Stockholders will be asked to approve the new capital set-up and change of name when they gather for the annual meeting, March 21, next.

Studebaker Auto Omits Dividend

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—Directors of the Studebaker Corporation today omitted declaration of the usual quarterly dividend of 1 per cent on the common stock. No explanation was given.

The regular quarterly cash dividends of $1.25 on the common stock and $1.75 on the preferred were declared payable March 1, to stock of record February 10.

LIENS OF BANKITALY ARM ON LEGAL LIST

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Albert A. Rosenshine, State Superintendent of Banks, today announced he had approved as legal for savings bank investment $22,000,000 real estate first mortgage collateral 5 per cent bonds issued by Bankitaly Mortage Company. The issue is designated as series A dated July 1, 1928, and due July 1, 1948. The bonds are secured by a deposit of first-lien mortgages and trust deeds as of the 11th inst., aggregating $22,355,000 applying to property in cities having a population of 10,000 or more in California.

ADDING MACHINE UNIT ACTS ON DIVIDEND

DETROIT, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Burroughs Adding Machine Company today declared a quarterly dividend of 25 cents on its common stock, placing the issue on $1 annual basis. The dividend is payable March 5 to stock of record February 11. The company formerly paid 80 cents quarterly.

CLEARINGS FIGURES IN SHARP SAG

January Decline from 1928 Total Reported as $252,528,787.51

Bank clearings in the city of Los Angeles for the month just closed dropped $252,528,787.51, or more than 25 per cent below the total for the same month last year, amounting to $825,695,647.60, which is the smallest volume for any month since last September, according to a statement issued yesterday by the Los Angeles Clearinghouse Association.

The clearings in January, 1929, totaled $1,078,224,435, which was the highest volume for any month in the history of the city. The following March was the only other month in which the total crossed the $1,000,000,000 mark. Compared with December, last month's clearings were off $37,600,000, or less than 4½ per cent.

The monthly trend of clearings throughout the latter half of 1929 were irregular and while September registered the smallest volume for any month of the year, October clearings reached the third highest total for the period.

The volume for the full year 1929 was the highest on record for any year, and topped the $11,000,000,000 mark for the first time. This volume also surpassed that of any other California city. Clearings throughout the last half of the year were less than the volume for the first half.

Holding Unit for Cord Operations Reports Status

CHICAGO, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Cord Corporation, for the period from June 17 to November 30, last, today reported consolidated net income of $230,830. The balance sheet as of November 30, last, showed current assets of $4,193,346 and current liabilities of $98,160. Total assets were listed at $22,869,560.

Investments in stocks of affiliated companies were stated at $24,380,976, including $19,242,808 of listed stocks, the market value of which as of November 30, last, was $8,854,539. Unlisted stocks amounting to $5,138,167 were given at a cost which is considered by the officers to be a fair value. Since November 30, last, the market value of the listed securities has increased $4,700,000 so that the price depreciation represents considerably less than $6,000,000.

E. L. Cord, president, said that most of the companies in which the company has its principal investments are entering 1930 with a greater sales volume than for the same period last year and that further acquisitions now being contemplated will add additional strength to the company's position in the industry. All directors and officers were re-elected at the annual meeting held today in Wilmington, Del.

NEW LOS ANGELES BANK AUTHORIZED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Albert A. Rosenshine, State Superintendent of Banks, has granted a permit for organization of a new bank in Los Angeles to be known as the Guaranty Trust Company. The company will have paid-in capital of $200,000, and a surplus and contingent fund of $20,000.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—A moderate further decline in the cotton market during today's early trading was followed by rallies on trade buying and covering. The volume of selling tapered off after the early break and a somewhat reactionary sentiment based on the extent of recent declines and the improved technical position was in evidence later, the mid-afternoon market ruling about 2 to 7 points net higher.

CUT IN GASOLINE FORECAST

Two-Cent Reduction Expected from Major Refiners to Meet Price-Cutting Competition

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Fresh outbursts of price cutting in the last few days have disrupted the retail gasoline market in Los Angeles to the point where a general reduction in prices may be initiated the first of the week. Rumors were current yesterday that major refiners were contemplating a 2-cent cut on Monday unless the so-called "bootleggers" haul down their price-cut signs.

For the last three or four days the situation has been acute, and several times there were promises of a wide-open break in the price structure. Strenuous efforts have been made to avoid trouble and there is a possibility that an adjustment may be reached today. Independent refiners are scheduled to meet this morning to discuss ways and means of bringing the price-cutters into line.

CODE VIOLATED

The trouble is laid to a group of refiners who are accused of slipping gasoline "out the back door" to dealers at cut prices. This practice is in violation of the code of ethics to which all companies have subscribed, having been drawn up and submitted to the industry by the American Petroleum Institute. Dealers buying this gasoline are posting prices as low as 15 1-2 cents, which compares with the tank-wagon price of 19 1-2 cents including State tax.

Sale of this out-price gasoline has made heavy inroads on the gallonage of the other companies, as the figures on sales for the fourth quarter of last year show. The situation has been growing worse for several months but nothing has been done to correct the situation by the major refineries, mainly because of the general sentiment to avoid any steps that would lead to the demoralization of a market that was stabilized only after some bitter experiences last year.

It is not expected that anything in the nature of a general price war will break out. There have been rumors, however, of a drop of as much as 4 cents by the major companies, but it appears now that a 2-cent cut will be attempted first if there is not some improvement promised in bootlegging activities.

STOCKS INCREASED

Seasonal reasons, moreover, may justify a drop in price at this time, since this is the usual period for lower consumption. It is also true that there is plenty of gasoline in storage, the total stocks of gasoline on the Pacific Coast at the end of 1929 standing at 16,432,000 gallons, an increase of 52 per cent over stocks at the end of 1928. Gasoline stocks at the close of 1928 were 10,766,000 barrels.

Because noteworthy progress has been made in correcting the crude oil side of the industry, the major companies have hoped to introduce the same degree of stabilization into gasoline operations. While crude-oil curtailment is not wholly in effect, it is significant that no additions were made in November and December to crude-oil stocks on the Pacific Coast. The total at the end of the year was 184,000,000 barrels, compared with 140,000,000 in 1928, but the increase was recorded in the first ten months of the year.

What has been accomplished in correcting surplus production of crude is further attested by the total of approximately 350,000 barrels of shut-in production in California. If this amount of oil were shut in, the State's daily output would be running at more than 1,000,000 barrels daily.

Golden State to Pay With Stock

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Golden State Milk Products Company officials in commenting today on the substitution of 2.6 per cent stock dividend quarterly for the previous 40 cents cash and 1 per cent quarterly stock dividend said stockholders need feel no concern over the company's earning position. Profits are far more than enough to pay the dividends and well ahead of last year's record, it was said in the office of President L. E. W. Pioda.

The purpose of issuing stock instead of cash was to conserve the company's cash position and make funds available for remodeling of plants which had been planned for 1931, but had been ordered done this year to take advantage of favorable business opportunities.

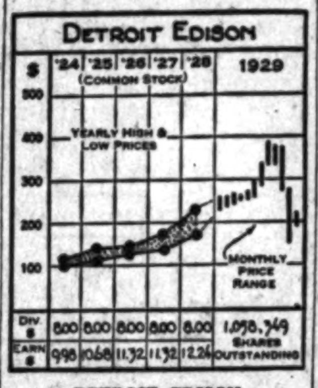
WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK



DETROIT EDISON

Serving a population estimated to be in excess of 2,000,000, Detroit Edison furnishes the entire commercial electric lighting and power business in the City of Detroit and adjacent territory, the entire system being interconnected. Practically every residence in the original territory is now being served, and expansion in recent years has come from extension of line into new district.

Prior to 1916, net income doubled about every five years, then remained practically stationary to 1921, and has more than quadrupled since that time. For the twelve months ended November 30, 1929, net was $13,330,695, or $12.59 per share on the common stock, compared with $12,337,565, or $11.94 per share for the preceding twelve months. According to the consolidated balance sheet dated September 30, 1929, the book value of the common stock was $115.15 per share.

CAPITALIZATION

Funded debt	$101,015,000
Subs. funded debt	4,000,000
Capital stock ($100 par)	165,834,900

Current data: The company's campaign to increase domestic sales of electricity by selling electric ranges at a price said to be 50 per cent cheaper than the closest competitor, is said to be succeeding, with over 70,000 unfilled orders on hand.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 31. (Exclusive Directors of the India Tire and Rubber Company have agreed upon a plan to be submitted at the annual stockholders' meeting on February 10 by which $1,300,000 will be added to the company's working capital in the form of debenture notes. This financing has been completely underwritten.

EARNINGS OF OIL ROYALTY UNIT MOUNT

United States Company Reports Net Increase on 1928 of 158 Per Cent

Increased earnings and improvement of its current position in comparison to the preceding year were shown in the annual report of the United States Oil and Royalties Company for the year ended December 31, last, which was issued yesterday by W. R. Wheat, president, and E. W. Clark, treasurer. Net operating income after all charges and taxes but before depletion and depreciation was $105,133.35, equal to 3 1-5 cents a share on 3,318,236 capital shares of 25 cents par value as compared to $40,710.18, or 1 1-4 cents a share on 3,291,036 shares in 1928, an increase of $64,423.17, or 158 per cent.

The large increase in income was derived principally from royalties received, amounting to $70,263.11 in 1929, compared with $7,053.43 in 1928, the report stated. Net profits after deduction of $32,104.05 for depreciation, depletion and properties written off were $73,029.30, or 2 1-5 cents a share.

Current assets at the end of the year amounted to $69,773.04, of which $24,483.93 was cash, as against current liabilities of $4798.07, a ratio of over 14 to 1. At the close of 1928, current assets were $65,827.67 against current liabilities of $60,255.17, or 1 1-12 to 1. Total assets increased from $1,379,028.16 at the end of 1928 to $1,415,139.82 as of December 31, last. Surplus increased from $27,172.16 to $100,201.46.

The percentage the net operating income earned on the par value of the stock for 1929 was 12 2-3 as against 5 per cent in 1928. The book value of the shares was given as 29 cents as against 27 cents in the previous year.

All bank loans were paid off during the year and additional properties acquired were purchased out of income, the report stated.

New Financing List Headed by Utility Liens

Headed by a new issue of $15,000,000 Electric Power & Light Corporation gold debentures, 5 per cent series, due 2030, new financing announced yesterday includes public utility, municipal, investment trust and railroad equipment trust offerings. The Electric Power & Light issue is being tendered by Bonbright & Co., Inc., at 92½ and accrued interest to yield about 5.40 per cent.

A syndicate headed by E. H. Rollins & Sons is marketing an issue of $4,000,000 par value General Public Utilities, two-year convertible secured 6 per cent notes which will be convertible at maturity into the company's first mortgage 5½ per cent bonds on a 6 1-4 per cent basis. The company is a subsidiary of American Commonwealths Power Corporation.

United States Electric Light and Power Shares, Inc., one of the largest investment trusts specializing in public utility securities, through Callvin Bullock, investment bankers, will undertake new financing in the form of a new issue of Series B certificates, priced at 10 1-4.

New York Central Railroad Company 4½ per cent equipment trust certificates, due 1930 to 1944, inclusive, are being offered to the amount of $5,280,000 by a syndicate headed by Bankers' Company of New York at prices to yield 4.50 to 4.65 per cent, according to maturities. The same investment house heads another syndicate offering $9,000,000 St. Louis (Mo.) 4½ per cent bonds, due 1935 to 1950, inclusive, and priced to yield 4.30 to 4.35 per cent, according to maturities.

Santa Fe Rail Earnings Gain

CHICAGO IN UNIQUE POSITION

Empty Treasury Due to Long Fight Over Tax Levy on Property; Gives City Unenviable Distinction

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Chicago, to put it mildly, is financially embarrassed. No real estates taxes have been paid by her citizens since the Illinois Tax Commission, in May, 1928, ordered the reassessment of all real estate in Cook county as a result of thousands of complaints protesting excessive assessments.

The Thompson administration, opposing the new assessment, says that hundreds of millions have been taken off the downtown buildings and spread elsewhere. The fight is a bitter one.

"Some public men never worry about their debts as long as they can borrow more, but the day of reckoning has come," sai dSilas H. Strawn, big business lawyer, chairman of the Voluntary Citizens' Committee, to me, in his office in the First National Bank Building. "I am not an expert in real estate assessment. I leave that to the experts. But what every fair-minded citizen wants to do now is to bring order out of chaos."

Speaking without emphasis, easily, although tired from days of study and conference, Mr. Strawn continued: "Co-operation with the municipal officials is necessary, but the first job before us is to hammer out an agreement satisfactory to the several tax-spending bodies and our own citizens' committee, respecting the expenditure of the funds which our committee is prepared to advance, pending the receipt of taxes."

Mayor Thompson, bitterly opposed to the new real estate assessment, demands a special session of the Legislature be called. Gov. Emmerson, cautious, listening, watching, says nothing.

The Strawn committee waits with cash, in lieu of tax money, to carry on, whenever their plan is agreed to.

In the meantime, thousands of school-teachers, policemen, firemen, nurses and other employees of Cook county and Chicago are annoyed, embarrassed and humiliated because they, in turn, cannot pay their current bills.

Probably no city in America ever presented such a financial stalemate.

"Not many centuries ago insects ruled the world. Mankind has the upper hand now, but only because we keep eternally after the insects," said H. D. Hudson, president of the H. D. Hudson Company of Chicago.

"There are 4,000,000 kinds of bugs and insects in the world, and most of them are against us. They not only eat our crops and foods, torment us, and carry germ diseases, but some of them relish furniture, leather, woolens and other articles of value."

Pointing to a heap of varicolored innocent toy guns on his desk, Mr. Hudson explained that they were insect fighters par excellence, although called "sprayers," which, with the proper chemicals, are the instruments of warfare against roaches, flies, mosquitoes, or bugs.

"The fight against the destructive insect, or bug, is increasing," said the manufacturer. "We notice it here. We have made 10,000,000 of those sprayers a year for the last five years. Yet the demand is greater now than ever—it's world wide."

He continued: "You know spraying has been used in the automobile industry many years for painting cars. But in the future its greatest usage will be in the home. Sprayers are now used to paint furniture and varnish floors, to decorate lamp shades, to moisten clothes for ironing and wash windows. Basically, the real reason is that it is a simple process which saves both time and money."

H. D. Hudson, a small reticent man, was born in a little backwoods log cabin in Michigan, and went to work early in life. Twenty-five years ago with a ciptal of less than $1000 he entered the manufacturing field, producing heavy agricultural equipments. Now his factories are widely scattered throughout the United States, and his products go to nearly every nation.

"And say, business was never better," was his parting shot as I left his office.

Staats Company to Celebrate on Birthday Date

Celebrating the forty-third anniversary of the founding of the William R. Staats Company, sixty members of the organization will gather at the Midwick Country Club this afternoon. A banquet will be held for the entire staff at the club tonight.

A series of displays has been arranged at the club to portray the growth of the organization, which is known as the first bond house organized in California, the original office being opened in Pasadena by William R. Staats in 1887.

John Earle Jardine, who is president of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, is president of the company. Paul Hammond, vice-president of the exchange, is also vice-president of the investment company.

Australia Wool Growers Unite

MELBOURNE (Australia) Jan. 31. (AP)—A group of 100 Victorian and Riverina wool growers has agreed to the formation of a new wool growers' organization for the stabilization of wool prices.

The new organization is named the Australia National Wool Growers' Association and Publicity League. The growers have agreed to a compulsory levy of 5 shillings on every £100 sterling worth of wool sold in order to provide funds for a publicity campaign to promote the more extensive use of wool.

DEMAND ON WOOL MART HELD QUIET

Weekly Review Reports Price Trend Slightly in Favor of Buyer

BOSTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

The wool market has been generally quiet and quite uncertain as to what are fair values for wool. The price trend has favored the buyer, slightly.

Foreign markets are gradually yielding to the pressure of wool and values favor the buyer, withdrawals being heavy in London and the colonial markets. The Adelaide sale has been indefinitely postponed on account of the unsettled condition of the wool market. The London colonial sales are expected to be shortened materially.

Further openings of heavyweight staple lines of goods have not clarified the goods market situation. Demand for goods is suspended to a considerable degree and consumption at the mills decreasing.

The new growers' marketing plan is unfolding gradually. Many details are yet to be determined.

Mohair is dull and prices nominal.

The rail and water shipments of wool from Boston from January 1, 1929, to January 30, 1930, inclusive, were 14,218,000 pounds against 16,217,000 pounds for the same period last year. The receipts from January 1, 1930, to January 30, 1930, inclusive, were 19,734,100 pounds against 19,672,600 pounds for the same period last year.

The Bulletin will publish the following quotations:

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Speculative Trading in Oil Stocks Revives on Sudden Spurt in Activity

Petroleum shares, following a period of relative inactivity, were re[illegible] from the doldrums and once more placed in the foremost mar[illegible] position in the trading yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. [illegible] indications of a revival of speculative operations the shares staged a [illegible] rally but liquidation at the high levels checked the movement. While there was a slight reaction toward the close, final quotations were higher than those of the preceding day.

Richfield headed the turnover of the group and advanced a point to 26 with sales exceeding any other issue on the board. The high price was maintained to the close. Rio Grande took a prominent part in the bullish demonstration and advanced to a high at 19 1-4. Late selling brought the close back to 18 5-8, up 1-8 net. Standard Oil of California on a turnover of [illegible] shares advanced 1 3-8 to 61 and ended at 60 3-4, up 1 1-8 net. Union after reaching 44 5-8 finished at 44 3-8, up 3-8 net.

Both Transamerica and Pacific Finance, which featured trading in the recent sessions, took a place in the background and were comparatively quiet. Transamerica firmed up 1-8 to 44 3-4 and the Finance Company held steady to 41.

Byron Jackson was a strong spot of the session and shot up 1 3-4 points to a high and close at 19 1-4 on a turnover of 1500 shares. Douglas Aircraft moved up 1-2 to 13 1-2 and Western Air Express a similar amount to 24, while Aero Corporation slipped back 10 cents to 2.90. Southern California Edison strengthened another 1-4 to 59 1-4. Other changes were of a small fractional character.

Sales totaled 16,776 shares valued at $452,680; previous day, 16,222 shares valued at $556,074.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—Listed bonds showed encouraging resistance in the face of a large volume of new issues today. Compared with the market's heaviness on occasions of some of the recent financing, the course of trading was generally steady, although closing prices represented an irregular mixture of small gains and losses in bonds of the best grade.

The $80,000,000 in new flotations was mostly of the utility description. International Telephone's $50,000,000 loan in 25-year debenture 5s was oversubscribed and the obligations, admitted to dealings on a when-issued basis, advanced ⅝ above the offering price of 96½. With this sale out of the way, the stock improved and therefore the convertible 4½s were able to move up, closing 2⅝ higher. The outstanding debenture 4½s gained about ½ point.

Foreign bonds continued to reflect buying. This was especially true of government loans, the French and Belgian listings, as well as the Australians, Japanese and the Italy and German 7s.

American Telephone 4½s had a net rise of ⅝. Missouri Pacific 5½s moved up ⅝ and Atchison 4½s lost ⅝. American I. G. Chemical 5½s finished at 101, up ⅝.

Mixed price changes marked the rails. Baltimore and Ohio gold 4s, Rock Island general 4s, and New York Central debenture 4s of 1934 were firm. New Haven 3½s sagged a point and New Orleans, Texas and Mexico 5s, Series C, rallied 1⅝.

Utilities were quiet, although there was some buying of Columbian Gas and Electric 5s and Postal Telegraph 5s.

The dullness of the industrials was accompanied by easier quotations on Goodyear Tire 5s, International Match 5s, United States Rubber 5s and Wilson Company first 6s, which lost small fractions.

New bond offerings of the week rose to $122,041,000 from last week's total of $79,394,000. A year ago the volume was $137,574,250.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in order given. To expedite transmission, the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

LOS ANGELES CURB

Speculative interest was aroused on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange yesterday by the operations in Fokker Aircraft. After having remained relatively inactive during recent sessions, the stock was taken in hand and traded with an unusual rapidity. Quotations shot up 2 5-8 points to a high at 19 1-8 and the last sale crossed the board at 18¼, up 2 points net after a transfer of 6800 shares.

Claude Neon Electrical Products of Delaware, recent feature, continued to trade in large volume and moved up to a new high for the recovery since last fall to 40 1-8. Offerings toward the close brought the last sale to 39 1-8, off 1-4 net. Electrical Products of Washington was not traded, the closing bid being 14 1-4. Gladding McBean added a point to end at 60½ and Diamond Electric gained a point to 41½.

Universal Consolidated Oil traded actively and firmed up 3-8 to 16 and United States Oil & Royalties, in anticipation of a favorable earnings statement to be published today, advanced 1½ cents to 7½ cents on a brisk demand. Other changes were fractional.

Sales totaled 16,776 shares valued at $452,680; previous day, 16,222 shares valued at $556,074.

Stronger Tone Rules Trading on Wheat Mart

[illegible] Jan. 31. (AP)—Wheat scored [illegible] gains today but not until [illegible] here had dropped wildly to [illegible] a bushel below the season's [illegible]. Gyrations of the Winnipeg [illegible] especially a brisk late advance at Winnipeg, had much to do with [illegible] of values here. Export business [illegible] North American wheat today appeared to be at a standstill, but in some quarters late Argentine and Australian advices [illegible] taken to indicate that importing [illegible] have practically no alternative [illegible] recourse to North America for [illegible].

[illegible] closing quotations on wheat [illegible] at the same as yesterday's [illegible] to ⅝c higher. Corn closed ¼c to [illegible] advanced, oats unchanged to ⅛c [illegible] and provisions varying from 7c de[illegible] to a gain of a shade.

[illegible] additional momentum to the late [illegible] of the Chicago wheat market [illegible] reports of frost damage to the do[illegible] winter wheat crop southwest, with [illegible] also about the condition of the [illegible] in the western part of Kansas. Mean[illegible] regarding chances for Europe con[illegible] to draw wheat imports from the [illegible] hemisphere, dispatches at hand [illegible] showed that Argentine and Australian [illegible] this week were smaller than [illegible] the week previous.

[illegible] such circumstances, speculators [illegible] had been active on the selling side [illegible] turned rather unanimously [illegible] opposite direction, and purchased on [illegible] scale in order to collect profits. [illegible] mills were reported as having de[illegible] offers of 500,000 bushels of No. 2 [illegible] winter wheat in store here at $1.15 [illegible], just 3c below what the Farmers' [illegible] Grain Corporation was bidding [illegible] for the same grade from rural sources [illegible] not obtaining any.

[illegible] and oats sympathized somewhat [illegible] wheat weakness, but declines brought [illegible] buying from commission houses. Provisions were mostly firm, responsive [illegible] in the value of hogs.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—After scoring gains of from 10 to 20 points in the early dealings, futures on the rubber exchange of New York today closed from unchanged to 20 points net lower.

Selling orders which came from a large importing house took the market down in the afternoon business. Although sales volume was slightly higher than in the preceding session, the lack of interest in trade was still noticeable owing to the closing of the Singapore market, where holidays still continued. Sales were 186 lots, or 465 tons.

An unofficial estimate of crude rubber stocks at London and Liverpool for the week ended January 31 disclosed an increase of 200 tons as compared with the previous period. Official figures will be published on Monday. London spot closed quiet and unchanged at 7 9-16d. Outside spot here fell ⅛c to 15⅛c.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—Receipts of approximately 300 sold on a generally steady basis, but there was not much snap to the trading. A load of low medium 1029-pound California steers brought 11.15. Load lots of intermountain cows and some dairy type animals brought 8.60@8.85, with bulk of common to medium kinds at 7.00@8.50 and odd head at 6.75. Low cutters and cutters bulked at 4.00@6.60. Good bulls sold up to 8.75, with common kinds at 7.00 and under.

CALVES—Receipts of around 100 consisted mainly of southwesterns. Prices were about steady, with odd milk vealers selling up to 14.50. Load lots of southwestern calves including some that sold late Thursday brought 11.50@12.50 and usually averaged over 300 pounds. Plainer calves sold at 8.50@11.25.

HOGS—With four loads available trade was active at mostly 10c higher rates. One load of 183-pound Nebraskas with freight went to an outside packer at 11.25, but practical top stood at 11.10, paid for a load of 141-pound Texans and a load of 192-pound Nebraskas. A load of Texans around 200 pounds brought 11.00. Some trucked-in light lights made 10.25. Packing sows quoted steady at 8.00@9.00.

SHEEP—None. Quotably steady.

METAL MARKET

CLEVELAND, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: Sheet steel consumption is increasing in the East, the position of the mills with reference to tonnage on hand is noticeably improved. A larger portion of eastern sheet mill capacity is fully engaged and no mill in the territory is operating at less than 70 per cent.

Business in tubular products show little change, although the outlook is considered favorable. Automotive demand for strip steel has slackened following recent buying.

Active demand for wire nails is reported at Philadelphia where, also, it is reported billet specifications are averaging about 80 per cent of the average during the fourth quarter of 1929, which is better than had been expected.

OIL NEWS

BY HOWARD KEGLEY

[illegible]ough considerable success has [illegible] enjoyed by operators drilling [illegible] on the north dome at Kettleman Hills, tests on the south and [illegible] domes have so far failed to [illegible] anything especially interesting [illegible] projects drilled by the [illegible] Canfield-Midway Oil [illegible], George F. Getty and the [illegible] Oil Company eventually may [illegible] abandoned, field reports say.

[illegible] Smith No. 1 on the south [illegible] yesterday was swabbing at [illegible] feet and today an under[illegible] bit will be run to about 6900 [illegible] which is not far from the [illegible] tested for production several [illegible] ago when the well came in [illegible] a hot-water producer. The [illegible] No. 1 was drilled below 8000 [illegible] and at present is the deepest [illegible] at Kettleman Hills, but showings obtained at that depth proved [illegible]ointing.

[illegible] a mile north of Ohio's [illegible] No. 1, Chanslor Canfield's [illegible] No. 1 is being surveyed to [illegible] if the hole is straight, [illegible] bottom at 6131 feet. A few [illegible] were given a production [illegible] several months ago at 3300 feet, [illegible] nothing has developed since.

[illegible] Sec. 20, 23-19, on the middle [illegible] George F. Getty's Erwin No. [illegible] suspended with bottom [illegible] feet. Since spudding in [illegible] months ago this project has [illegible] devoid of oil showings and at [illegible] there is no indication that [illegible] will be carried any deeper.

[illegible] One

[illegible] Republic Petroleum Corpo[illegible] has just brought in its No. [illegible] in the Midway district for ap[illegible] 1200 barrels of 22-deg. [illegible] oil a day from a depth of [illegible] feet. A short time after being [illegible] it sanded up for a while, [illegible] the flow cleaned up. The [illegible]'s No. 35 in the same area [illegible] for production at 3000 [illegible] may be completed today.

[illegible] Steady

[illegible] Shell Oil Company's Covar[illegible] No. 1 on a 500-acre lease [illegible] nine miles west of Elwood [illegible] settled down to a flow of ap[illegible] 100 barrels of 20-deg. [illegible] oil a day from a depth of [illegible] feet and will be allowed to pro[illegible] for nearly a month to deter[illegible] its potentialities. This pro[illegible] is in the field discovered by [illegible] General Petroleum Corporation [illegible] three months ago when its [illegible] No. 1 was brought in as a [illegible] producer.

[illegible] Buttonwillow

[illegible] General Petroleum Corpora[illegible] has leased 120 acres of Sec. 6, [illegible] at Buttonwillow and will drill [illegible] test there for oil. This will [illegible] second venture at Buttonwillow. This test will be about two [illegible] northwest of the Milham Ex[illegible] Company's Kern No. 6, which at present is tied up in a [illegible] job with bottom below 4500 [illegible]. Milham is going deep in [illegible] of a big oil structure.

[illegible] Soon

[illegible] Howard's Hathaway No. 7 [illegible] southwesterly portion of the [illegible] Fe Springs field may be [illegible] a production test in a day or [illegible] with bottom at 8737 feet. Al[illegible] drilled to 9350 feet—deeper [illegible] any other project ever went [illegible] search of oil, showings at depth [illegible] not good, so the hole was [illegible] to 8737 feet, with four and [illegible]-quarter-inch casing cemented [illegible] that depth.

[illegible] General Petroleum Corpora[illegible] Santa Fe No. 213 at Santa Fe [illegible] went to 8740 feet, but also [illegible] to be plugged back to about [illegible] feet. Just now it is being [illegible] out to bottom, and another [illegible] will soon be made to place [illegible] in production.

[illegible] Ready

[illegible] per cent of the produc[illegible] up to continue pro[illegible] oil output at Signal Hill [illegible] additional ninety days the [illegible] agreement, which lacks but a few signatures to make it 100 per cent, will go into effect today.

The same situation exists in the Santa Fe Springs field, for with the exception of a few signatures the new agreement becomes effective today and will be in force for ninety days. At the expiration of the [illegible] period, operators believe that further curtailment of production will be unnecessary, since the peak of that field is expected [illegible] about two weeks.

At Signal Hill yesterday's output was approximately 106,000 barrels. Two wells were being swabbed for production. The Santa Fe Springs' field yesterday showed little change. [illegible] totaled 107,256 barrels.

[illegible] Nearly Completed

The Associated Oil Company's [illegible] pipe line built to handle the production from the Petroleum Se[illegible] Company's Felix No. 1 on the north dome at Kettleman Hills will be ready for use within a few days. The line is six miles long. During the heavy snows several [illegible] work on the line was delayed.

[illegible] Off Production

The Lockhart No. 1 and No. 2, [illegible] of the first wells completed in the town-lot area at Potrero, have [illegible] suspended. Both wells were [illegible] for 226 barrels of oil a day and [illegible] completed at about the same [illegible] that George F. Getty, Inc., brought in Parker No. 1, which con[illegible] to put out forty-five barrels [illegible].

[illegible] Again

The Globe Lease & Royalty Company's No. 6 in the town-lot area at [illegible] again is swabbing for re[illegible] at 3844 feet. This test [illegible] brought in more than a month [illegible] but sand troubles shut off pro[illegible]. A short distance away the [illegible] Oil Company's Hassen [illegible] 1 is sidetracking below 3850 [illegible] while the Sunset Pacific Oil Company's No. 1 with bottom at [illegible] feet is flowing water with a [illegible] of oil.

Thomas Barton's No. 1 near the [illegible] of Queen and Prairie ave[illegible] in the town-lot area at Po[illegible] has evidently obtained a water shut-off as it is reported to be [illegible] out about 500 barrels of oil [illegible] day from a depth of 4150 feet.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—A broad revival of bullish activity featuring a brisk demand for the public utilities today lifted the volume of sales on the curb exchange above 1,000,000 shares for the first time this year. Net gains in the active issues ranged from 1 to nearly 8 points, with larger advances in a few ordinarily inactive specialties.

Electric Bond and Share was the leader of the public utility group, rising 7⅝ points to 93⅞ and closing at the top. Wall street heard that the stock would be transferred to the "big board" soon. Southeastern Power and Light warrants jumped 16⅝ points and American and Foreign Power warrants, Allied Power and Light, American Superpower and Central States Electric were among the many issues to advance 1½ to 4 points. Merger reports, rumors of an overcrowded short interest and the postponement of the public utility hearings by the Federal Trade Commission were all mentioned as factors in the advance of the power and light stocks.

Oils also attracted a good following despite recent unfavorable trade developments. Gulf Oil of Pennsylvania ran up more than 7 points. Indian Territorial 3⅛ and Illinois and Indiana Pipe Line, Lion Oil and the Solar Refining advanced a point or two.

The buying of the investment trust, trading and holding corporation shares was influenced by reports of a sharp appreciation in the market value of securities holdings in the last fortnight. Tri-continental advanced 2⅞ points to 16⅞, the highest price since the recent merger became effective, while Goldman Sachs, Lehman Corporation and Interstate Equities convertible preferred moved up a point or more.

Aviation stocks also rallied. Aviation Corporation of the Americas and Fokker advanced about 2 points.

Deere & Co. fluctuated over a range of 20 points, closing at 645 for a net loss of 4 points after having approached within a fraction of last year's record high of 650. Aluminum Company of America advanced 5 points and Aluminum Limited 18. Huyler's of Delaware jumped 30 points and Duke Power 32¼. Butler Brothers, General Baking preferred and Super Maid dropped to new lows, the last named falling 9 points.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Western stock prices continued higher into new altitudes today, reflecting increasing optimism over the Pacific Coast industrial outlook. Even the laggard oils got into the upswing, and for a time were as bullish as the industrials.

Rumors of "inside buying" and pool operations were circulated, but chief interest centered in official earnings reports, which recently have shown many California companies enjoying greater prosperity than had been looked for. Sales of 63,234 shares at $1,717,442 were higher than yesterday, and continued odd-lot orders, with much cash buying, kept the price structure strong.

North American Oil and Standard of California, up a point or better, and Richfield, Shell, Union, and in fact the entire list sold somewhat higher.

California Cotton jumped 5 points, California Ink 2⅛, Byron Jackson 1½, and a number of industrials moved fractionally higher. Golden State Milk, on sales of a few hundred shares by stockholders disappointed in the substitution of stock dividends for the combined cash-and-stock basis, dropped sharply in the forenoon to a new low at 23⅞, down 3⅞, but recovered to 25, closing down 2⅛. The recovery followed publication by the Associated Press of a statement that earnings were steadily gaining and were ample for dividend purposes, but were being conserved to cover building expenses originally planned for next year.

The utility group was strong, although Pacific Gas failed to hold an early gain, and closed fractionally lower. Pacific Telephone preferred was up a point, and several minor gains were recorded, as 1930 earning prospects became more favorably defined with improving industrial conditions.

Carlot shipments of California citrus, compiled from railroad passing reports for the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, were announced as follows:

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Both California oranges and lemons were slightly higher at eastern and middle western auction centers yesterday. California sales totaled fifty-three cars oranges and eight cars lemons.

Analysis of trading gave the following price range per box:

Prices by size of Sunkist brand navel oranges were reported to the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, shippers, as follows:

DETROIT—Market was strong on good stock navels, lower on balance. Carlot sales: Five cars oranges. Florida carlot sales: Three cars oranges, $3.95; two cars grapefruit, $4.10.

PRODUCE MARKET

(United States Bureau of Markets)

But little change was noted in movement of fruit and produce on yesterday's market. Trading continues dull, with slow demand. Prices in many lines remained steady, although supplies on hand would justify an increase were trading more spirited. Apples were unchanged, with rather slow movement. Artichokes weaker. Avocados and bananas unchanged. Broccoli weaker. Beans scarce. Turnips and mustard stronger. Cabbage and cauliflower weak. Citrus prices unchanged on packed stock. Loose oranges weak under heavy receipts. Lettuce weaker. Packed peas about steady. Mexican crates stronger. Peppers weaker. Sweet potatoes unchanged. Tomatoes weaker, with poor demand.

Weekly Survey Notes Signs of Trade Revival

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. —Dun's tomorrow will say:

Further progress has been made toward emergence from the setback in business, with the circle of improvement gradually widening. Conditions at the month-end disclosed the expected lack of uniformity and also various unsatisfactory features, yet gains in activity and in sentiment have become more distinct. With recognition of the fact that a broad recovery from a recession of major proportions would not be likely to come otherwise than slowly and unevenly, results in January have been encouraging and in certain respects more favorable than was anticipated.

The decisive revival in the great steel industry is not representative of the situation generally, yet it clearly evidences a betterment in some other manufacturing branches, including automobile production, and is obviously a promising augury. That upturn, which has been more rapid than was commonly looked for, implies a larger engagement of workers in different lines, and the trend of employment is being watched closely as an indication of the probable public buying power. The status of retail trade, which is naturally governed mainly by the purchasing ability and disposition of consumers, reveals many irregularities, but in numerous cases sizable reductions have been made in dealers' stocks through offerings of attractively priced merchandise.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

Alhambra, Hill bet. 7th & 8th.—"It's a Great Life." Merriment in a department store provided by the Duncan sisters with song and dance embellishments.

Boulevard, Wash. at Verm't.—"Sunny Side Up." Something about Cinderella, if you've forgotten. Done in a tenement with Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell singing of love.

Carthay Circle, Carthay Center—"Devil May Care." The adventurous spirit of Napoleonic days is brought to light by Ramon Novarro in an acceptable musical drama of love and bravery.

Criterion, 642 South Grand.—"Anna Christie." Greta Garbo speaks the lines of Eugene O'Neill's heroine in fine style. Clarence Brown has done some of his best directing.

Figueroa, Figueroa at Santa Barbara—"The Mighty." Another crook story of incredible happenings, featuring George Bancroft with a double nature.

Filmarte, 1228 Vine.—"The Trial of Donald Westhof." Reviewed in today's Times.

Grauman's Chinese, 6925 Hollywood Blvd.—"Rogue Song." Lawrence Tibbett makes a powerful impression on screen fans in a vagabond romance of nearly great quality.

Grauman's Egyptian, 6708 Hollywood Blvd.—"Romance of the Rio Grande." On the order of "Old Arizona." Well played by Warner Baxter and Mona Maris.

Loew's State, 7th & Bdwy.—"Not So Dumb." At one time this was a stage play, "Dulcy," but something happened to it.

Million Dollar, 3rd & Bdwy.—"Sweetie." Song and dance in a prep school, done in a breezy manner. Presents Nancy Carroll, Jack Oakie and funny Stuart Erwin.

Palace, Bdwy. bet. 6th & 7th.—"Hallelujah." A return of King Vidor's drama of the South, credited by some as one of the best pictures of the year.

Paramount, Hill at 6th.—"The Love Parade." Delightful satire in operetta form about the effects of love on royalty. Lubitsch directed Maurice Chevalier and Jeanette MacDonald.

Ritz, 5300 Wilshire—"Sweetie." See above.

R.K.O., Hill at 8th.—"Dark Streets." Gunmen and sacrifice with Jack Mulhall doing some convincing work in a dual role.

R.K.O. Orpheum, Bdwy. at 9th.—"Hit the Deck." A lot of fun and music from the stage show, with Jack Oakie and Polly Walker.

Tower, Bdwy. at 8th.—"Tiger Rose." The Northwest Mounted again, but its Lupe Velez who gets her man midst blood and thunder and whatnot.

Uptown, 10th & Western—"Three Live Ghosts." See below.

United Artists, Bdwy. nr. 9th.—"The Locked Door." Opens today.

Warners' Downtown, Hill at 7th—"Son of the Gods." Opens at midnight.

Warners' Hollywood, Hollywd. at Wilcox.—"The Sacred Flame." Reviewed in today's Times.

Westlake, 638 Alvarado.—"Three Live Ghosts." Rather nice comedy-drama about three soldiers reported more dead than alive. Beryl Mercer is good and so are Robert Montgomery and Claud Allister.

STAGE

Belasco, Hill at 11th.—"Journey's End." R. C. Sherriff's fine war play is produced splendidly by an English company with Basil Gill.

El Capitan, Hollyw'd Blvd. nr. Highland.—"The Boomerang." A pleasing little comedy about love and such, with Kay Hammond, Tom Moore and Ben Lyon.

Hollywood Playhouse, 1735 Vine.—"It Pays to Advertise." A good comedy about how love can come from making soap. Robert McWade returns.

Majestic, Bdwy. at 9th.—"New Moon." The popular operetta is well put on, featuring the song hit, "Lover Come Back to Me." Perry Askam and Josephine Huston.

Mayan, Hill nr. 11th.—"Oh, Susanna." Tuneful and nicely staged, an operetta of the gold rush in California. With Carlotta King.

Mission Play, San Gabriel.—The beautiful annual pageant of the settling of California, up to its usual standard. With R. D. MacLean.

Music Box, 6126 Hollywood Blvd.—"And So To Bed." James B. Fagan's adventurous comedy of seventeenth century naughtiness, delightfully done by members of the new Civic Repertory Theater.

President, Bdwy. at 8th.—"The Cat and the Canary." A revival of one of the better mystery plays, personally enacted by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Duffy.

Vine-street, 1615 Vine. — "Sun-Up." Came the dawn in the Tennessee mountains, bringing drama, tragedy and Lucille LaVerne in her perennial masterpiece.

Court Enjoins Extension of Espee Railroad

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (AP)—United States District Judge Kerrigan today filed an order permanently enjoining the Southern Pacific Company from maintaining and operating an extension of its main line road running through the southerly limits of the city of San Mateo.

Judge Kerrigan's order was based on the recommendation of former Circuit Judge William H. Hunt, special master assigned last year to hear testimony in a suit brought by the Western Pacific Railroad against the Southern Pacific. The special master's report advocated a permanent injunction because the latter road had not applied to the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to construct the track.

Senator Heeds Indians "Kick"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—Stating he believes Supt Arnold of the Klamath Indian reservation in Oregon has "outlived his usefulness" Chairman Frazier of the Senate Indian Affairs Committee, said today he will call the attention of the Indian Bureau to complaints filed with the committee against the superintendent by the "business committee" of the tribe.

The complaints asserted reservation officers are not sympathetic, will not co-operate; permit "extravagant use of funds;" discriminate against the Indians in employment of labor; "misrepresent conditions to Congress;" "deceive Congress in respect to operation of the irrigation project" and expend tribal funds for benefit of individual Indians.

NAVAL SHIFT REPORTED

SHANGHAI, Jan. 31. (AP)—It was unofficially reported today that the U.S.S. Pittsburgh, flagship of the American Asiatic Fleet, now en route to Manila, is to be replaced by the new cruiser Houston. The Pittsburgh has been recalled to the United States.

Girl Detained in Murder Case

OAKLAND, Jan. 31. (AP)—New mystery was added today to the slaying of Nick Tralla, Livermore cafe owner, and an attack on his companion, Miss Ella Hibbs, by a negro near Pleasanton two weeks ago, when the girl was removed from Highland Hospital to the Alameda County Jail and booked as a material witness.

Deputy Sheriffs Jack Collier and J. L. Davis, who took Miss Hibbs to the scene of the slaying and attack last night, declared the girl's story is still "a little vague" and that she will be held until certain details can be checked up. No charge was placed against Miss Hibbs, who was quoted by the officers as not objecting to their action.

Gideons Convene in Santa Monica

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 31. — National and State officials were in attendance today at the opening session of the annual State convention of the Gideons, widely known designation of the Christian Commercial Travelers' Association, at the Miramar Hotel, this city. Tomorrow will be devoted to a business session and election of officers. In the evening a banquet will include as honored guests all pastors of this district.

Mayor Mitchel of Santa Monica will welcome the delegates, and G. P. Duffield of Pasadena, State president of the Gideons, will respond. On Sunday fourteen local churches will hear officials of the organization, and an effort will be made to raise $1000 for placing Bibles in all hotels in the bay district.

MISSING GIRL FOUND

SIMI, Jan. 31.—Winnie Garry, 16 years of age, who police reported had been kidnaped from her home in San Diego county several months ago, has been found on a ranch in the Fairfield district near here and returned to her father. According to Constable Wells, the girl left her home with a man who has a young wife living somewhere back east.

PLEA MADE FOR PAROLE OF KELLEY

Brothers and Mother of Mrs. Mellus Sign Petition Sent to Prison Board

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Jan. 31. (AP)—A petition containing 42,500 signatures and requesting favorable consideration of the application of Leo (Pat) Kelley for parole, was received here today by Mark Noon, secretary to the State Board of Prison Directors.

Among the names on the petition were those of Clark B. Lewis and George M. Lewis, brothers of Mrs. Myrtle Lewis Mellus, for whose slaying Kelley was convicted, and Mrs. T. J. J. Cleveland, mother of the slain Los Angeles society matron.

Favorable consideration is asked on the ground that Kelley had an unfair trial and has suffered a great injustice.

Kelley was saved from the gallows last November when the Supreme Court ordered the Superior Court which tried him in Los Angeles to change its verdict of first-degree murder to manslaughter because of lack of motive for the crime. Kelley spent thirteen months in condemned row. The time served was credited to his sentence of one to ten years for manslaughter, making him immediately eligible to parole.

Secretary Noon said Kelley's application will probably come before the commission within the next thirty days. It will not come before the board meeting tomorrow, he said, as the session will be devoted to cleaning up the December calendar. Kelley's application is well down on the January calendar. Both the application and petition will be considered when his name is reached, Noon said.

DOCTOR IN CUSTODY ON WAY HERE

Los Angeles Man Taken in Santa Barbara on Charge of Southland Frauds

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Dr. Alfred Gersabeck of 2028 Gower street, Los Angeles, arrested by local police on information from the State Board of Medical Examiners charging him with fraudulent practice, was returned to Los Angeles by Albert Carter, State examiner, tonight.

According to Carter, the doctor is wanted for asserted illegal practices in Santa Ana, Riverside, Turlock, Alhambra and San Diego. He is accused of announcing plans for the establishment of a sanatorium, raising money for the project and then vanishing, Carter said.

Gersabeck came to Santa Barbara several weeks ago with plans to establish a "restatorium" in Mission Canyon. He received permission of the County Planning Commission to operate such an establishment.

Shortly after police arrested Gersabeck Carter appeared in the station, but, as no report of the arrest had been made, he returned to Los Angeles, only to be called back.

Divorce of Radio Man Set Aside

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Mrs. Louise E. Reilly testified in the court of Superior Judge Graham she went to Los Angeles as her husband suggested and took an apartment at 248 South Lake street. He was to send for her. Instead he disappeared and she learned he had obtained a divorce June 13, 1929.

One night in Los Angeles she heard a familiar voice on the radio. Investigation disclosed it belonged to William E. Reilly, known to radio fans as Announcer Billy Sherwood of a Seattle station.

Mrs. Reilly told all this to Judge Graham last week. Today he ordered Reilly's decree set aside on the ground his wife had not been properly served with documents in the case.

Girl Fatally Shot by Boy Neighbor

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Jan. 31. (AP) Margaret Pennington, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Pennington of Santa Margarita, near here, died at the Atascadero Hospital today from a gunshot wound, authorities say was inflicted by James Ashton, 11, a neighbor boy.

Dist.-Atty. H. J. Dubin, after questioning the boy, said he had admitted placing a powerful rifle on an upstairs window sill in the Santa Margarita Hotel, next door to the Pennington home, and shooting through a dining-room window as the Pennington family was seated at dinner. The boy could give no motive for his action, being afraid only that his father would whip him. He is being held at the detention home.

TEXAS WOMAN HELD ON GASOLINE FRAUD

TUCSON (Ariz.) Jan. 31. (AP)—Because she purchased fourteen gallons of gasoline from W. C. Schock here and left without paying, saying that she had left her purse at home and would go after it, Mrs. L. A. Jones, alias Inez Oliver of Amarillo, Tex., was arrested as she drove into Casa Grande. She is charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses.

"UNLOADED" RIFLE WOUNDS

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 31. (AP)—Blanchard Hayworth, 15 years of age, was wounded in the abdomen today when an "unloaded" .22-caliber rifle in the hands of his companion, Carl Vogt, Jr., 16, was accidentally discharged. The wounded youth is near death.

El Nuevo Jefe del Gobierno Español Tiene sus Manías

MADRID, Enero 31.—Damaso Berenguer, el nuevo primer ministro español, tiene dos recreos predilectos, la equitación y la música.

Uno de sus primeros actos, cuando fue nombrado jefe de la casa militar del Rey, puesto al que ha renunciado para tomar el de jefe del gobierno, fue reorganizar la banda real. Esta no usaba antes más que instrumentos de viento; pero el general Berenguer convenció al Rey de que sus ideas eran mucho mejores, y dotó a ese cuerpo musical de muchos instrumentos de cuerda.

WASHINGTON, Enero 31.—Ha confirmado hoy el senado la designación de Alexander P. Moore, de Pensilvania, para embajador en Polonia. Ha confirmado asimismo los nombramientos de Fred Morris Dearing, de Misuri, para embajador en el Perú, y de Edward E. Brodie, de Oregon, para ministro en Finlandia.

Se Canta una Canción Patriótica Ante una Comisión de la Cámara

WASHINGTON, Enero 31.—Las emocionantes notas del himno "Star Spangled Banner," cantado por dos sopranos, resonaron hoy en la sala de la comisión Judicial de la cámara, y repercutieron por los largos corredores del edificio de oficinas para diputados. Esta manifestación musical fue organizada por un grupo de sociedades patrióticas, que se dirigió en masa al capitolio para encarecer al congreso la adopción, como himno nacional de los Estados Unidos, del ya tan famoso canto de Francis Scott Key.

Si bien es cierto que esa canción, inspirada por la tenaz defensa del Fuerte de McHenry, en Baltimore, contra la flota británica, en 1812, es considerada por todo el público como el himno oficial, al que todo el mundo rinde honores de tal, el congreso nunca lo ha declarado formalmente así.

El esfuerzo de las agrupaciones patrióticas tiende a conseguir esa declaración oficial, mediante la aprobación del proyecto de ley de Linthicum. Desde hace años, el diputado Linthicum, de Maryland, ha abogado porque se vote su proyecto de ley; pero hasta la fecha no lo ha logrado.

Suben las Aguas del Mar de Salton

NILAND, Enero 31.—El gran sumidero del mar de Salton, ese lago salobre y sin desagüe del Valle Imperial, continúa subiendo de nivel; pero la cosa no ha provocado alarma entre los residentes de ese condado. En 1923, la superficie del agua estaba allí a 251 pies bajo el nivel del mar, al paso que en los últimos doce meses ha alcanzado un promedio de 246 pies. El avenamiento de las aguas de riego del Río Colorado va a hacer subir ese nivel, según se calcula, a unos 232 pies bajo el nivel del mar.

Ese gran vaso de agua estancada no tiene más pérdidas que las producidas por la evaporación, y los habitantes del Valle Imperial creen que en el curso de los próximos diez años el alza de cota de la superficie del agua producirá la inundación de unos 2000 acres de tierras cultivadas y de varios miles de acres de tierras áridas, destinadas por el gobierno para área de drenaje.

Desaparece una Máquina Medidora de Papel del Gobierno

NUEVA YORK, Enero 31.—Una máquina valiosísima para el gobierno de los Estados Unidos, pero inútil para el ladrón que se la robó, ha sido objeto de activas pesquisas por parte de la policía.

Trátase de un calibrador de Schopper para papel, único que hay en el país, y propiedad de la Oficina Federal de Pesas y Medidas, que la emplea para medir todo el papel que se usa para billetes, lo mismo que cuanto papel usan en la imprenta federal.

La máquina desapareció del auto de H. C. Schniewind, representante del inventor Louis Schopper, que se la había pedido prestada al gobierno para hacer pruebas con el papel de una fábrica de Maine. Schniewind había apartado su coche para ir a comer.

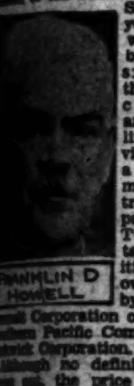
STAGE SYSTEM ADDS NEW LINK

Pacific Transportation Gets Motor Transit Control

Merger Reported to Involve $3,000,000 Aggregate

Details of Deal Announced by Company Officials



Control of the stage lines operated by the Motor Transit Company passed to the Pacific Transportation Securities, Inc., yesterday, it was announced by T. B. Wilson, president of the securities corporation, and by Franklin D. Howell, vice-president and general manager of the transit company. Pacific Transportation Securities, Inc., is owned jointly by the Motor Transit Corporation of Chicago, the Southern Pacific Company and the Pickwick Corporation.

Although no definite figure was given out, the price was reported to be approximately $3,000,000. The Motor Transit Company operates stage lines over several hundred miles of routes through Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties.

ANOTHER LINK ADDED

The consolidation adds another large link to the nation-wide stage system represented by the Pacific Transportation Securities, Inc., the holding company in the Pacific Coast territory for Pickwick Stages, California Transit, Southern Pacific Motor Transport Company and several affiliated motor coach lines.

Vice-President Howell said yesterday that his company will be operated independently and under its own name, as in the past, but that the consolidation will permit large economies in overhead, do away with the duplication of mileage and depot facilities and offer a greater spread of service and harmonious operation between heretofore rival companies.

The Motor Transit Company is the largest operator of interurban service in the country. During 1929, according to officers of the company, more than 3,500,000 passengers were carried and a total of 980 motor coaches enter and leave its Los Angeles terminal daily.

BENEFITS SET FORTH

"Acquisition of control of the Motor Transit Company by the Pacific Transportation Securities, Inc., will permit many operating economies and result in greatly improved service to the traveling public," Mr. Wilson said.

Under the terms of the merger completed yesterday, T. B. Wilson becomes president of the Motor Transit Company and D. W. Pontius chairman of the board of directors. Other directors include Charles F. Wren and Frank Kart. O. E. Fuller, former president and principal owner of the Motor Transit Company, also continues his connection as a director of the Motor Transit Company. Mr. Howell was included in the new organization and will continue in direct charge as manager.

Opposition to City Engineer Pay Cut Voiced

Any attempt to reduce the present salary of the City Engineer will create an impression that Los Angeles has ceased to grow and is retrogressing, the Los Angeles Municipal Engineers' Association declares in a resolution protesting the proposed reduction and announced for publication yesterday. The resolution is directed against Councilman Lewis's proposal that the City Engineer's annual salary be cut from $10,000 to $7200.

It is generally recognized, the resolution sets forth, that the payment of low salaries to highly trained technical personnel is extravagant and productive of inefficiency and increased cost. The association not only protests the proposed reduction but urges that the salary be increased to $15,000.

LEAGUERS TOLD NEED OF SERVICE

National Vice-President of Junior Organization Addresses Members Here

Admitting that happiness is the goal of life but declaring that the rose of joy blooms only on the path of usefulness, Mrs. Allmand Blow, national vice-president of the National Association of Junior Leagues of America, in an address to 150 members of the Los Angeles Junior League at the Town House yesterday, pleaded for less stress on the social side of their organization and more time for those in need of sympathy and assistance.

"Let me assure you that I am not one of those who consider innocent pleasure either sinful or wasteful," said Mrs. Blow. "However, we would do well to remember that without work, service, duty, if you please, true happiness is unattainable."

Mrs. Blow congratulated the local Junior League on its maintenance of the Los Angeles Home for Convalescent Children, where more than 236 orphan and crippled children have been treated and housed since 1925.

Mrs. Blow, who lives at Tulsa, Okla., and who is the daughter of Charles S. Deneen, United States Senator from Illinois, is a guest at the home of Mrs. L. L. Brundred of Pasadena.

The National Association of Junior Leagues of America, composed of 110 leagues with an aggregate membership of 20,000 women between 18 and 40 years of age, was organized for the training of its members in civic and social welfare. Funds for charitable purposes are raised by the local league by an annual horse show at Flintridge Riding Club and through the Gift Shop at 3111 West Sixth street.

Bromley to Start for Texas Today

Lieut. Harold Bromley will take off today for El Paso, Tex., to continue flying transport Lockheeds between there and Mexico City, while engineers at the Lockheed Burbank factory complete the low-winged monoplane in which he will attempt to span the Pacific in a nonstop flight this spring.

It will be sixty days before his Sirius ship, with a gasoline capacity of 750 gallons, comes out of the factory. Bromley will conduct extensive tests on it before hopping from Tacoma, Wash., with Tokio as the next stop. This will constitute his third attempt to be the first man to fly alone to the Orient.

The dance is being sponsored by the Alhambra Council. Grand Knight William C. Wolf will be the official host. An elaborate entertainment program is being prepared.

GOOD HIGHWAYS GROUP FORMED

Chamber Sponsors Southland Counties Organization

Propose to Fight for Full Fund Apportionment

Hundred Attend Preliminary Get-Together Meeting

Hailed as one of the most constructive movements ever sponsored for the unity of the Southland and to overcome misunderstandings with the north, the Southern California Good Roads Association was organized yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce.

Sponsored by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, the organization was strongly indorsed by some 100 representatives of four counties at the meeting and it was proposed that all thirteen Southern California counties be asked to participate, after which the association will be made permanent. Horace Miller, director of the local chamber and chairman of the transportation and highways committee, was elected president of the temporary organization.

Representatives of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties heard Watt Moreland, chairman of the meeting, outline the purpose of the organization.

LACK OF UNITY

E. E. East, chief engineer of the Automobile Club of Southern California, brought an approving response from the county delegates when he pointed to the lack of unity in the Southland as the prime reason for this section receiving only one-third of the State highway development.

"If there was ever a need of unity among the thirteen Southern California counties for a study of the highway situation, there is a need now," said East, "not only to promote the building of highways but to bring about a study of proposed road developments that will show whether new proposals are for the best interests of all communities concerned. The present proposal for a new speed highway to San Francisco, is an example of these problems.

"With the entire thirteen counties representing a solid organized front in the interests of highway development, I believe we would have an organization that would receive recognition from the north and find them willing to aid us in our development of roads," he said.

A. E. Isham of the Redlands chamber, principal spokesman for Riverside county, pointed to the large attendance at the meeting as indicative of the interest in a unified Southern California highway program.

"Heretofore, the communities of the south have each gone their own way in determining the roads wanted from the State highway department, thus placing obstacles in the way of the State proceeding with an orderly program," said Isham.

OTHER SPEAKERS

A. T. Richards of Pomona Chamber of Commerce; W. C. Jerome, Orange county official and president of the Santa Ana chamber; T. H. Mahnke, president of the Blythe Chamber of Commerce, and Carl McStay, secretary-manager of the Automobile Club, were among others who spoke in favor of the organization and urged its inclusion of all of the thirteen southern counties.

Explaining why the invitations to the meeting had been sent only to representatives of the four counties mentioned, Chairman Moreland said that the Los Angeles chamber was without facility to conduct so large a meeting and believed that the move should be started with a smaller and less unwieldy group.

The meeting was opened by President Austin of the Los Angeles chamber, who spoke of benefits from related highway programs that will serve as an added means of tying communities together for a closer understanding of each other's problems. H. R. Brashear, traffic manager of the Los Angeles chamber, who was elected secretary of the organization, said that a meeting for other Southern California counties will be called later.

County delegations elected their representatives in the association. The Los Angeles county representation will be Ray Baldwin, Long Beach, vice-president and a member of the executive board; Hugh Thatcher, Pomona; J. M. Kemmerer, Whittier, and Watt Moreland, Burbank. Orange county: W. C. Jerome, vice-president and member of executive committee; Tom B. Talbert, Huntington Beach; Ralph J. McFadden, Placentia, and O. E. Gunther, Orange. Riverside and San Bernardino county representations were not designated.

T.A.T. WILL CENTER HERE

Complete Reorganization of System Announced; Weather Hazards to be Conquered

Complete reorganization of Transcontinental Air Transport-Maddux Air Lines; establishment of the company's national offices in Los Angeles and immediate steps to maintain constant radio communication between pilots and ground weather stations was announced here last night by J. L. Maddux, new president of the system, on his return from New York.

"We have flown our transports 2,000,000 miles, carrying over that enormous distance more than 100,000 passengers with the exceptionally low fatality rate of one person out of 10,000—and in the few instances of crashes the cause invariably has been bad weather," Maddux declared.

ELIMINATING HAZARDS

"It is to completely eliminate this that we are rushing installation of radio receiving and sending sets on all our transport planes, regardless of whether they fly on the transcontinental line or on short hops.

"Every pilot will be guided from now on completely by ground weather observation stations. No pilot will be empowered to try to get through where weather conditions are unsafe for flying. His navigating will depend on conditions reported directly to him constantly while he has a ship in the air."

Maddux was elected to the presidency of the transport system in New York early in the week. He succeeds C. M. Keys, who will continue to serve as chairman of the board of directors.

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who, with Mrs. Lindbergh, is a guest at the Maddux home here, was re-elected to serve as chairman of the technical committee.

FULL STATEMENTS SOON

Through Maddux's preliminary statement, to be augmented within the next few days by a detailed reorganization report, it was indicated that the installation plan for the radio communication safeguards and new operating rules will fall on Col. Lindbergh's shoulders, while its execution is expected to be vested in D. W. Tomlinson, vice-president in charge of operations.

The present national offices of the T.A.T.-Maddux system are in St. Louis, Mo., but will be moved here immediately, Maddux stated, thus making Los Angeles the headquarters for one of the most extensive air-rail transport organizations in the world.

Maddux stated that he has not completed his plans for reorganization, but indicated that changes will affect practically every department of the system. These would include personnel, operation and other divisions of the system's national network.

SAME TYPE OF PLANES

No changes, however, are contemplated in the present type of transport planes—all-metal Ford monoplanes, capable of carrying fourteen passengers and two pilots

LARGE RISE IN EXPORTS DISCLOSED

Value for This January in Southern Area Placed at $14,500,000

Exports from the ports of the Southern District of California have shown a marked increase, it was indicated yesterday by a report of Collector of Customs Schwaebe. The value of exports for January, this year, was $14,500,000, compared to $10,854,941 for the same month of 1929, an increase of $3,645,059. Imports showed a decrease. For January, this year, the value of imports was $3,900,000, compared to $4,603,849 for the same period of last year.

Shipments to Hawaii were valued at $660,000 for January of this year, compared to $504,549 for the same period last year.

Postoffice receipts for January of this year showed a substantial increase, according to a report of Postmaster O'Brien. The report shows that the postoffice receipts have increased 7.21 per cent for January, this year, compared to January of last year. The receipts for the month of January, 1930, were $945,967.72, compared to $882,350.27 for the same month in 1929, an increase of $63,117.45.

Hollywood Man Will Supervise City Recreation

Glen O. Grant, executive secretary and director of recreation for the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Hollywood for the last seven years, yesterday was chosen by the Playground and Recreation Commission to fill the new position of supervisor of community recreation created by that body a week ago. Grant takes office today at a salary of $3600 a year.

The position was created at the same time that Raymond E. Hoyt, construction and maintenance superintendent, was promoted to superintendent of the playground department at a salary of $6000 a year, $1500 a year less than that received by Supt. Hjelte.

DATE SET FOR AUTO SHOW

Shrine Auditorium Engaged to Display New Models of Motor Industry's Progressive Leaders

Harold W. Tuttle, chairman of the show committee of the Los Angeles Motor Car Dealers' Association, announced yesterday that the Eighteenth Auto Show presented by that group will be held this year from February 22 to March 2, inclusive, at the Shrine Auditorium.

Twenty-five local dealer organizations have taken display space in the show and will present an array of thirty-two different makes of automobiles and 300 various models. Ten commercial car dealers will show as many lines of their vehicles, while accessory group exhibits will number more than fifty.

With more completely new cars for 1930 than have been shown during the past five years, local interest in the show is expected to disclose decisive attendance increases. The progressiveness of the automotive industry is seen in the introduction of a sixteen-cylinder car, a car with a front drive and many new eight-cylinder cars in the moderate-price field, with both V-type and straight-eight engines.

Chairman Tuttle promises that the decorative scheme this year, to be of modernistic type, will be more elaborate and colorful than any in the past. Decorators will launch their tasks within a few days, and when the show opens the banquet hall, the stage of the auditorium and the lower and mezzanine floors will be arrayed in a manner showing the latest in decorative arts.

COUNCIL HAS ECONOMY STREAK

Reduces Own Auto Fleet to Three, With Chauffeur for Each, Instead of Seven, But Curtailment Move Allows President to Keep His Official Turnout

The members of the City Council yesterday afternoon conducted a pow-wow over the use of the Council automobiles and in the interests of the downtrodden taxpayer made some changes which are described as "economies."

The members reduced the number of their cars to three, with three chauffeurs, but this reduction does not apply to Council President Sanborn. He will continue to have his own special automobile, chauffeur at $140 a month, investigator at $200, and secretary at $175.

The Council heretofore has had seven machines, including Sanborn's, and a rattletrap affair that no one wanted to use. The Council budget shows twelve chauffeurs, at $140-$150-$160, and a chauffeur-machinist at $170.

It is understood that Councilman Lewis, who does not drive, Councilman McAllister, who is the eldest member and sometimes ailing, and Councilman Ingram are prepared to commandeer the three machines. Councilman Williams says he will walk.

The other ten will drive their own machines, on an expense account. This account will permit of considerable travel, as its limit is $85 per month. The budget for the Council allows for the year $3000 for gasoline and oil and $7000 for auto repairs and supplies. The Council also is allowed $300 for "water and ice" and $1000 for "entertainment."

The members of the Council are paid $400 a month, while their secretaries, one for each member, receive $175 per month.

Councilman Lewis, during the session, proposed that the cars be locked up. "Let's try walking for a while," he said.

His suggestion immediately was frowned upon.

KEYES LOSES LONG FIGHT ON BRIBERY CONVICTION

Former Los Angeles Prosecutor's Sentence Affirmed on Appeal; Rosenberg Also Beaten

"Judgment and order affirmed."

These four words tacked to the end of a nineteen-page opinion written by Presiding Justice Works, of the Appellate Court, probably spell one to fourteen years in San Quentin Penitentiary for Asa Keyes, former District Attorney, and Ed H. Rosenberg, both convicted of bribery conspiracy.

Between the two men and the State penitentiary now stands only a petition for a rehearing before the District Court of Appeal, which, if denied, may be followed by a petition to the Supreme Court of the State asking a hearing. Thirty days in all is the time fixed by law for the various petitions and following opinions.

"I expect to stay right here just as long as I can to carry out the fight for my freedom."

Thus did Keyes, the man who for more than five years was District Attorney of Los Angeles county and then was convicted of selling his office for gold, comment on the denial of his appeal by Presiding Justice Works and Justices Craig and Thompson.

PETITION PLANNED

"My attorney will take the necessary legal steps to carry the matters to higher courts," was the brief statement forthcoming from Rosenberg, when notified the denial of the appeal.

And from Paul W. Schenck and Milton Cohen, counsel for Keyes, together with Le Compte Davis, attorney for Rosenberg, came official notice that a petition for a rehearing will be filed with the Appellate Court within ten days and that in case of failure there the matter will be carried to the Supreme Court.

According to the group of defense lawyers the petition for a rehearing before the District Court of Appeal, Second District, Division Two, must be filed within ten days and then five additional days are allowed for an answer. Then in case of a denial an appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court and a period of seven days is fixed for this action. The Supreme Court appeal is taken from the denial of the Appellate Court of the original petition for a rehearing. In all a period of thirty days from the time of the original denial by the Appellate Court is allowed under law.

FITTS'S STATEMENT

From Dist.-Atty. Fitts when advised that the higher court had affirmed the judgement and conviction came only a brief statement.

"The Attorney-General of California appointed Robert P. Stewart, William J. Clark and myself as special prosecutors. This appointment was made after a number of indictments had been returned by the grand jury. We presented the facts, as they were placed before us and as our investigators developed them, as fully and fairly as possible to the trial jury. That jury acted solely on the facts, and the Appellate Court has seen fit to affirm the rulings of the trial judge.

"I most certainly have no comment to make other than that we did our duty, as our oaths called us to do, as fairly as we could."

Keyes was convicted of bribery on a charge growing out of the Julian fraud cases when it was established that through Ben Getzoff, a Spring-street tailor, he had accepted bribes from Rosenberg, Getzoff and Jacob Berman to "throw" the prosecution of the men who brought about the crash of the Julian Petroleum Corporation.

During the course of the trial Keyes admitted receiving various gifts from Rosenberg, Getzoff and Berman, but denied that he had been paid any money or had done anything but prosecute the Julian group with all the vigor at his command.

LONG DECISION

On the last day of the ninety-day period provided by law in which to decide an appeal the District Court of Appeal, Second Appellate District, Division Two, rendered the decision written by Presiding Justice Works and concurred in by Justices Craig and Thompson. It came at about 3 p.m.

The opinion, covering nineteen pages in dry legal verbiage, goes into the law of the case which branded Keyes as the receiver of a bribe and Ed H. Rosenberg and Ben Getzoff as givers of the same and falls into fourteen separate divisions.

For a little more than two full pages the opinion describes the indictment and nature of the conspiracy charged together with the ten overt acts set up in the document.

"The ten separate references to the single conspiracy," is the man-

BIFFLE PERJURY CASE DISMISSED

Two Trials Fail to Convict Pantages Witness

Jury Reported Ten to Two for Acquittal

Told of Pringle Girl Threat Against Theater Man

A charge of perjury against Garland Biffle, Alhambra law book salesman, in connection with his testimony last October at the trial of Alexander Pantages, was dismissed yesterday by Superior Judge McComb on recommendation of Dep. Dist.-Atty. Frampton, who told the court there appeared to be no chance of obtaining a conviction.

Biffle was tried twice on the charge, the jury in each case failing to reach an agreement after long deliberation. At the more recent trial it was reported the jurors were divided ten to two for acquittal.

Biffle was asserted to have testified falsely at the Pantages trial that he saw Eunice Pringle, dancer, and Nicholas Dunaev, playwright, together in the lobby of the Pantages Building in the afternoon of August 9, date of the asserted attack on Miss Pringle by Pantages.

The law book salesman testified he heard Miss Pringle say, "Pantages will be sorry if he doesn't place me this time," and Dunaev reply, "Don't get cold feet." Biffle's testimony was presented at Pantages's trial in support of the theater magnate's defense claim that he had been "framed." Biffle was arrested immediately after leaving the stand at the Pantages hearing.

Miss Pringle asserted she entered the lobby of the Pantages Building alone on the afternoon of August 9, while Dunaev declared he left the dancer at Seventh and Hill streets and spent the greater part of the afternoon in the office of Theodore Gottsdanker, an attorney and friend of the playwright.

At his two trials Biffle repeated the questioned testimony. He was partly corroborated by his wife, who said, however, that she did not overhear the asserted conversation described by Biffle.

Fear Felt Trio of Tourists Has Had Accident

Fear that an accident may have befallen Oll L. Anderson, 65 years of age, his wife, Mrs. Margaret Anderson, 61, and a sister of Mr. Anderson, last heard of a week ago while en route here by automobile from Colorado Springs, was voiced yesterday in a report to the Sheriff's office by W. L. Nunes, supervising inspector of the city health department.

Nunes stated that the three, his uncle and aunts, left Colorado Springs January 23 for Los Angeles, promising to write daily regarding their progress. A card dated last Saturday at Albuquerque stating that the party planned leaving there the following morning was the last heard of them, he reported. The investigation was turned over to Deputy Sheriff Davidson of the homicide detail.

JUDGE NORTON NAMED FOR APPEAL BENCH

Announcement of the appointment of Judge Thomas A. Norton of San Luis Obispo to the District Court of Appeal, Division Two, was made yesterday by Presiding Justice Works. The appointment is for an indefinite period, said Justice Works. Judge Norton will be in Los Angeles on March 1.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

IT IS very difficult for the lay mind to fathom the motives of Lieut. Bird, the provost marshal of the cavalry post at Monterey.

At a time when public sentiment is being inflamed against the Filipinos this distinguished warrior gives out a story to the newspapers that he has posted guards to prevent these little boys from burning down the military post and seizing the rifles, and presumably the Coast Guard cannon.

It is reassuring to know that at a time of public danger this country will have the benefit of a cool, masterly mind like that of Lieut. Bird of the Eleventh Cavalry.

KEEP THE KEY

In view of the terrible peril to the rifle racks at Monterey, it is to be hoped that Lieut. Bird has taken precautions to see that what happened at Columbus, N. M., during the Pancho Villa raids does not happen at Monterey. On that occasion they couldn't find the army officer who had the key—so they had to helplessly wag their fingers at Villa's raiders.

PROBLEM SOLVED

The San Francisco courts have also solved the Filipino problem in a brilliant manner. Two Filipinos having been attacked by a mob for walking down the street with white girls, the San Francisco police arrested the Filipinos, who were given suspended sentences by a Police Court. It is not clear whether for walking with white girls or being clubbed.

THE FILIPINOS

I don't hold any brief for Filipinos. Generally speaking, they are silly, injudicious, stupid little half-baked boys.

They are crazy about blonds. And the blonds are not all reluctant. If you happen around the Filipino quarter on pay day you will at once perceive that the Filipinos do not have to exercise the wiles of Don Juan to attract white girls. Among these little tramps it is discovered with great glee that what they call Goo-Goos are separated from their pay checks with ease.

CREASED PANTS

What does not go into entertainment funds for blonds the Filipino spends for creased pants and tony clothes.

The measure of the average Filipino is shown in one of my own observations in Central California. Several of them were given refuge in an unused building belonging to one of the missions. The padre made them an early morning call and found them eating their breakfast. Their breakfast consisted of cake and coffee. They are literally cake eaters.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

Nevertheless, they are here. They certainly did not ask to be made a part of the United States. They were dragged in by the heels. And now that we have them it is up to us to protect them.

RED PLOTS

Aside from this moral responsibility there is another grave and important reason. The position of the United States—and all white nations—in the Orient is like carrying a basket of rotten

PANTAGES'S PLEA SPEEDED

Theater Man's Attorneys Launch Two Moves to Obtain Release at Once from County Jail

An attempt to gain a speedy hearing before the Court of Appeal of the application for Alexander Pantages's removal from the County Jail was well under way today in an effort by the millionaire theater man to obtain a reversal of the Superior Court's denial of the move Thursday, last.

The application to the higher court will be in the form of both a writ of habeas corpus and an original writ of application, it was stated last night by Le Compte Davis, counsel for Pantages.

Transcript of the testimony and affidavits made by physicians in two Superior Court hearings which ended in denials will be submitted to the Court of Appeal.

The affidavit of Dr. E. C. Fishbaugh, which drew criticism from the court at Thursday's decision, will be submitted to the higher court without change, Davis declared.

He said that the Pantages's physician's report is not contradictory in itself, as pointed out by the court, but that it gives the version of Pantages's condition as told by himself to Dr. Fishbaugh and the report on the physician's own examination.

The writs are expected to be placed before the Court of Appeal not later than next Tuesday, Davis stated.

It was pointed out that because a decision was returned on the first application December 27, 1929, the higher court's action will be speeded up in deciding whether further incarceration will permanently impair the health of Pantages.

APPEAL BATTLE LOST BY KEYES

Court Refuses Reversal of Bribery Conviction

Only Thirty Days Remain for His Final Plea

ner in which the overt acts are described in the decision.

And with the indictment out of the way the Appellate Court goes on to take up the various major points declared by attorneys for the two defendants to be error.

"Appellants contend that the pleading is duplicitous," reads the decision and then goes on to discuss the matter, ending with, "the pleading will bear no such construction."

LEGAL POINTS

"Appellants also make the point that the indictment is insufficient because both the prospective givers and the prospective takers cannot in the very essence of things conspire to 'give and offer' the bribe, and that also, both the would-be givers and would-be takers cannot conspire to ask, receive and agree to receive it, but," continues the court, "as the indictment before us makes no charge of separate conspiracies to do, respectively, these things, but a charge of single conspiracy to do both sets of them, both points fall to the ground."

Then the opinion goes on to recite, "It is insisted that a charge of conspiracy cannot grow out of facts exhibited in the indictment."

"We conclude," remarks the court, "that the indictment is not subject to the assault which appellants make upon it.

"We can see no substantial reason, upon any other ground, why it was not proper to cast the indictment in the form in which it rests. In effect, it charges Appellant Keyes with receiving and Appellant Rosenberg with giving a bribe. In the history of jurisprudence the time is come when courts are paying less and less attention, under a more enlightened system of legislation than that which has prevailed in former times, to technical rules of pleading which are invoked for the purpose of staying the administration of justice. No matter what the particular form in which the indictment against Appellants is framed, its presents in sufficient substance the facts constituting a charge of giving and receiving a bribe.

ERRORS DENIED

On down through the lengthy opinion the Appellate Court then holds that the introduction of a letter written by former Chief Deputy District Attorney Davis to Keyes charging that the prosecution of the Julian fraud cases was being insincerely conducted was not error as asserted by the defense. Nor in the following was error found:

Matters relative to testimony regarding the asserted wealth or lack of wealth of Ben Getzoff.

The refusal of the District Attorney to produce a written statement obtained from Jacob Berman.

Five questions propounded to Berman relative to his motives for turning State's witness in the Keyes trial asked on cross-examination and objected to and not allowed.

More matters relative to the cross-examination of Berman.

In this connection the Appellate Court declared in rather a pointed manner: "This portion of the brief is headed 'Errors in connection with rulings during cross-examination of Mr. Berman to questions which sought to show his flight,' but with headings and text together we are unable to determine what questions of law counsel seek to present. There is neither argument nor citation of authority. In addition to these omissions, some of the questions included in the text of the brief are unintelligible, standing as they do. There is a failure to show us that there was error in sustaining the objection to any of these questions. We therefore say there was none."

MISCONDUCT NOT FOUND

No error resulted from the conduct of the prosecuting attorneys, the opinion goes on to say, in commenting on asserted misconduct of some of the trial lawyers.

A general review of various witnesses' testimony failed, according to the decision, to show error asserted in the appeal.

Misconduct amounting to error on the part of the prosecuting counsel in final arguments asserted in Keyes's appeal could not be found by the Appellate Court.

"Appellants insist," remarked the higher court near the end of the opinion, "that the District Attorney was guilty of misconduct during the final arguments of the case before the jury. Some of the language employed by him was intemperate, there is no question, but we doubt whether it was sufficiently strong to be characterized as misconduct. If, however, it was misconduct, we think it was cured by the admonition which the trial judge addressed to the jury concerning it."

The evidence itself, asserted by Rosenberg's attorneys to be insufficient to connect Getzoff and Berman with the charge of conspiracy, was sufficient, according to the opinion.

"We think there was ample evidence to show the connection of Berman and Getzoff with the conspiracy," was the comment.

And then just before the final four words which sweep away Keyes's best chance for freedom comes:

"Appellants make one or two other points which we think are not worthy of a specific consideration."

FIGHT PLANNED

So with the appeal denied and just two more legal moves and thirty days time between him and the gates of San Quentin, Keyes spent last night in conference with his lawyers bent on making his last legal bid for his freedom which began first to be threatened in October, 1928.

Records show that the 1928 grand jury in the late afternoon of October 31 trailed behind Col. Thomas F. Cooke, foreman, into Superior Judge Edmonds's court and returned an indictment against the then District Attorney, charging him with bribery together with Jacob Berman, Ed H. Rosenberg, Jack Rosenberg, Ben and Dave Getzoff, Charles Reimer and A. L. Lasker.

On Novembed 20 the group were arraigned and on January 7, 1929, all but Lasker went on trial before Presiding Judge Butler of Marin county. With the opening of the trial the case of Berman was dismissed with the announcement that he was to be used as a State's witness.

On January 22 the charges against Dave Getzoff, Jack Rosenberg and Charles Reimer were dismissed. The trial ended on February 8, when the jury found Keyes, Ed Rosenberg and Getzoff guilty as charged.

FREEDOM SOUGHT

With the conviction in Superior Court then began a determined effort to obtain the release of both Keyes and Rosenberg on bail pending appeals, but although physicians testified that both men were sick and in some danger of death, other physicians declared from the witness stand that the jail confinement was not dangerous to their health. At any rate they were not released and from the date of their convictions to yesterday have been awaiting the final ruling of the Appellate Court.

Asa Keyes, the records disclose, was born August 9, 1877, at Wilmington, Cal. He was educated in the public schools of Los Angeles county and was graduated from the law school of the University of Southern California.

The convicted man practiced law from 1899 until January 1, 1903, when he entered the District Attorney's office as a deputy. He was associated in many famous cases in Southern California and was appointed Chief Deputy District Attorney in 1922. When Dist.-Atty. Woolwine resigned his office Keyes was appointed to fill the position on June 7, 1923. Te ran for and was elected to the same office in 1924, and was just about to sever his connection with the prosecutor's office and retire to private practice when indicted.

ROSENBERG'S CASE

Ed Rosenberg, a member of a wealthy local Jewish family, was one of the leaders in the operations which surrounded the beginning of the huge overissue of Julian Petroleum Corporation stock which brought about the crash of that company.

Testimony at the Keyes trial and other legal actions disclosed that Rosenberg together with Berman operated in stock which was a part of the overissue and it was after the crash that all of them went to trial charged with fraud. The trial resulted in a verdict of not guilty and then the indictment of Keyes and the others followed.

TRIAL OF BENNETT AND GETZOFF POSTPONED

Trial of Jacob Berman, alias Jack Bennett, known as the bright young man of the Julian Petroleum Corporation, and Ben Getzoff, Spring-street tailor, on a charge of offering a $26,000 bribe to former Dist.-Atty. Keyes while he was in office, was continued yesterday until the 19th inst. by Superior Judge Aggeler. The two defendants were scheduled to go to trial Monday morning before Superior Judge Henderson in Department Twenty-two of Superior Court.

The continuance was requested yesterday by Defense Attorney Otto Christensen, who stated that he will be engaged in other trials Monday. Dist.-Atty. Fitts and Chief Deputy Stewart did not oppose the continuance.

Getzoff was convicted with Keyes of bribery nearly a year ago, but was granted probation. Later he testified against Harold L. Davis, former chief deputy under Keyes, during his trial and conviction on a bribery charge.

SAN QUENTIN OFFICIALS WILL PROTECT KEYES

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Jan. 31. (AP)—Fearing that prisoners convicted during the regime of Asa Keyes as District Attorney of Los Angeles might seek to avenge themselves when the former official arrives to serve a one-to-fourteen-year term for accepting bribes, Warden Holohan announced today every precaution will be taken to safeguard Keyes's life.

"We have not gone into details yet," the warden said, "but Keyes will be kept away from other prisoners. All precautions will be taken to safeguard him from possible reprisals from other prisoners. His life will not be in danger while he is in this prison."

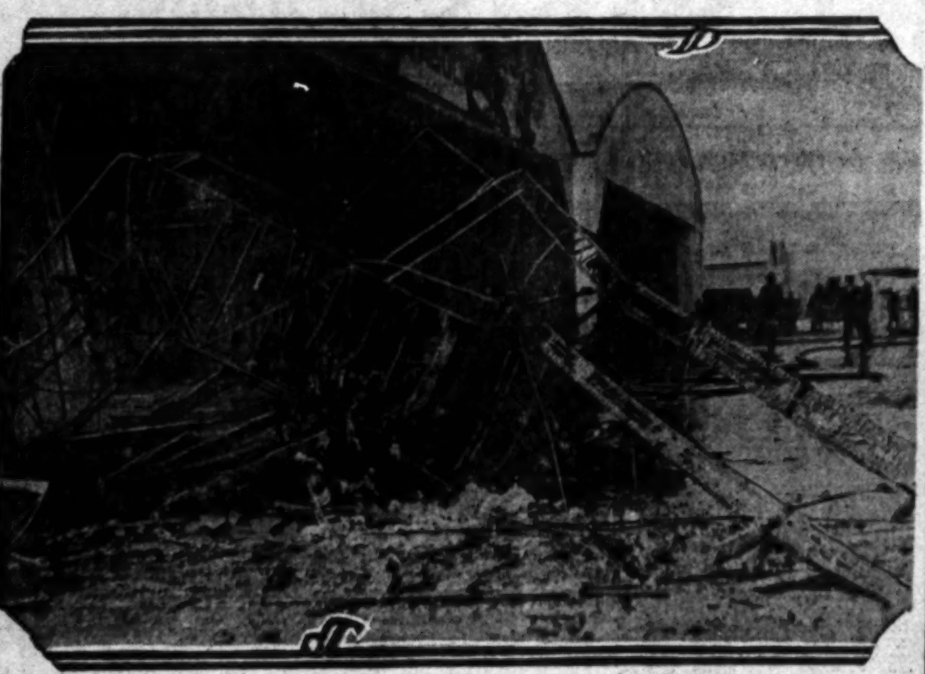
Seabird Comes to Grief in Land Take-off



After the Crash

Wreckage of Corsair plane from aircraft carrier Lexington which veered into hangar at Long Beach municipal airport while taking off yesterday and burst into flames, seriously burning Lieut. Parent, pilot, while Lieut. Hutchinson suffered lesser injuries.

LEXINGTON FLYERS INJURED

Navy Wasp Swerves Into Hangar on Land Take-off; Naval Reserve Pilot May Not Recover

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Jan. 31.—Lieut. J. H. Parent, 35 years of age, Naval Reserve flyer, stationed on the U.S.S. Lexington, was seriously burned, and Lieut. H. B. Hutchinson, 30, Regular Navy flyer, also on the Lexington, suffered minor burns when a Navy plane crashed into a hangar at the municipal airport this morning.

Lieut. Parent, residing at Rockaway Beach, New York, may die from first, second and third-degree burns on the head, face and body, according to attending physicians at Community Hospital. He was piloting the dual-control O2U1 Corsair plane from the carrier Lexington, when it swerved from a take-off, tore a large hole in the front of the Belmont Aircraft Company hangar and dropped back onto the field a blazing wreck. Parent was on a year's duty on the Lexington.

Lieut. Hutchinson, residing at 3717 Livingston Drive, Long Beach, occupied the rear seat in the plane. He suffered first and second-degree burns. Lieut. Hutchinson is a graduate of the Naval Academy. He is married. He was given first aid at the Richfield Emergency Hospital and taken to Community Hospital, where physicians reported he will recover.

Hand fire apparatus kept down the flames, which were burning in Lieut. Parent's clothing, until W. E Putnam, superintendent of the airport, could lift him from the cockpit. Hutchinson was able to loosen his belt and step from the wreck. Witnesses of the crash reported that the plane had left the ground on a take-off with Parent at the controls when it swerved sharply toward the row of civilian hangars on the opposite side from the Naval Reserve base.

A wing of the plane punched a hole in the hangar and swung the motor into the building, smashing a large hole in the front. A Nil P. 20,000 plane was destroyed. A board of inquiry under command of Lieutenant-Commander Maile was convened this afternoon to investigate the crash.

AUTO SHOW SET FOR FEBRUARY

shows are being sent here by the various manufacturers, who are cooperating with the local dealer organizations because of the importance attached to the Los Angeles show and the Southern California territory.

A musical program is being arranged for the entertainment of show visitors. Chairman Tuttle is being assisted by Earle Carpenter, Hamlin Nerney, Gordon Warren and J. M. Sterling, while Burt Roberts, executive secretary of the Los Angeles Motor Car Dealers' Association, will be show manager.

Smoot's Son Arrives on Business Trip

Ernest W. Smoot, son and secretary of Senator Smoot of Utah, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, arrived here yesterday on what he describes as a confidential business mission for his father. He will be in California for about ten days, he said, and will be the guest during that time of his friend Harold S. Anderson. At present he is stopping at the Ambassador but will leave within a few days for Mr. Anderson's home at Hillsborough.

He refused to state the nature of the business which called him here. As to the prospects for a new tariff bill, he said that before his departure his father had expressed the opinion that a bill capable of obtaining a majority in both houses will be ready within the near future.

TWO WOMEN REPORT SEIZING OF PURSES

A purse-snatcher who twice within the last week has accosted women in the Walnut Park district and jerked purses from their hands is being sought by deputy sheriffs. Mrs. Dorothy Hinkey, 2433 Hill street, Walnut Park, reported that a man pinioned her arms from behind, pulled her purse from her hand and escaped in an automobile. The purse contained $11 in cash and two checks totaling $58.50 she said. Mrs. Lee F. Smith, 7139 Seville avenue, Huntington Park, reported the theft of her purse under similar circumstances.

NEW OFFICE FORMS LINK TO MEXICO

Commercial Agency Here for National Railways Announced by Puente

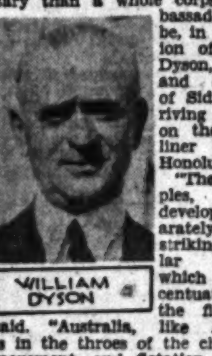
Announcement that National Railways of Mexico are opening a commercial agency in Los Angeles was authorized yesterday by F. N. Puente, general passenger agent, with headquarters in San Francisco. With this closer linking of Los Angeles and Mexico is announced the appointment of Francisco Alatorre as commercial agent in charge of the railway's agency at 815 Pacific Electric Building.

"The importance of Los Angeles and its tributary district as a source of traffic for our country and our railways has long been realized," said Mr. Puente. "Until now, circumstances have prevented our giving your city this proof of deserved recognition. We have taken advantage of the recent successful excursion of your Chamber of Commerce, the interest in Mexican trade and the improved general condition of Mexico to open our Los Angeles office under the brightest auspices.

"Mr. Alatorre, a veteran, active and competent employee of these railways, is exceptionally well posted on the resources and needs of Mexico and its commerce and is very capable of expounding the services of our railways, connections and routes."

National Railways of Mexico include the Interoceanic Railway of Mexico, the Mexican Southern Railway, the Tehuantepec National Railway and the Vera Cruz to Alvarado Railway. Rail ports of entry are El Paso, Eagle Pass, Laredo, Brownsville and Tapachula, and water ports of entry are Manzanillo, Salina Cruz, Puerto Mexico, Vera Cruz and Tampico.

American Films Seen as Linking Nations Closer



WILLIAM DYSON

American films in Australia are a greater trade and good-will emissary than a whole corps of ambassadors could be, in the opinion of William Dyson, humorist and cartoonist of Sidney, arriving yesterday on the Lassco liner City of Honolulu.

"The two peoples, although developing separately, have strikingly similar outlooks which are accentuated by the films," he said. "Australia, like America, is in the throes of the chain-store movement, and flotation of far-reaching mergers."

Mr. Dyson will remain at Hotel Cecil a week before going to New York to sketch for newspapers and magazines before proceeding to his old home in London.

TALK WILL BE GIVEN BY MAKER OF ARROWS

Probably the only man in the world who is an expert as the Indians themselves in arrow-making will give the lecture at the Southwest Museum in Highland Park tomorrow at 3 p.m. is Joseph Barbieri and he is so highly esteemed by the Indians that Chief Thunderbird will be present in full regalia to present him. Dr. George P. Clements of the Chamber of Commerce, another of Mr. Barbieri's admirers, also will be on the platform. The lecture will be illustrated not only with slides but also by the process of arrow-making as practiced by Mr. Barbieri.

RESURRECTIONS TOLD IN COURT

Witness Claims Power to Raise Up Dead

Mrs. Rhoades Testifies for Mrs. Blackburn

Latter on Trial Charged With Grand Theft

A woman who said she had raised the dead on numerous occasions testified yesterday at the trial of May Otis Blackburn, church leader charged with ten counts of grand theft before Superior Judge Fricke.

The resurrections were testified to by Mrs. Martha Rhoades, 1511 1-2 Lincoln Boulevard, Santa Monica, a member of Mrs. Blackburn's followers, who kept the body of her adopted daughter on ice for fourteen months expecting that the girl would return to life. The deceased was finally buried.

"I have raised the dead on five different occasions," asserted Mrs. Mrs. Rhoades from the witness stand. "I have been dead and brought myself back to life; my daughter died once before and I brought her back to life; I can prove it."

HER OWN INITIATIVE

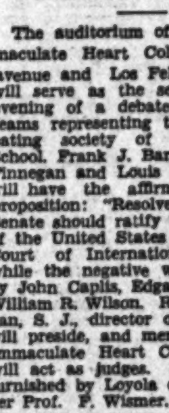
Mrs. Rhoades, a defense witness, denied that when her adopted daughter, Willa, died on January 1, 1925, Mrs. Blackburn ordered her to keep the body or that Mrs. Blackburn ever said that she had the power of restoring life. The witness declared that efforts made to raise the dead were entirely on her own initiative.

Mrs. Rhoades did not explain why she failed to bring Willa back to life after other successes, other than to say that at first she was handicapped by members of Mrs. Blackburn's church who came in and out of the house.

DETAILS NOT SOUGHT

Defense Attorney Cochran did not ask for detailed information on the resurrections and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Ferguson, on cross-examination, produced a statement taken from Mrs. Rhoades in the District Attorney's office some months ago, wherein the woman declared that Mrs. Blackburn had told her that an angel had dictated that the girl's body be kept after death. Mrs. Blackburn, after many months, finally "got the word" to have the body interred, Mrs. Rhoades also declared in her statement to the prosecutor's office.

Angeleno Given High Honor by British Society



FREDERIC R. LEONARD

Frederic G. Leonard, treasurer of the Guaranty Building and Loan Association, was notified yesterday he has been elected a fellow of the Royal Geographic Society of the British Empire. Only six other Angelenos have received this recognition.

While in Canada enjoying his vacation last summer, Mr. Leonard met Campbell M. Hunter, O.B.E., outstanding British consulting engineer, who originally was instrumental in interesting President Hoover in British industrial enterprises and directed Mr. Hoover's South American petroleum activities for years. The warm friendship which followed the meeting reached its climax when Hunter proposed Leonard for the much-coveted fellowship in the Geographical Society.

King George is patron and the Prince of Wales is vice-patron of the society.

LOYOLA HIGH SCHOOL DEBATERS TO CLASH

The auditorium of the new Immaculate Heart College, Western avenue and Los Feliz Boulevard, will serve as the setting Monday evening of a debate between two teams representing the senior debating society of Loyola High School. Frank J. Barry, Darrell F. Finnegan and Louis B. Dockweiler will have the affirmative of the proposition: "Resolved: That the Senate should ratify the adherence of the United States to the World Court of International Justice;" while the negative will be argued by John Caplis, Edgar Thurin and William R. Wilson. Rev. Leo Madigan, S. J., director of the society, will preside, and members of the Immaculate Heart College faculty will act as judges. Music will be furnished by Loyola orchestra, under Prof. F. Wismer.

FEDERAL PAPER TESTER STOLEN

Unique Machine Invaluable to Uncle Sam But Has No Worth for Thief

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—A machine invaluable to the United States government, but worthless to the thief who stole it, is being sought by the police today.

The machine is a Schopper paper calibrater, the only one in this country, and is the property of the United States Bureau of Standards, which uses it to test all paper used for currency as well as all other paper used in the United States Printing Office.

The machine was in the automobile of H. C. Schniewind, a representative of Louis Schopper, the inventor, who had borrowed it from the government to make paper tests at a Maine mill. Schniewind had parked the car while dining.

AUTHOR OF 'BAD BABIES' SENTENCED

George Scarborough Gets Ninety Days in Jail While Others Receive Fines

George M. Scarborough, author of "Bad Babies," was sentenced to serve ninety days in jail by Municipal Judge Bogue yesterday, following his conviction by a jury on indecent play charges. Jobyna Ralston, Elinor Flynn, Annette Westbay Scarborough, Arthur Rankin and Norman Peck, members of the cast, were fined $300 each. Frank Jennings, stage manager, applied for probation, hearing on the application being set by Judge Bogue for the 3rd inst. The six persons sentenced all filed notice of appeal, Scarborough's bond being set at $1000 and the others at $300 each.

The play was raided and the defendants arrested by police August 28, 1929. The trial, which concluded Monday, when a jury brought in a verdict of guilty against eight defendants, including Mervin Williams, actor, who paid his $300 fine Wednesday, was the second, the first ending in a jury disagreement.

Evidence at the trial showed that the play concerned the activities of a group of high-school girls and boys, living together in an apartment and banded together for purposes of robbery and burglary. W. J. Clark, attorney for the defendants, maintained the play sought to carry a moral lesson on the unprofitableness of crime.

Youths' Pace Too Fast for Humdrum City

Overtaken by motorcycle officers in a round-up of speeders, four youths last night were placed under arrest in different parts of the city and turned over to juvenile authorities booked on reckless-driving charges.

Robert Forbes, 16 years of age, of 1131 Alta Loma Drive, was apprehended at Pico street and La Cienega Boulevard after a chase that began at Beverly and San Vicente boulevards. The arresting officer reported he was speeding sixty miles an hour.

Eugene Hirsch, 17, of 1031 South Manhattan Place, was caught at Temple street and Beverly Boulevard after assertedly traveling fifty-five miles an hour.

Edward Weeks, 17, of 632 West Twenty-first street, is charged with "stepping on it" at the rate of fifty miles an hour through a twenty-mile zone. He was arrested at Figueroa and Sixty-sixth streets.

Louis Fuller, 17, of 101 South Bunker Hill avenue, was stopped on Glendale Boulevard after assertedly crossing a fifteen-mile-speed-limit intersection at forty-eight miles an hour.

Confessed Gas Thieves Sent to Road Camp

Rider Hansen and Harold Parks, charged with stealing gasoline valued at nearly $4000 from the Western Refinery Corporation of Los Angeles, yesterday were sentenced to eight months in the county road camp as a condition of four years' probation meted out by Superior Judge Aggeler.

The two youths were taken into custody two months ago by Deputy Sheriff Jack Ousby during his investigation of gasoline thefts. It was charged the pair stole truck loads of gasoline, valued at $650 a load, and sold it to independent dealers. The defendants pleaded guilty and asked for probation after making restitution for the stolen fuel.

Assignments Announced for Court Calendar

Master calendar assignments in civil courts for the ensuing six months were made by Superior Judge Doran, presiding, yesterday.

In the Hall of Records, including Departments Eleven, Twelve, Thirteen and Fourteen, Superior Judge Archbald was appointed. In Departments One to Ten, and Fifteen to Twenty, in the old Courthouse, Superior Judge Sproul, in Department Twenty-nine, will serve. In the City Hall tower, including Departments Thirty to Forty, Superior Judge Blake, and for Departments Forty to Fifty, Superior Judge Price will serve.

Superior Judge Walton Wood will have the master calendar in the criminal courts.

Slashes Laid to Suicide Attempt

With two self-inflicted knife wounds in his throat, Frank P. Wynn, 44 years of age, is in Georgia-street Receiving Hospital as a result of an asserted suicide attempt yesterday in St. Anthony's Corinthian Church, 714 Alpine street. He was discovered almost unconscious from loss of blood, although kneeling in an attitude of prayer, by the pastor, Rev. Antonio Glumack.

At the hospital, Wynn told Detective Lieutenants Condaffer and Ryan he was despondent over continued ill health and that he had purchased a pocket knife, shortly before entering the church, with the intention of ending his life. He gave his occupation as an official of an undertaking establishment. Surgeons report he will recover.

BERLIN SUED OVER SONG BY WRITER

Action Demands $500,000 on Asserted Violation of Taylor's Copyright

Irving Berlin, song writer, yesterday was sued for $500,000 damages by Earl Taylor, another song writer, on the assertion that Berlin violated a copyright in publishing a song that Taylor declares he had written.

Taylor says that he wrote a song called "Walkin' Home" on December 1, 1927. On January 1, 1929, he asserts, Berlin brought out the same song under the name of "Waitin' at the End of the Road." The damages demanded in the complaint, which was prepared by Attorney Charles Cradick, are listed as follows: For actual damages, $200,000, for punitive damages, $100,000, and for anticipated profits, $300,000 more.

An injunction against further publication and sales of the song is asked, and an accounting of profits already made.

Berlin could not be reached for a statement last night.

YOUTH SHOT BY PURSUING POLICEMAN

Bullet Ends Attempt of Suspected Auto Thief to Escape Arrest

An attempt to sell a stolen automobile for $50 last night resulted in the arrest of two youths after a chase which ended when one was overtaken and the other stopped by a policeman's bullet. The injured lad is Joe Parillo, 17 years of age, of 4300 Mercury street. He is in the prison ward of General Hospital with a flesh wound in the thigh. His companion is Edward Alvarado, 19, of 4406 Florizel street. He is in the City Jail. Both are charged with grand theft.

The undoing of the pair occurred in a service station on Huntington Drive near Mercury street, where they offered the assertedly stolen machine, a Ford coupe, to the proprietor. Suspicious, the latter summoned police, and Detective Lieutenants Kreiwald and Brody responded. As they approached the youths fled on foot, pursued by the officers. At Sierra street, Alvarado was outrun and taken in custody and a block farther away Parillo was felled by a bullet from Brody's gun.

According to the detectives, both youths admit they stole the car three days ago from Mrs. Mae Hann of Anaheim.

Police Expert to Aid State

Police Statistician Fred Knowles today will apply for a six months leave of absence so that he can accept an offer to organize a statistical department in the State Bureau of Identification at Sacramento. In applying to the Police and Civil Service commissions for leave of absence, Knowles said that he had passed the examinations and had been offered the State post.

He recommended that, during his absence, the local bureau be placed in charge of Mrs. Rhoda Cross, who has been his assistant for six years. The police statistical bureau records, classifies and indexes crimes and arrests. The Los Angeles police have an advanced system which the State desires to adopt, it was said.

FIVE ARRESTED IN RAID ON CLUB

Gaming Paraphernalia Taken by Fitts's Vice Squad

Accused to Face Prosecution on Gambling Charge

Prominent Persons Released in Hollywood Capture

Five men were taken in custody yesterday facing prosecution on a charge of illegal possession of gambling equipment as the result of a surprise raid conducted by detectives under Capt. Clyde Plummer, chief of Dist.-Atty. Fitts's vice detail, on the Sphinx Club at 8477 Sunset Boulevard.

The equipment seized consists of a roulette wheel and a large quantity of paraphernalia used in various card games, according to the officers. Numerous prominent residents who were patrons of the place were released by the officers without being questioned.

Those taken into custody gave their names as Joe Davis and Frank Harris, residents of the club, and J. C. Randolph, 1213 North Harvard Boulevard; Frank Johnson, 6000 Franklin avenue, and Tom Cooper, Teris Hotel. The officers assert that Frank Harris is George Goldie, brother of Bob Goldie, well known in Hollywood.

The raid is but one of a series being conducted by the District Attorney against roadhouses and clubs believed to be sponsoring gambling. It was the third time within as many months that the officers had visited the Sunset address. Failing to gain immediate entrance, the detectives were forced to batter down the doors.

All such raids are conducted along strictly legal lines, the officers first being provided with a search warrant, Capt. Plummer stated.

The arrested men were arraigned before Municipal Judge Ambrose and granted a delay until the 5th inst. to enter their plea to the charge of possession of gambling paraphernalia, a misdemeanor. They are at liberty pending trial on $250 bail each.

Another Week Will be Taken in Apartment Quiz

Another week in which to continue its investigations of the apartment-house constructed at 716 North Irving Boulevard which the Health Department complains is constructed in violation of the State Housing Act and city ordinances, has been taken by the Building and Safety Commission.

A conference between the Health Commission and the Building and Safety Commission set for today, therefore, has been reset for next Friday.

E. A. Nicholson, receiver for the apartment-house, seeks a permit from the Health Department to operate the premises on the ground that it was constructed by permission of the Building and Safety Department.

Although State and city laws provide that no frame apartment or hotel may be constructed more than three stories in height, the Health Department asserts the property in question is of four stories, due to the fact that extra rooms have been placed above the third story.

Accused Negro Police Officers Deny Bribery

Roscoe Washington and Richmond Dunn, suspended negro police officers who, with M. B. Sheffield, are charged with six counts of bribery, yesterday took the witness stand in Superior Judge Wilson's court and denied that they had accepted "protection" money from a number of reputed bootleggers in the Central-avenue district.

Attorneys Thomas P. White and Martin Burke, counsel for Sheffield, also a suspended negro officer, announced yesterday that Sheffield will take the stand in his own defense Monday.

Washington and Dunn are represented by Attorneys William Christensen and William Crep, while the case is being prosecuted by Dep. Dist.-Attys. Dennison and McKay.

London Ovation for Delegation Shown in Films

First motion pictures of America's delegation to the naval conference landing in England were announced yesterday by the Times-Universal Newsreel for showing in many Southern California theaters. Scenes of the welcome by Prime Minister MacDonald and Ambassador Dawes are described vividly by the newsreel's talking reporter, Graham McNamee, favorite radio broadcaster of big news events.

Thrills are furnished in this issue of the Times-Universal Newsreel by views of girls on horseback diving fifty feet into a pool at Miami, Bahamas, and by a hard-fought dog-sled race in Maine. Winter sports in the East are revealed in scenes showing New England fishermen's struggles with icy seas, and the battle to prevent Niagara's water power from freezing.

Compressed Air Blast Kills Man

Floyd McCone, 35 years of age, of Arlington street, Compton, was killed late yesterday when a tank of compressed air with which he was operating an automobile hoist exploded at the Commercial Welding Works, 2700 Norton avenue, Compton.

The body was taken to the Moore Funeral Parlors, Compton.

VIS-A-FILM AIDS POLICE IN QUESTS

Suspects' Pictures Put on Screen With Machine That Helps Identification

Described as a valuable aid to officers in the apprehension of criminals, the vis-a-film machine, which projects on a small screen pictures of suspects wanted by authorities throughout the country, was placed in operation in the local police department yesterday.

The machine was purchased by the department after it had met with the approval of President Thorpe of the Police Commission, who heads the committee supervising all research work in the department.

It is operated in the shadow box room at Central Police Station during roll call of all watches, uniformed and detective. The screen, about four feet square, reveals a picture of the suspects.

The machine has been found to be especially efficient in identification of bandits. As it is light and easily portable, it can be taken to the scene of a crime and suspects' photographs shown to victims.

Another valuable feature of the operation of the vis-a-film, according to acting Capt. Hopkins, head of the police record bureau, is the exchange of films between police departments.

Father's Twins Free Him From Check Charges

The twins of Ben Faber, milkman, accomplished their father's dismissal on three charges of giving worthless checks, when he appeared before Superior Judge Hanby yesterday.

Faber, according to testimony, had given the checks as payment of gambling debts in a Hynes club.

"I am not in sympathy with the legal theory that gambling debts are not legally collectible," said Judge Hanby. "However, since it appears that you have young twins to support, I will dismiss the charge—if you will take a pledge against gambling."

Faber promised to take no more chances with his pay checks.

GOOD-WILL CRUISE STARTS TOMORROW

Sailing on the initial voyage of two good-will cruises to Old Mexico, the Dorothy Alexander will put out from Wilmington at 9 p.m. tomorrow with approximately 175 business men and members of their families as passengers. The vessel will cruise 2300 miles, with Mazatlan as the southernmost port visited. She will depart on the second cruise, a duplicate of the first, on the 17th inst., according to R. B. Schutten, assistant general passenger agent of the Pacific Steamship Company.

CANARY BUYER'S WINGS CLIPPED

Suspect Placed in Jail on Suspicion of Passing Bad Checks

Frank A. Haden, 44 years of age, of 327 South Westlanke street, yesterday was lodged in the city jail on suspicion of passing fictitious checks, following his offer of an assertedly worthless check in payment of four canary birds.

He was arrested by Detective-Lieutenants Wilson and Sketchley of West Los Angeles division in an aviary operated by H. W. McIntosh at 1726 Purdue avenue. According to the officers, Haden has victimized proprietors of a number of bird stores by purchasing feathered pets with bogus checks. They assert he has used the names of A. L. Manning and A. Kirby.

PEPPERDINE RITES TODAY

Prominent Social Leader Will be Buried in Forest Lawn Memorial Park

Final rites for Mrs. Lena Pepperdine, who died January 18 in Honolulu, as the result of an illness believed to be psittacosis or parrot fever, will be conducted in Peace Chapel of the Kiefer & Eyerick Mortuary, Glendale, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The body of Mrs. Pepperdine was returned to Los Angeles on the steamship City of Honolulu. It was taken from the ship as it reached quarantine and conveyed to the mortuary where it will lie in state until the hour for the funeral services.

W. P. Reedy, minister of the Southwest Church of Christ, will conduct the services.

Mrs. Pepperdine was stricken shortly after her return from a tour of South America and is thought to have contracted the disease while on that journey. A week following her return from South America Mrs. Pepperdine had an active part in the preparation of floats for the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena and complained at that time of illness, but it was not until she was on board a steamship bound for Honolulu on a visit to a married daughter that her condition became dangerous.

BORN IN KANSAS

Mrs. Pepperdine was born in Morton county, Kansas, March 20, 1888. In 1919 she became active in her husband's auto supply business and rose rapidly to the position of vice-president and treasurer which she held when she retired on January 1, 1929.

As vice-chairman of the women's division of the Tournament of Roses Association, Mrs. Pepperdine had been active in the Pasadena pageants and her passing has been mourned by officials of the association. She was credited with obtaining many entries for the tournament parade. She also was active in the social circles of the city.

In addition to her husband, George Pepperdine, she leaves two daughters, Miss Esther Louise Pepperdine and Mrs. Florence May Crossley. Mrs. Pepperdine, with her daughter Esther, was on a winter holiday visit to Mrs. Crossley, who resides in Honolulu, at the time of her death. Both daughters accompanied the body to Los Angeles for the funeral services.

She also leaves her father, W. D. Baker and five brothers, Hal. R. Baker, Ralph Baker, Wayne Baker of Los Angeles, E. R. Baker of Oakland and H. L. Baker of Glendale.

PALLBEARERS SELECTED

Selection of pallbearers was made from those associated with Mrs. Pepperdine in the business world. They are R. V. Langford, A. B. Armstrong, W. L. Tibbals, T. C. Bowles, F. W. Oliver, George Stretz, C. O. Jennings and E. L. Keebler. Honorary pallbearers include C. S. Albro, Hal Reynolds, Dr. Louis Joseph, J. F. Sheran, C. P. Turner, S. G. Miles, H. I. Press and F. C. Ackerman.

The funeral services will be followed by interment in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

FILIPINO LEADER OFF FOR CAPITAL TONIGHT

Hilario C. Moncado, president of the Filipino Federation of America, will leave tonight for Washington to seek an audience with President Hoover on the subject of Philippine independence. Moncado was tendered a farewell banquet last night attended by 200 officers and members of the federation at the Alexander.

W. C. T. U. TO HAVE LUNCH

Mrs. Louise Past, national field lecturer for the teaching of scientific temperance in colleges, will be the honor guest at a luncheon to be given Monday noon at the Women's Christian Temperance Union headquarters, 301 North Broadway. Speakers will include State officers of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Southern California, Rev. Helen Byrnes, national secretary of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, Mrs. Pearl K. Hess, national director of medical temperance, and Dr. M. Len Hutchins.

NORTH DAKOTANS TO MEET

North Dakotans today will come from all parts of Southern California to attend the annual picnic of the North Dakota Society at Sycamore Grove Park. A lengthy program, it is announced, has been arranged by President Plannette and Secretary Harrold, featuring the White King Quartet. County registers will be open all day, and hot coffee served free to the picnickers.

WISCONSIN FOLK TO RALLY

Wisconsin folk will rally Monday evening at Veterans' Hall, 246 South Hill street, it was announced yesterday by E. I. Thompson, president of the State society. A program precedes dancing.

Man Convicted in Auto Death Gets Probation

Donald Ross, 39-year-old iron worker convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death last October of John Pink, yesterday was granted probation for seven years by Superior Judge Hardy. Terms of probation provided, however, that Ross must spend the next year in the county road camp and that his license to drive an automobile be revoked for the full term.

Pink is asserted to have died of injuries when struck by Ross's automobile at Ninth and Georgia streets. According to testimony at the trial of the case, Ross believed Pink only slightly injured in the accident and took Pink to the latter's home. Neighbors of Pink found him dead on the lawn the morning after the accident.

More Time Given in Suit on Film

Superior Judge Gates yesterday granted a continuance in a receivership suit brought by Lechuga Garcia against Tom White, producer, upon information that the contesting parties had arranged a compromise.

Garcia is supervising the filming of a "talkie" in Spanish, and in his petition he complained that he thought White would be unable to complete it, and he, Garcia, would lose his investment if the work were delayed. White, however, raised some money and the film is progressing, it was reported.

FRAUD CHARGE NAMES RADIO STATION OWNER

Walter King, proprietor of radio station KFQZ, yesterday was charged with one count of grand theft by trick and device in a complaint issued by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Clark. The complaint charges that King obtained $1017 worth of gilt-edged securities from Mrs. Minnie Cooper of 536 South Chicago street leaving in her hands other stocks as security. These stocks later proved to be worthless and the original securities never have been returned, Mrs. Cooper charges. Bail was fixed at $2000.

CHAIN STORE ROBBED BY ARMED BANDITS

Two armed bandits last night held up a Clarense Saunders store at 4262 South Western avenue, and made their escape with $200 in cash, according to a report made to police by Ray F. Clark, clerk in charge. Clark said the robbers made their getaway in a dilapidated automobile.

OPEN HOUSE ANNOUNCED

Open house will be observed tomorrow at the Jewish Orphans' Home, 7619 Exposition Boulevard, Palms Station, it was announced yesterday by Superintendent Joseph Nonapart. Preceding the reception at 2 p.m. a business meeting will be held at which the annual report will be read by the superintendent and addresses delivered by Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin and Richard E. Gutstadt, secretary of the district grand lodge, I.O.B.B. President I. Eisner will preside.

NEW ENGLANDERS CALLED

Former New Englanders are to join in a social rally Tuesday evening at Veterans' Hall, 246 South Hill street, it was announced yesterday. All who have lived in any of the six New England States are invited. A program is announced to include numbers by Wadsworth Harris, reader, Mrs. Harriette Davis and May Bradrick. Dancing and a social hour are to follow the program.

HUSBAND BACKS 'OTHER WOMAN'

S. S. Hutchinson Witness for Legal Spouse's Rival

Admits Financing Defense and Shows Letters

Wife Vehement on Stand in Denouncing Relationship

Letters from Samuel Sheffield Hutchinson, husband of Mrs. Mattie Dean Hutchinson, who is suing Mrs. Edith P. Taylor for $300,000 for the asserted theft of her husband's love, were read to the jury in Superior Judge Keetch's court yesterday by Attorney Byron Hanna for the defense to show that Hutchinson and not Mrs. Taylor was the active party in their affair, which, it is said, has lasted twenty years.

The letters, many of them signed "Daddy," contained extensive references to the writer's love for Mrs. Taylor and the daughter Jane. They were in quite a different vein from the letters he wrote to Mrs. Hutchinson, his wife. These letters complained of his wife's extravagance, criticised her luxurious habits and warned her against spending money.

MAN AIDS DEFENSE

On cross-examination by Attorney Benjamin F. Bledsoe, for Mrs. Hutchinson, the witness admitted that he offered his son Hobart $10,000 as a "token of affection" if he would induce his mother to drop her heart balm suit against Mrs. Taylor.

Hutchinson said that his offer was made "solely to protect Jane," his and Mrs. Taylor's daughter, against the stigma of a public trial and its necessary admissions regarding her parentage.

Hutchinson also admitted he was financing Mrs. Taylor's defense.

WIFE VEHEMENT

Mrs. Hutchinson took the stand late yesterday in rebuttal of testimony by the defense. She threw aside her polished, measured habit of expression and many of her expressions were positive to the point of vehemence.

Mrs. Hutchinson denied that her habits were extravagant and that she was a "social climber."

EFFORTS UNAPPRECIATED

"Mr. Hutchinson should have appreciated the social advantages that I brought him," she said. "My position in society gave him a prestige that many other men of his class would have been glad to have had."

In regard to her expenditures Mrs. Hutchinson said she never had a dry goods bill of more than $150, "and very few near that sum." She said that she had to insist that her husband keep up ordinary repairs to their home and declared she ran the menage on "as small an amount of money as it was possible to spend."

The case will be argued by counsel Monday after which Superior Judge Keetch will read his charges to the jury.

Injunction Suit Involving Song Set for Hearing

Superior Judge Gates fixed the 4th inst. as the date for hearing a suit to restrain Joe Seitman from interfering with the sale of a song by Cecil Arnold.

Miss Arnold says she submitted the song to the Universal Pictures Company, and that they agreed to take it after Seitman had made some changes. Then they refused it and she offered it to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. When that corporation was about to purchase it, the plaintiff asserts, Seitman made a claim to certain rights in the song, and the M.-G.-M. company refused to purchase it until the dispute was settled.

Fog Hampers Pilot Search

Fog held the three planes that are searching for Pilot Maurice Graham on the ground at Salt Lake City, Utah, yesterday, local offices of Western Air Express reported.

A truck, equipped with two-way radio sets, however, traveled from Las Vegas, Nev., to Pioche, Nev., inquiring of ranchers and miners for word of the missing mail pilot and further organizing ground searching parties along the air line.

Graham has not been heard from since he took off from Las Vegas three weeks ago. Pilots Fred W. Kelly, Jimmie James and Jimmie Carson are at Salt Lake City and, weather permitting, will take up the air hunt again today.

Temperature Above Normal

It was 10 deg. warmer in Los Angeles during yesterday's twenty-four-hour period than it should have been.

The United States Weather Bureau reported that the thermometer averaged 65 deg. throughout the day and night, as against the normal January temperature of 55 deg. It jumped to its highest point, 76 deg., shortly after noon—11 deg. ahead of the normal January maximum point.

It will be generally fair today and tomorrow with moderate temperature, the weather men predicted.

WIDOW GETS $100,000 ESTATE OF BELLOWS

E. C. Bellows, former corporation commissioner, and a prominent figure in State and county politics, left a $100,000 estate to his widow, Mrs. Ida I. Bellows, 1422 South Gramercy Place, according to the terms of his will filed for probate yesterday. He died December 28, last. The only other relative mentioned in the will is a brother, William E. Bellows, of Carroll, Neb.

Why not take candymaking lessons, personally or by mail? The Liberty Candy Co. reports this week find their students busier than ever, this speaks well for their wonderful candies (which have just been introduced from Europe.) If you want to make money get their plan at once. Phone TUcker 4156, call personally or write for booklet. Liberty Candy Supply Co., fourth floor, Grant Bldg., 355 S. Broadway.

When crocheting, stick a hatpin through the spool of cotton and pin it into the arm of the upholstered chair to keep it in place.

When mending or patching underwear, try slipping the worn place over a magazine; it is just stiff enough to serve as a good lapboard.

When you consider the small cost of having your silver replated and repaired, why, it seems absurd to use worn broken pieces on your table. The Peerless Platers of 239½ S. Spring (upstairs) do this replating for you in a most expert manner! Just think, they only charge $3.50 a dozen for knives, forks and tablespoons; teaspoons cost but $2.50 for the same amount.

When basting, use dark thread on light materials and white thread on dark materials and the lines will be much easier to follow. Baste with silk when sewing on velvet and there will be no marks left when the bastings are removed.

Tell me, are you enjoying to the fullest Guasti Wine Jellies? They are without a doubt the most palate-intriguing delicacy that you can buy for say, hot biscuits, wheat cakes, cold and hot meats and spreads and can be used in innumerable other ways! Of course, you know they are obtainable in seven different flavors, which include Sherry, Burgundy, Muscatel, Tokay, Port, Sauterne and Mint; each as delicious as can be!

Guasti Wine Jellies, it is interesting to know, are made by the Italian Vineyard Company, who own and operate the largest vineyard in the world at Guasti, Cal., and when you buy their wine jellies you may depend upon it that you are obtaining the very finest procurable—of that there is no doubt—so this morning suppose you include in your order at least half a dozen jars of Guasti Wine Jellies—or say one of each kind. All better grocers carry the Guasti brand. If you have any difficulty in getting it, call the Italian Vineyard Company of 1248 Palmetto street (MUtual 2124) and they will see that your order is taken care of promptly.

You won't forget, will you, when getting up a bundle of clothes and articles you no longer have need for, to send to the Children's Hospital Salvage Department at 712 Maple ave. (TUcker 1203) that "nothing is too old or too new, too big or too small" for them to utilize. Couldn't you send in some things this week?

To mark the right side of a material which is very nearly alike on both sides, put in a safety-pin on the right side as the garment is cut out and do not remove it until after the garment is sewn together.

Sharpen the dull sewing-machine needle by stitching with it for several inches through a very fine piece of sandpaper.

A small box of bran is useful for needleworkers who are troubled with perspiring hands.

To make silk stockings wear longer, darn heels and toes before wearing. When darning wears off, pull out and re-darn.

To prevent rust on a wire clothesline, give it a coat of white varnish once or twice a year, or a couple of coats of white enamel.

Everyone nowadays seems to have a yen for buying unfinished furniture and painting it to suit themselves in the most attractive color combinations. Have you ever tried your skill in the direction? Why don't you see for yourself how easy it is—and the money you save will astound you! Tell you what to do, go into any one of Mathews Paint Company's three stores and buy their Pratt and Lambert "61" Lacquer. It is procurable in the prettiest shades! Then get unfinished furniture—say a breakfast set (if you need one) or any article you desire and see what fun it is to transform such pieces. You can get all the necessary paraphernalia for doing the decorating at Mathews, too, so take note of these addresses and visit one of them soon: 1345 S. Hill; 1559 N. Vine and 740 E. Green, Pasadena.

Have you had any fluff rugs made out of old carpets by the Hoffman Rug Works of 2914 W. Jefferson street? You know they do the very finest kind of work and by the by, they also make rag rugs which are nice as can be. The phone number of this concern is EMpire 2048, so call them soon, why don't you?

For removing scorch marks—Peel, slice and pound an onion, mix with it two ounces of washing soda, two ounces of fullers earth and one-half pint of vinegar; boil ten minutes, strain and bottle, tightly corked. Spread this on scorched spots and leave till dry; then repeat, if necessary, till marks disappear.

Aren't you all simply amazed at the unusually fine quality of Mayflower Potato Chips? It's such a joy to be able to serve them for you doubtless have noted they are invariably fresh and crisp and, of course, now that you have found that Mayflower Potato Chips sold at better stores are easily procurable—why, nothing would induce you to buy any other brand.

When hemming linen, a nice hem can be ready turned for hand sewing by running the linen through the machine hemmer without any thread in the needle.

An ordinary sash curtain rod attached to the under edge of the sewing table with the little brackets that go with it is excellent for holding spools of thread untangled and within easy reach.

Free Religious Lectures Listed

Free Christian Science lectures will be delivered next week as follows:

Free Christian Science lectures Peter V. Ross, C.S.B., of San Francisco, Monday, from 12:10 to 12:50 p.m. in Third Church, 734 South Hope street, under the auspices of Second Church, broadcast over KFI; and Tuesday from 12:10 to 12:50 p.m., in Grauman's Chinese Theater, 6925 Hollywood Boulevard, under the auspices of Fifth, Thirteenth and Seventeenth churches.

Judge Samuel W. Greene, C.S.B., of Chicago, Monday at 8 p.m. in First Church, 1366 South Alvarado street; Thursday at 8 p.m. in Thirteenth Church, 1750 North Edgemont street, and next Saturday at 8 p.m. in Tenth Church, 936 West Forty-ninth street.

Dr. John M. Tutt, C.S.B., of Kansas City, Mo., next Friday at 8 p.m. in Seventeenth Church, 1340 North Hayworth avenue.

The speakers are members of the board of lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston.

AUTO SHOW VISITORS TO GAIN BY FARE CUT

Visitors to the Los Angeles Automobile Show, opening at the Shrine Auditorium the 22nd inst., will have advantage of the reduced fare which the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads announced yesterday in connection with Washington's Birthday. On the basis of one and one-third of the regular one-way fare for the round trip, from points where the one-way fare is $30 or less, tickets will be on sale at all points on the three roads, the 21st and 22nd inst., with the 25th inst., as the return limit.

CAFE EMPLOYEE BALKS ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

"Let's have it," demanded a bandit yesterday as he pointed a gun at L. L. Williamson, attendant at Jack's Cafe, Bellflower. The man apparently still needs the money because he didn't get any from Williamson, according to a Sheriff's office report. Williamson stated that while in the act of handing over some money he dropped it on the floor and hit at the would-be robber's arm, whereupon the man reached over and tore Williamson's shirt and then left the cafe without saying another word.

TRADE CLASSES TO OPEN

Two new classes will be inaugurated next week by the Frank Wiggins Trade Evening School, Venice Boulevard and Olive street, it is announced by John George Miller, principal. A class in foremanship will be held Monday and Friday evenings, beginning the 3rd inst., from 7 to 9 o'clock. Members of the building trades are invited to enroll. On Tuesday and Friday evenings instruction will be given in roof-framing with the steel square.

French Actor Comes Here to Play in Talkie

The motion-picture industry's invasion of the foreign field of stage talent for the foreign language pictures became a reality yesterday with the arrival here from Paris of Andre Luguet, French actor. He was signed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to play the leading role in a French version of "Unholy Night," a talking picture recently made in English.

ANDRE LUGUET

Mr. Luguet speaks excellent English. Although born in France, he went to England, where he spent two years in college.

He was met at the station by Jacques Feyder, M.-G.-M. director; Henri Didot, French Consul, and Jetta Goudal and Pauline Garon, who play the leading feminine roles in the French talkie.

Noted Composer Arrives Today

Oscar Straus, whose light operas such as "The Chocolate Soldier," "The Last Waltz" and "The Waltz Dream" are familiar to two generations of Americans, arrives in Los Angeles tonight on the Chief. He will write original operettas for Warner Brothers.

Straus is an exponent of what is known as the Viennese school of light opera. The composer and his wife arrived in New York January 24. For the present they will make their home at the Beverly Hills Hotel.

DENTISTS' ALUMNI ELECTS OFFICERS

Officers of the University of Southern California Dental Alumni Association for the coming year were elected yesterday by the annual convention now being held at the Clinic Building. Those elected are Fred B. Olds, president; M. J. Thompson, vice-president; A. A. Tayette, director; R. P. Le Lansky, secretary-treasurer. A. L. Wilke was named president-elect, and will be installed at the next annual convention.

VENICE OIL HEARING TO BE HELD MONDAY

The City Planning Committee of the City Council will conduct a hearing Monday at 3:30 p.m. upon the application for permits to drill for oil in the Venice district, it was announced yesterday. The City Planning Commission recommended that eight applicants be awarded permits.

WORK ENDED BY FEDERAL GRAND JURY

Filing of Final Report and Indictments Followed by Discharge of Members

With the filing yesterday of a final report and twelve true bills the September Federal grand jury ended its work of nearly six months. The report and indictments were returned before United States District Judge James, who discharged the jury. A new Federal grand jury will be selected within the next two weeks.

It was shown by the final report that the jury, during its sessions, returned 168 true bills and 161 no bills. The true bills included forty cases investigated by the Department of Justice; nineteen by the customs service; twenty-seven by the immigration service; fourteen by the narcotic inspectors; twenty-nine by the prohibition department; twenty-three by the Postoffice inspectors; thirteen by the secret service; two income tax cases and one for violations relating to United States lands.

The indictments returned yesterday include four secret true bills, naming eight persons. Other indictments include charges of violation of the postal laws, the Tariff Act, the Mann Act, in which George Perris is named, and various violations of the National Prohibition Act.

McCormick Not Able to Attend Capital Meeting

Because of the crowded court calendar and the urge of official duties in the local Federal Court, United States District Judge McCormick, a member of President Hoover's crime commission, will not attend the scheduled meeting of that body at Washington on Tuesday, it was stated yesterday by the judge.

It was pointed out that the resignation of Judge Henning had placed much of the court work on the shoulders of Judges James and McCormick, and that if Judge McCormick went to Washington all these duties would fall on Judge James, whose calendar is crowded.

COLISEUM WORK BIDS CALLED FOR

The Board of Public Works yesterday advertised for bids on the reconstruction work on the Los Angeles Coliseum, a job estimated at $225,000. The bids are to be opened the 21st inst. The money already has been appropriated by the City Council.

The work is to consist of replacing the present wooden upper deck with concrete, the earth fill now having settle...

Today's Bible Text

The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.—Acts v:30-32.

A HORSE APIECE

Senators who drink are mentioned as being ruthlessly scored by those who do not, but the dispatches do not give the score.

SEEING THINGS

Nearly 70,000 persons visited the Yale art gallery last year. Maybe that is where they have the collection of steins.

STILL LOOKS GOOD

Business confidence has been renewed for the seventh time in the last two months. By this time even the deep-sea divers should be assured that the country is fundamentally sound.

THE GREAT HAZARD

According to the Coroner 792 persons were killed last year in Los Angeles county by automobiles. At this it is possible that the roster is not complete. But anyhow, it sounds like a report from the battle of Gettysburg.

NOT IN THE DRAFT

Nebraska enthusiasts talk of drafting Gen. Pershing for United States Senator, but the general doesn't care to stand in a draft. Efforts to lure him into politics have hitherto been unavailing.

THE PRINCE A-HUNTING

The Prince of Wales returns to Africa to resume the hunting trip which was interrupted by the serious illness of the King a year ago. The lions have had quite a rebate and should be large and husky by this time.

THE COLD GRAY DAWN

Maybe this dawn man was simply one who forgot to go to bed. In the prewar days they used to find humans of his type wandering around in the gray of the morning looking for the first place to open.

THE ROCKETEERS

General Motors and the Bendix interests are said to be ready to invest millions in the idea of rocket-propulsion for planes or motor cars. Fritz von Opel, the German inventor, is conferring with various leaders during his sojourn in this country and will extend his experiments along intensely practical lines. The idea of going up like a rocket without having to come down like a stick will appeal to a lot of Americans. Anyhow, there is a chance for speed and that is what we crave.

FOR FOREST PROTECTION

Congressman Englebright is again before Congress with a bill for better forest protection by enlarging the appropriations for the Federal ranger service. He proposes $4,500,000 for the years 1931 and 1932, $4,200,000 for 1933 and $4,000,000 annually thereafter, the larger sums being needed for the immediate construction of trails and firebreaks. Of this total about $600,000 annually would be spent in California.

At present, the Congressman points out, about $3 is spent by the Federal government in fighting fires to $1 for preventing them. The Federal rangers constitute a splendid force of men, as fine in personnel as may be found in any similar force anywhere, and wonderfully efficient; they are too few in number, ridiculously underpaid and poorly equipped. One of the best ways to prevent forest fires would be to get more rangers, pay them better and give them more material to work with. The relative amounts spent for prevention and fighting ought to be materially changed. These things the Englebright bill would accomplish.

It has the hearty indorsement of the State Chamber of Commerce and was approved by the conference last year of eleven Western States. It needs still more emphatic indorsement from California, a State in which fire prevention is particularly needed, since it contains the largest stand of virgin timber in the United States, and since forest cover is here vitally important. All Californians ought to get behind the Englebright bill and do their utmost for its passage.

RIVER CONFERENCE SUSPENDS

Due to the secrecy which has shrouded the latest Colorado River conference it is difficult for the public to get a clear idea of what the temporary rupture, which has postponed further negotiations to next Wednesday, or perhaps indefinitely, is all about. This secrecy is probably the primary mistake of the conference. If the issues were out in the open, so that they could be judged, the pressure of public opinion might force an agreement quickly. It is very plain that there must be concession and compromise, and that no agreement can be brought about if any group adopts a "whole-hog-or-none" attitude. The logical result of failure to compromise will be no dam, no water, no power, no flood control.

Circumstantial evidences permit the inference—which may not be correct—that there is a dispute between the Metropolitan Water District and the Imperial Irrigation District over which shall yield water from its guaranteed amount to make up the irreducible minimum which Arizona demands. There are two things to be said if this is the case. First, the dispute is an intrastate and not an interstate affair, and properly has no place in the conference at all; and second, the disputants forget that in all human probability there will be plenty of water for everybody.

The estimates of Colorado River flow upon which the allocations are based are minimum estimates, and there is every reason to believe that there will be 40 to 60 per cent more water at all times, except perhaps in extreme dry seasons, than these estimates indicate. Further, it is practically certain that there will be other developments in the Colorado River within a very few years which will serve to regulate the river above the Boulder Dam reservoir and provide still more water.

Under these circumstances, it is reasonable to take a chance when harmony will be the result, split differences and make adjustments, rather than to let the whole project go by the board. In any case it will be years before any shoes begin to pinch, and there is no particular utility in trying to settle all the problems of the future now.

There are two and only two pressing present problems connected with the Colorado River; all else is of comparatively minor importance. First comes flood control to save both Imperial Valley and the Colorado irrigated lands in Arizona from the consequences of a break in the levees of the lower river, which would be disastrous to both; the second is a domestic water supply for the various cities of Southern California. Power from the Colorado is not an immediate need or a primary purpose of the development.

This dispute in the California delegation, therefore, appears to be over a minor point, and one that is likely to be of no final importance whatever. If this is the case it ought to be settled speedily.

WHY ALL THE HURRY?

The City Council, as if in haste to get through a distasteful task, has passed an ordinance granting Alphonzo Bell and his influential friends the right to conduct a heavy industry in the city's finest residence section—an ordinance containing conditions which are officially declared to be probably invalid and passed in the face of charges from three separate sources that improper methods had been used to obtain votes for it. The rushing through of this ordinance in such a hurry is a slap in the face of public opinion and a defiance of public sentiment which the voters of the city ought not to forget. It has a strong flavor of the "public be damned" policy supposed to have been long ago discarded.

The City Attorney's opinion that the safeguards which the City Planning Commission tried to provide to prevent the Bell rock-grinding operations from being objectionable on every ground, instead of merely on almost every ground, cannot be enforced ought to have been enough to hold the matter up for further study—a little more delay could not make a serious difference where there has been so much already. When in addition the motives of Councilmen were impugned and an investigation demanded, the investigation should have been conducted before any action was taken. The most reasonable explanation of the situation is that some Councilmen did not care for such an investigation and if the Council finds the public accepting this explanation it will have only itself to blame.

To Mayor Porter, who is on record against industrial encroachment into residence zones, is thus given still more reason to veto the spot-zoning ordinance. He cannot well afford to attach his signature to legislation which violates sound principles to which he has expressed adherence, and which in addition smells bad. The people of Huntington Palisades have a right to expect that he will keep his campaign pledge to them, especially when the pledge was of a nature reflecting credit upon his good judgment and is and was heartily approved by the majority of the people of Los Angeles.

The whole cement plant project has been enveloped from the beginning in an atmosphere of bad faith and sharp practice. The very application for the permit was in violation of moral obligations to hundreds who had purchased homes in a neighborhood that apparently was completely protected by stringent restrictions as well as zoning laws. The majority of the City Planning Commission, which voted the permit, was able to give only the most lame and halting explanation of its action. The City Council has given none at all.

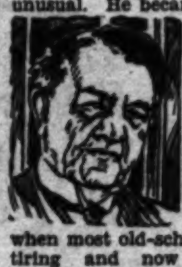
The Mayor has a splendid opportunity to show that he is not bossed or swayed by what may be improper influences; that he has no strings attached to him; that he honors his word publicly given. He can keep his and the city's hands clean of what may readily turn out to be a very nasty mess. There is at the very least an immense amount of dubiousness about this affair; he can give the public the benefit of the doubt with a veto.

CALL TO ARMS

The headlines tell of the Arms Meet. No wonder some of the laundry girls think it is a necking affair.

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

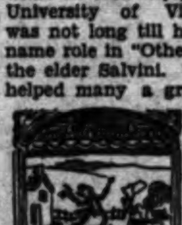
BY Lee Shippey



THERE are all kinds of actors in Hollywood and more than plenty of each kind. Yet George Fawcett is unusual. He became an actor in the reign of the old tradition, adjusted himself easily and naturally to the realistic school when that succeeded the bombastic school, stepped into silent motion pictures at a time when most old-school actors were retiring and now is appearing in talkies. He has run the gamut as few actors have, appearing in characters of every sort, good, bad, jovial, grouchy, judicial, romantic, clownish and regal, during his forty-three years on stage and screen. And though there are many older actors in Hollywood it is doubtful whether any other there has had such varied and generally successful experience.

From Old-Time Stage to Modern Talkies

Fawcett went on the stage at a time when it was not a gentleman's profession. Most of the people on it had started as supers and worked up, but not to a high social level. There were exceptions, of course, but they were not numerous. Fawcett was of old Virginia stock, a university graduate and the scion of a house of wealth and refinement. He had never expected to have to earn a living. But a sudden reversal of fortune made it necessary and he shocked his friends by deciding to do what he had enjoyed doing at the University of Virginia—acting. It was not long till he was playing the name role in "Othello" to the Iago of the elder Salvini. Since then he has helped many a great star rise and seen many a great star set and has gone on, a steadier though less dazzling light. He has created more characters, perhaps, than any actor ever can create again, for nowadays the directors rather than the actors create most of them. He played two seasons in London, one as the star of "The Great John Ganton" and the English liked him so much that he was made an honorary member of the Beefsteak Club, the only others so honored at that time being Lord Kitchener and Theodore Roosevelt.



Fawcett also has been a producer, having been the first to produce Ibsen in this country.

Sequestered in Hollywood

Now Fawcett lives as one can live only in Hollywood—hidden away from the busy world and yet in the heart of it. You could throw a stone from a busy street and hit his house, and yet the house is hard to find. It is so hidden away in foliage, at the end of a winding path. We went there the other day expecting to talk with him about old times, old actors he had known and the glories of the past. But we found him sipping tea with his wife, who used to star as Percy Haswell, and his pretty daughter, Georgia Haswell Fawcett, who writes plays, and talking about the future.

"I have seen too many changes not to know that they must come and that there can be no turning back from them," he said. "When I went on the stage actors strutted and bellowed. When the realistic school made its bow the worshipers of John McCullough said scornfully that it could not last, that the old school would return. When movies came in many believed they were the fad of a day, but they conquered the world. And you may be sure the talkies are here to stay till we move forward to something else. We never shall move backward. The talkies still are colorless. They do not give a man a chance to act, to create character, to lose himself in a mood. Without working himself into the feeling he must put into his voice and action, he must step up to the microphone and begin, on the instant, to be an utterly different human being from what he was a moment before. But the talkies will improve, you may be sure. And they are here to stay."

Mussolinis of Other Days

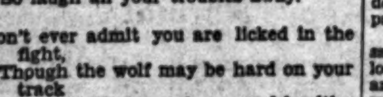
Fawcett is writing the story of his forty-three years on stage and screen for an eastern magazine and the book will teem with personal glimpses of the great of the American stage. Augustin Daly, for example, was such a martinet that when Fawcett married his leading lady on the eve of his company's departure for London Daly insisted that all members of the company must stay together and that Fawcett, who was not a member of the company, could not share those quarters, so that on their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett could meet only casually and at intervals.

Charlotte Walker, who dropped in to visit the Fawcetts while we were there, is perhaps the only actress who ever refused a leading role from Richard Mansfield. While a young girl, she was in one of Mansfield's companies. One day at rehearsal the great actor flew into a rage and "fired" his leading lady. "Charley," he said, turning to Miss Walker, "go make up for this part. You're to be my leading lady now." But Miss Walker shook her head. "It wouldn't do a bit of good, Mr. Mansfield," she said. "As soon as you got over being mad you'd fire me, too." "You're throwing away the chance of a lifetime," warned Mansfield. But Miss Walker still shook her head. "No," she said, "I'm too young and inexperienced. None but a finished actress could suit you, once you get calm again." So Mansfield growled—and hired his leading lady back again. But wasn't it a gallant thing for the little girl to do?

AH, JOE
OOH LOVE THESE TALKIES

GENTLEMAN FROM INDIANA

Senator Jim Watson of Indiana, who is the Republican leader in the United States Senate, intimates that he will not be a candidate for re-election. He figures that he has gone as high as he can in political service and that it is now time for him to engage in earning some money for his family. He has been in Congress for many years, but that is no place for an active patriot to lay by any store of gold. It looks to him that he would do better did he go back to the Hoosier State and practice law. But he is liked and respected at Washington and politicians on both sides of the fence regard him highly.



POETRY FOR THE PEOPLE

By James J. Montague

Hard luck shouldn't mean anything in your life;
 Crush despair with a jovial grin;
If you play a man's part in the struggle and strife
 You will often get bumped on the chin.
Suppose every letter you get is a dun
 And you haven't the money to pay,
Behind every cloud there is always the sun,
 So laugh all your troubles away.

Don't ever admit you are licked in the fight,
 Though the wolf may be hard on your track
And baring his fangs for a good healthy bite—
 There is always a chance to come back.
Face whatever may come with a song in your heart.
 You may be bowled over today,
But tomorrow perhaps you can get a fresh start,
 So laugh all your troubles away.

If the boss says your services are not required
 Don't sit 'round the office and mope,
Remember that people are frequently fired
 But still have abundance of hope.
Perhaps there is nothing around you
 but storm,
 And the skies are all dismal and gray,
But your heart in your breast may beat still strong and warm,
 So laugh all your troubles away!

WHAT OTHERS THINK ABOUT IT

THE CENSORSHIP RACKET

[New York Herald-Tribune]

Whatever Chicago sets out to do it does thoroughly.

Mr. Lucius Beebe has just exposed the censorship racket in Boston in a series of articles in the Herald-Tribune, which revealed the existence of a new profession for retired clergymen—that of conning naughty books and disclosing their naughtiness to the authorities. In place of Boston's notorious Watch and Ward Society, Chicago has the Illinois Vigilance Association; and Chicago outdoes Boston, for the head of this society is a clergyman who has never even been ordained.

The "Rev." Philip Yarrow, who fights vice for the association at a salary of $6000 per annum, the trial disclosed, was not in fact, a minister at all, but his association thrived in its business, for it received half the revenue from fines assessed as a result of the pseudo-parson's labors. In the case which brought the exposure of Mr. Yarrow's activities one of his agents had induced a bookseller to obtain for him a copy of a book of which the bookseller, until informed by the anti-vice crusader, had never even heard! Far from suppressing a menace to the youth of Chicago, the Vigilance Association was actually introducing to the book dealers and advertising a book which it deemed obscene and attempting to make a profit from the transaction.

Let those who dedicate themselves to safeguarding the morals of the community look well to their own morals. In no business are the utmost scrupulousness and honor more necessary. It is a strange commentary upon the methods of our own Society for the Suppression of Vice that the publishers of "The Well of Loneliness," after the court had cleared the book, received back from its secretary, Mr. Sumner, many fewer copies of the book than, according to the receipt signed at the time of the raid, they had seized.

LOOKING BACKWARD

[Philadelphia Public Ledger]

Reminiscent of the Farmers Alliance, Populist and Bryan periods of American politics are three bills introduced by Senator Brookhart. One for the licensing by the Federal Trade Commission of corporations engaged in interstate commerce provides that all profits over 5 per cent on the capital investment shall be paid to the Federal Treasury. Another, designed to prevent short selling on stock and commodity exchanges, would forbid the use of the mails for communications referring to orders or payments touching short sales. The third would create a new Federal Reserve co-operative banking system and incorporate the intermediate credit banks in the co-operative system.

The plaintive wail, "Backward, turn backward," fortunately is no more potent to change the course of events when uttered by peddlers of political nostrums than when set up by others.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Under the Direction of Dean Rockwell Hunt

V

BY DEAN JUSTIN MILLER, J. D.

The history of the school of law, University of Southern California, is closely interwoven with the history of legal education in the Southwest; like that of most institutions, it is of humble beginning.

Until 1896 there was no organized effort in law instruction in Southern California and the only law school in the whole of California was the Hastings College of Law in San Francisco. Resident law students of Southern California pursued their studies in various law offices with no attempt at organized direction of their study.

In 1896 a group of these law students met and organized the Los Angeles Law Students' Association. James Brown Scott, later dean of the University of Illinois, and at present a world-renowned authority on international law, was elected preceptor. Instruction was confined to the subjects required for admission to the State Bar. Meetings were first held in a building on the west side of Main street between Third and Fourth.

In June, 1897, this organization was incorporated as the Los Angeles Law School. Mr. Scott was elected dean, Roger Sherman Page was made secretary and F. W. Houser, financial secretary. The trustees were men of outstanding ability and reputation and included Judge Erskine W. Ross, Henry O'Melveny, Percy R. Wilson and Robert H. F. Variel. At this time a full three years' course was offered covering most phases of the law. The instructors were practicing lawyers of recognized ability.

In 1901 the Los Angeles College of Law was incorporated and a new organization perfected with George L. Saunders, dean, and F. M. Parker, secretary. In 1903 and 1904 D. M. Hammack was dean. This same year the school became affiliated with the University of Southern California to the extent that degrees were conferred upon graduates of the school by the university.

In 1904 a department of the University of Southern California was organized known as the Southern California College of Law, under the direct management and control of the university. This new school took the place of the earlier organization and absorbed its students. Frank M. Porter was elected dean and Gavin W. Craig, now justice of the Appellate Court of California, was made secretary.

The newly formed college of law at first occupied rooms in the Rindge Building at Third and Broadway. The faculty included Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, Hon. John D. Works, Judge W. P. James, Judge W. P. Cheney, Hon. E. W. Camp, Dean Frank M. Porter, W. C. Pechtner, Will A. Harris, E. W. Britt, M. B. Jones, William H. Hiatt, Sam L. Baker, James R. Townsend, Le-Compte Davis, Earl Rogers, W. T. Craig, W. S. Tupper, Clark R. Mahan, G. R. Bennett, Judge Gavin W. Craig, Judge Clair S. Tappaan and Thomas W. Robinson. The board of control consisted of George I. Cochran, Hartley Shaw, A. J. Wallace, Nathan Newby, T. W. Robinson and Dean Porter. The enrollment was small at first, but it has gradually grown from sixty-three in 1904-5 to 462 for the year 1928-29.

In 1911 the college of law, University of Southern California, moved to the third and fourth floors of the Tajo Building, First and Broadway. There it remained until November, 1925, when it moved to its own commodious building on the campus of the university.

In 1907 the first summer school was organized and summer sessions have been given each year since that date. In 1908 a fourth year was added, leading to a graduate degree.

In 1908 the college of law was accepted as a member of the Association of American Law Schools. After 1915, in keeping with the trend of legal education the system of instruction was gradually changed from the lecture-textbook system to the case method. At the same time the entrance requirements were raised. In 1920 one year of college work was required in addition to high school graduation. This increased to two years of college work in 1922 and finally to three years of college work in October, 1925, the present requirement. This is one more year of college work than is required under the rules of the Association of the American Law Schools. At the time this requirement went into effect, there were only five law schools in the United States and Canada with higher entrance requirements.

In 1927 Frank M. Porter on retiring from active service was made dean-emeritus of the school of law. Through his untiring efforts in the field of legal education in Southern California and throughout the West, Dean Porter has won for himself a unique place in the hearts of the host of friends of the university and the college of law. He was succeeded as dean by Justin Miller of the law school of the University of California. The school of law has finally taken its place as one of the leading law schools in the United States.

In November, 1927, the faculty and students of the school of law began the publication of the Southern California Law Review. This publication is devoted to a discussion of outstanding legal problems and current decisions. The Review has already done much to establish the school of law among the foremost law schools of the country. It provides a splendid medium of expression for the research work of the faculty and honor students.

During the year 1928 the students of the school organized the Southern California Bar Association, composed of all the students of the school of law. This was one of the first student organizations of this type in the United States. Sections patterned after those of the local, State and national bar associations were organized for the purpose of carrying on necessary and advisable student functions and to encourage and develop the students' interest in, and knowledge of, some of the important problems confronting the law student and the legal profession.

During the summer of 1928 an experimental legal aid clinic was established at the school of law under the supervision of John S. Bradway, secretary of the National Association of Legal Aid Associations. During the past year the clinic was permanently established, and Mr. Bradway was appointed director of the clinic and professor of law. The establishment of this clinic was made possible through the aid of a number of public-spirited citizens of Los Angeles, who formed themselves into the Southern California Legal Aid Clinic Association. The directors of the association are: Guy Richards Crump, president; Harry J. Bauer, first vice-president; William Lacy, second vice-president; Mrs. Dora Shaw Heffner, recording secretary; Mrs. Florence J. DeGarmo, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles F. Turner, treasurer; Mrs. C. Raymond Bradford, chairman finance and membership committee; Justin Miller, dean of the law school. The students, in co-operation with the public defender's office of Los Angeles, the courts and the bar, social agencies and other groups interested in the administration of justice, are engaged in the actual work of examining witnesses, collecting evidence, preparing pleadings and effecting settlements. During the first two months of its operation the clinic received over 200 applications for assistance.

The school of law is now housed in its own building on the University of Southern California campus. The new building is one of the most beautiful and commodious law-school buildings in America. The library consists of 30,000 volumes and is being increased at the rate of 6000 volumes per year. It is being built with the idea of making it one of the best legal research libraries in the West. At present every current legal periodical published in the English language is being placed upon its shelves. During the present year sets of California Supreme and Appellate court briefs have been bound and placed in the library.

Approximately one-third of the student body come from the college of arts, letters and sciences of the university. The rest come from colleges and universities scattered throughout the United States and Canada, a total of ninety-four of such institutions of collegiate grade being represented in a student body totaling 462 for the year 1928-29.

During the last two years two new subjects have been developed in the law school, one of them relating to air law and the other to motion-pictures law. The first course was the first course in air law to be given in any class "A" law school in the United States. For this purpose Dr. Otto Schreiber of the Air Law Institute, Koenigsberg University, Germany, was brought to the University of Southern California to give the course in air law during the summer of 1928. During the following year, 1928-29, Dr. Rudolf Hirschberg, also of Koenigsberg University, was a member of the faculty as a visiting professor and the course in air law was given again during the regular year. A course in motion-pictures law was given for the first time during the summer of 1929 by Dr. Ralph Culver Bennett.

The members of the faculty of the school of law, impressed with the importance of establishing and maintaining active contacts with organizations concerned with the development of law and its administration, have been selected as presidents, chairmen or members of committees of the following organizations, among others: The Association of American Law Schools, the American Bar Association, the California Bar Association, the Los Angeles Bar Association, the American Law Institute, the American Academy of Criminology, the American Judicature Society, the American Legislators' Association, the American Probation Association, California Conference of Social Work, the Social Science Research Council.

The degree of bachelor of laws is conferred by the university for completion of the regular three years of law-school work. In addition, the degree of master of laws is conferred upon the completion of a graduate (fourth) year of law-school work, including thesis.

TREES BATTLE FOR LIFE

Under forest conditions trees are waging war with each other—the large trees bully the little ones and the little ones fight among themselves, writes Charles Lathrop Pack in "Forests and Mankind." In forest life, much as in human life, there are not enough of life's necessary things to go around. There is only just so much open sunlight above, and so much soil moisture and fertility beneath, and only to the strongest and most vigorous trees the rewards of the struggle fall.

Politician: One who delights in doing an unimportant thing in a very important way.

National problems seem new, but they all reduce themselves to the age-old problem of finding honest men.

Headlines are mere entertainment. The great questions are: "Will they renew the note?" and "Will Bobby pass?"

Of course many movies are punk. And Shakespeare might have petered out, too, if his audiences had required two new ones every week.

What the automobile business really needs is a railway crossing that will eliminate the car without eliminating the customer.

CE UNIT AGAIN DECENTRALIZED

Steckel Ends Central Control System

Police Division Now to Have Own Squad

Liquor Detail Will Be Flying Group

The division, so-called play- of the police department, has received a vigorous kick on its anatomy. For the third time in as many years it was decentralized yesterday. The change was made on the order of Chief Steckel.

Instead of a separate vice division under one commander handling enforcement of all vice and liquor laws throughout the city, the decentralization of the unit means that each division will have its own vice squad and each division commander will be held responsible for vice conditions in his district, according to the Chief.

MEN TRANSFERRED

This was the system in operation when Chief Vollmer was commandeered from the Berkeley department. In his reorganization plans Vollmer made a separate division of the vice units and placed all responsibility on the officer in charge. Following Vollmer's departure the unit was again decentralized and then placed on the Vollmer status by Chief Davis. Now it is back as it was originally.

Coincident with the change, one vice lieutenant, Walter Schu-[illegible], two sergeants, William Crane and George E. Littlejohn, and twenty patrolmen were transferred from the central vice division to various outside districts. The transfers were ordered by Deputy Chief [illegible]. With the new men added to personal division commanders have been ordered to reorganize the squads accordingly.

SPECIAL RUM SQUAD

All divisions are affected, except [illegible] and Newton street. The special squad, still under the leadership of Acting Captain Weyer-[illegible], will have charge of the work in those districts, as well as in the central division.

At the same time a special liquor squad under the personal direction of the Chief will operate as a mobile unit throughout all divisions.

OTHERS SHIFTED

Although having no connection with the vice squad decentralization, three other detective lieutenants, M. Carman, L. W. Lyons and J. Murray, also were transferred yesterday.

Detective Lieutenant Carman, who has been acting night captain of Hollywood division, goes to the Seventy-seventh-street division as acting captain in charge of detectives.

Detective Lieutenant Lyons goes from the Central detective bureau to the Police Commission to take the place of Detective Lieutenant L. Longuevan. He will have the rank of acting inspector.

Detective Lieutenant Murray goes from the Central bunko squad to the Seventy-seventh-street division.

Inspector of Detectives Longuevan, recently relieved as special inspector for the Police Commission, was assigned to the office of captain of detectives at Central station from 4 p.m. to midnight.

Inspector of Detectives Davidson, who has been filling this position, has been assigned to the new position of inspector-at-large.

Acting Inspector Slaten, recently relieved from command of the [illegible]-street division, will continue as day inspector.

FAKE MONEY SUSPECT IN LAW'S HANDS

Prisoner Said to Have Tried to Sell Method of Making Bills Larger

As he was attempting to sell a supposed money-making process to J. T. Jacoby at 121 North Chicago street yesterday, according to Detective Lieutenants Reed and Davis of the central bunko squad, Elias Steiner, 55 years of age, of 625 Magnolia avenue, Long Beach, was taken into custody by the detectives and held on suspicion of grand theft bunko.

Steiner, according to the detectives, told a fantastic story to Jacoby of how he had learned a secret process to make $100 bills out of $20 bills. He stated, the detectives said, that he once worked in a mint in Bulgaria, and, when accused of a crime of which he was innocent, departed on his own accord with the secret.

Steiner, the detectives said, placed a $20 bill between two pieces of blank paper, saturated it with a colored liquid and then rolled the bill and paper tightly between two small boards. At the conclusion of this operation the paper was taken out bearing the impress of the bill on both sides.

Jacoby, it was reported, suspicious of the arrangement, notified the police and the arrest was made as the result.

Liquor-Buyer Complains He's Short Changed

An asserted bootlegger's refusal to give a customer any change following the purchase of liquor yesterday led to his arrest on a charge of violating the Wright Act and the booking of his wife on violation of the city ordinance prohibiting the giving of information. The accused pair are George A. Graham, 27 years of age, and Mrs. Ruby Graham, 24, of 1029 South Hope street.

According to the police report, Harvey Joyce, whose address is not given, was directed to the Hope-street address by Mrs. Graham, when he asked her where he might purchase liquor after making her acquaintance in a Main-street dance hall. Joyce gave Graham a $5 bill and was given a pint of liquor but no change, it is asserted. Ordered from the house when he demanded the change due, Joyce complained to Officer Malinorski. The latter made the arrests and confiscated a quantity of liquor found on the premises, according to the report.

Wife Says She Was Ordered to Leave Home

Cecil E. Baldwin told his wife Erma to get out and as soon as she did he had another woman to take her place, Mrs. Baldwin testified yesterday before Superior Judge Tappaan when asking for a divorce on the grounds of cruelty.

The couple married on April 28, 1923, and separated six years later.

"Once I went to a theater and my husband came into the place with another woman," Mrs. Baldwin declared.

He told her, when she objected, to get out.

A decree was granted.

BEER FOUND ON CANADIAN POWER BOAT

Northern Exchange Seized Off San Nicolas Island by Coast Guard Vessel

Six bottles of whisky and twenty-four bottles of beer were taken off the forty-five-foot Canadian power boat Northern Exchange, overhauled ten miles off San Nicolas Island before daylight yesterday by the Coast Guard patrol boat Morris.

The craft, in the absence of any papers, is being held for investigation, as are members of its crew of three, Capt. James P. Tait, Thomas Hansen, engineer, and Ronald McWilliams.

The craft was en route to Ensenada, Tait is said to have told Bos'n P. E. Sperati, commanding the patrol boat. It is tied up at Berth 59, in the outer harbor, alongside the captor.

Vernon Group to Give Dinner

Members of the Vernon Industrial Development Association will meet next Thursday evening for their annual dinner in the clubrooms of the Central Manufacturing District at 4814 Loma Vista avenue. Short talks by nationally known speakers on subjects of interest to industry are announced, together with entertainment.

Officers of the association, who have arranged this annual dinner, are W. J. Boyle, president, T. J. Murphy, vice-president, J. B. Leonis, Jr., secretary, S. M. Haskins and F. E. Burger, directors.

CRASH OF STREET CAR AND AUTO HURTS ONE

George W. Irvin of 2690 Ellendale Place yesterday suffered a compound fracture of the left leg and numerous body abrasions when the automobile he was driving collided with a street car at Adams and Hoover streets. The street car was in charge of Motorman E. T. Ellgood. Irvin is in Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

OLD-TIME FRIENDS MEET IN PICTURES

Helen Simmons, Nancy Dover

Two Dallas girls, friends of long standing, have been reunited by motion pictures. Helen Simmons and Nancy Dover were close friends in Dallas but were parted in search of careers. Finally their artistic ambitions led them to Hollywood.

Miss Dover was brought here by success as a dancer with musical shows while Miss Simmons gave up her commercial art work with a department store to launch a career in films.

Yesterday they met on the set at the Paramount studio, where they were cast to portray tropical native girls in "Let's Go Native." James Hall, who plays one of the major parts, also is a Texan.

PLANS LAID FOR MAKING AIRPORT PAY

Report to Supervisors on County Project Indicates Revenue Possibilities

Plans to make the proposed Los Angeles County Airport near El Monte a source of income rather than an expensive luxury are contained in an exhaustive report prepared for the Board of Supervisors by William J. Fox, of the Regional Planning Commission.

In the tentative plans for the development of the proposed El Monte airport, nearly 40 per cent of the total available space will be productive of income. Out of a total of 925 acres to be used for airport purposes, 175 acres will be devoted to hangar space, the income from which will go to the county, and 205 acres will be available for leasing to factories and operators who wish to erect their own buildings.

According to the report compiled by Mr. Fox, of the fifty-two air fields in Los Angeles county now in operation approximately half are operating under clauses which will permit the owners to cancel the lease with from thirty to ninety days' notice and of the remainder very few have leases extending more than a few years, the Los Angeles Airport (Mines Field) lease, which still has about eight years to run, being the longest.

Figures compiled by the Aeronautical advisory committee which drew up and approved the report submitted by Mr. Fox, indicate that within the space of a very few years the income of the proposed county airport, will exceed the rental and it is estimated that during at least the last half of the forty-year lease period, the airport will be a large source of revenue to the county.

NEGRO SUSPECT CAPTURED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Calvin Turner, negro, was arrested tonight for Los Angeles authorities. He is said to be wanted with Benny Hill, negro, for robbery. The men are declared to have escaped with $700 in a running gun battle with Los Angeles authorities several weeks ago.

OFFICER HELD IN GRAFT QUIZ

Constable Amend Taken in Inglewood Inquiry

Records of Justice Court Seized for Check

Pocketing of Bail in Traffic Law Cases Charged

Seizing all the records of the Inglewood Justice Court and placing Constable Harry Amend of Inglewood under technical arrest "for investigation," investigators from the District Attorney's office yesterday opened an inquiry into charges of a dozen citizens that constabulary officers had collected money from traffic-law violators which had never reached the county treasury.

The inquiry, undertaken by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hugh McIsaac, was instigated by Frank Grace, chief of the constabulary department under Sheriff Traeger, after his preliminary investigation indicated that "something was wrong," it was announced.

With considerable evidence already in the hands of the officers, acording to reports, Jack Chriss and Jesse Winn, District Attorney's investigators, seized the records of Justice of the Peace A. F. Monroe's court at Inglewood. These records will be used in an effort to determine whether or not bail asserted to have been collected by officers was actually forfeited and placed in the hands of the court.

It is charged by numerous citizens that when they were arested on more or less serious traffic violation charges they were permited to go their way after depositing a heavy cash bail, the understanding being that nothing would be said if they forfeited the bail and did not return for trial.

According to Dep. Dist.-Atty. McIsaac, a majority of those, who have complained thus far are wealthy people.

Jewish Juniors Plan Tableaux at Charity Ball

To swell the funds of the Cuban project the Los Angeles section of the National Council of Jewish Juniors will present "The City of Dreams" tableaux at its third annual formal charity dinner-dance the 8th inst. at the Beverly-Wilshire in honor of Mrs. Maurice S. Hellman.

The National Council of Jewish Juniors is the only organization doing protective work in Cuba and is maintaining a home for immigrant girls who arrive on the island without funds or friends.

Dinner will be followed by dancing, entertainment from the leading motion-picture studios and "The City of Dreams" tableaux.

Mexico Arrests Red Emissaries

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 31. (AP)—Dispatches from Tampico to La Prensa today said two Russians, Paul Brastikoff and George Brastikoff, had been arrested for attempting to introduce Communist propaganda among the soldiers stationed there. Both were turned over to the Department of the Interior and probably will be expelled from the country.

The Mexican Foreign Office recently broke off diplomatic relations with Moscow, resenting the holding of Communist demonstrations against the present Mexican regime before the embassies in Washington, Buenos Aires and Rio De Janeiro.

SCIENTIST CHEATS GRAVE

Ethnologist Gets Tribal History from Last of San Juan Indians Just Before Her Death

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31. (AP)—The last full-blooded member of the San Juan tribe of California Indians, Mrs. Ascencion Solorsano de Cervantes, 100 years of age or more, will be buried tomorrow by the Maryknoll Fathers from the historic mission of San Juan Bautista.

Death withheld his scythe long enough to permit Prof. J. P. Harrington of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, a member of the Bureau of American Ethnology, to visit the aged woman during the past few months, learn her language and piece together bit by bit from what she told him the story of the ancient language, customs and religion of her tribe, information previously lost to scholars of the world and generally considered dead.

SPECIAL CHURCH HONORS

Because of the fidelity of the San Juan Indians to Catholicism, the Maryknoll fathers will give the last member of the tribe a funeral with the pomp and ritual of the church, while her grave will be beside the mission's walls—a special honor. She died Wednesday night at San Juan, the community which had been her birthplace and her home.

As a child she knew the Indians of the eighteenth century, who passed on to her in their native language the ancient customs of before the coming of the padres and the white colonists. She never learned English, although she knew a little Spanish, and Prof. Harrington was forced to learn her language during the seven months he lived in her hut. She was married when 14 years of age and was the mother of sixteen children, two of whom survive her.

HISTORY OF TRIBE

Prof. Harrington learned that the language of the San Juans, who called themselves the Ama tribe in the old days, contained only the five vowels and five consonants. The tribe worshipped a single god they called Ho-Le. They were peaceful; they had no tomahawks, but had bows and arrows, spears and hunting knives. They had family feuds, however, which raged for generations.

They went unclothed. Fathers gave their daughters in marriage, but once married the women had an equal footing in tribal law with men. The fiercest fights were between the squaws, sometimes ending in death, but the husbands never interfered. The tribe was ruled by a single chief, who also was judge of tribal disputes.

Prof. Harrington will return to Washington after the funeral, where this and other information he has gathered will be placed in the Smithsonian Institution's records.

PREMONITION OF PLANE CRASH VICTIM REVEALED

Revealing what seems to have been a premonition that he and his wife might die together, Edward Joseph Bowen, killed in the crash of the T.A.T.-Maddux air liner at Oceanside January 19 wrote into his will, these words:

"If I and my wife shall die under conditions that might make it impossible to determine who died first, my wife, shall, for the purposes of this will, be deemed to have predeceased me."

The will, which was on file in Probate Court yesterday, indicated that Bowen's estate may be worth $250,000. Mrs. Ella Gaffney Bowen's will is in the form of a document purported to have been signed by Mrs. Bowen, in which she waived all claims to community property, and agreed to the terms of her husband's will.

It is provided that Bowen's property be divided among three sisters, a brother and several nieces and nephews, after the sum of $250,000 had been set aside in a trust fund, income to be paid to two sons, Edward James Bowen, 17 years of age, and John Gaffney Bowen, 13, until they reach a certain age. Two sisters, Miss Lydia Cecelia Bowen and Mary Elizabeth Bowen, get $10,000 each.

NEW CHURCH TO BE OPENED

Pacific Palisades Methodists Will Take Part in Rites; Other Services For Tomorrow Announced

The beautiful new church building of the Pacific Palisades Community Methodist Episcopal Church will be formally opened to the public tomorrow morning, when the congregation, which has been worshiping in the building of the Pacific Palisades Association since the organization of the church in 1922, will move into the new edifice.

The new church stands at the corner of Via de la Paz and Bowdoin street in Pacific Palisades. The building now completed is the first unit of a plant which will cost $125,000. The value of the present unit and grounds is $72,000. It includes an assembly room and social hall seating 350 persons, a church parlor, departmental rooms for nursery, beginners', primary, junior and intermediate departments of the church school, and many classrooms. Thomas E. Barber is the architect and the building was erected by J. C. Bannister.

Rev. James Edwin Dunning, the pastor, has announced a program for the dedicatory week, beginning tomorrow when Dr. James Lewis Gillies, superintendent of the Los Angeles District of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will preach the first sermon. Tomorrow evening Dr. Alfred Inwood of Altadena, under whose pastorate at Pacific Palisades the new church was begun, will be the preacher. Monday evening will be "Religious Education Night," with addresses by Dr. Oren B. Waite, vice-president Pacific Palisades Association, and Dr. Jesse Lee Corley, conference director of religious education. "Civic Night" will be observed Tuesday, with greetings from all community organizations and an address by Presiding Judge Doran of the Superior Court. Wednesday will bring "Brotherhood Night" with Rev. W. Alonzo Reynolds, pastor of First Methodist Church, Pomona, and a former pastor of Pacific Palisades, as the speaker. Thursday evening the women will serve a banquet and present a "Woman's Night" program. "Young People's and Music Night" is scheduled for Friday. The Pacific Palisades choir and concert orchestra will furnish music, and Rev. Royal H. Reisner, conference Epworth League and young people's director, will speak. The new church will be dedicated by Bishop Charles Wesley Burns, assisted by Bishop William Burt, on the morning of the 9th inst. Mr. Dunning will preach on the evening of the 9th inst.

DR. BIRNEY HUDSON

Having resigned the pastorate of of the Southwest Baptist Church, Dr. Birney Hudson has accepted an invitation to become pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church, Forty-eighth street and Arlington avenue, and will preach his first sermon to his new congregation tomorrow morning. He also will be in charge of services in the evening. Mrs. Leonora Montague, assistant to Dr. Hudson at Southwest Baptist Church for the last two years, will continue in the same work with him at Immanuel Church. More than 150 new members were added to the Southwest Church during Dr. Hudson's pastorate. Immanuel Church has a membership of 300 and a Sunday-school enrollment of 400.

DR. RICHARD MERRILL

The pulpit of First Methodist Church will be supplied tomorrow morning by Dr. Richard N. Merrill, pastor of First Methodist Church of Long Beach. Dr. Merrill formerly was pastor of First Methodist Episcopal Church at Miami, Fla., and is one of the outstanding pulpiters of his denomination. At First Methodist Church tomorrow evening the preacher will be Dr. Herbert Booth Smith of Immanuel Presbyterian Church. Soloists for tomorrow will be Lora L. Comer, Altha M. Elliott and Ivan Edwardes.

DR. GEORGE DAVIDSON

Special services have been arranged for tomorrow at St. John's Episcopal Church in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the ordination of Dr. George Davidson. The program at 11 a.m. will be featured by musical compositions by Dr. Roland Diggle, dedicated to Dr. Davidson. Following the program Dr. Davidson will preach on "Twenty-five Years in the Ministry." The sermon in the evening will be by Dr. Peter T. Rowe, Episcopal bishop of Alaska. A reception in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Davidson will be given at the Parish House Tuesday evening. The public is invited.

Dr. Davidson began his ministry in 1904 at Independence, Kan. In 1906 he accepted a call to St. Luke's Church at Marietta, O., and in 1911 became rector of St. Mark's Church, Cheyenne, Wyo. While in Wyoming he built a parish house, organized a Men's City Club and was chaplain of the State Legislature.

In 1913 Dr. Davidson became rector of St. John's Church and under his leadership the parish has grown Everyone Welcome!

Have You Been to the First?

"Our little systems have their day; they have their day—and pass away." It is a veritable procession of passing systems. There are funerals many. It is a comfort to know that the foundations cannot be shaken—because they rest on the "Rock of Ages;" Jesus Christ.

It is His gospel that we preach—at the old First.

"The Golden Fleece" is the compelling theme on Sunday night at 7:30. Morning subject: "Christ Loved the Church." Great music is the order at the First.

FANCY SOLDIERS

[Albuquerque Journal, Jan. 31.]

Boston, with its "Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company," Chicago with its Black Horse troop, and other large cities with special militia units will no longer be able to look down upon the Duke City, if final plans work out successfully for reorganizing Troop A, of the One Hundred and Eleventh Cavalry, New Mexico National Guard.

Since the troop was disbanded at Es'ancia and assigned to Albuquerque, plans were made to organize it as an Indian troop from the United States Indian school, or as a Conquistadore troop of Spanish-Americans.

According to the latest plan, the troop will now be made a crack cavalry unit, with special uniforms, like the show units of Eastern cities.

Y.W.C.A. ELECTS DIRECTORS

Former Secretary Tells of World Movement and Work With League of Nations

More than 300 members and friends of the Young Women's Christian Association assembled last evening at the Association Building, 941 South Figueroa street, and at the annual meeting of the organization, listened to a program of music and addresses and elected a new board of directors.

Features of the evening were the musical program and the address by Miss Cora Tatham, who for nineteen years was secretary of the Los Angeles association, and who later resigned to engage in the Y.W.C.A. work in New York City.

WORK WITH LEAGUE

Miss Tatham spoke on the world movement of the association and of the new international headquarters which recently were established at Geneva where the organization plans to work hand in hand with the League of Nations.

Two violin solos by Miss Eunice Griffin and selections by the Clark Memorial Home Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Bernice Postori, and music by the Bethany Presbyterian Church Orchestra, directed by Miss Lorna Reavis, were well received.

Greetings from the Young Men's Christian Association by Harry P. Henderson and a membership ceremonial, led by Mrs. Florence L. McGuire, were also on the program. Mrs. Mary P. Moll, vice-president, was the presiding officer.

ELECTIONS REPORTED

The nominating committee, which included Mrs. Will H. Smith, chairman; Miss Mary Wadsworth Knapp, Mrs. Mayme V. Matthey, Mrs. Charles P. Nelson and Mrs. Arthur W. Nye, reported the result of the balloting for directors and nominating committee for next year and reported the following elections:

For directors, three-year term, Mrs. Frank E. Eckhart, Mrs. Frank J. Klingberg, Mrs. Oliver K. Lientz, Dr. Bessie A. McClenahan, Mrs. Florence L. McGuire, Miss Daniella Moll, Mrs. John Rigdon Moore, Mrs. Will H. Smith, Mrs. W. H. Snyder and Mrs. Karl T. Waugh.

For directors, one-year term, Miss Jessie L. P. Brown, Mrs. Newell J. Elliott, Miss Mary Wadsworth Knapp, Mrs. Frank H. McHenry, Mrs. Berdella Murphy and Mrs. Charles R. Smurr.

Nominating committee—Mrs. John Rigdon Moore, Mrs. Bertram C. Davies, Mrs. Frances W. Doran, Mrs. Arthur W. Nye and Miss Jessie C. Skewes.

SCOPE OF WORK

Reports showed that the total membership in Los Angeles is 1494 adults and 1927 girl reserves and that during the year a total of 36,836 persons were contacted by the organization. Reports also indicated that association centers numbered ten and included the Administration Building at 941 South Figueroa street; the Clark Memorial Home, 336 Loma Drive; the Twenty-ninth street residence at 1138 West Twenty-ninth street; the Y. W. C. A. Lodge at 201 Bimini Place, the Hollywood Branch, 1512 North McCadden Place; International Institute, 435 South Boyle avenue; the Twelfth-street branch, 1108 East Twelfth street; the Japanese dormitory, 2816 East Third street; the Camp Estelle, San Antonio Canyon, and Eliza Cottage, 3323 Hermosa avenue, Hermosa Beach.

SPECIAL ENDEAVOR

In the health education department, 2079 individuals took part in gymnasium, dancing and sport classes, the report read, and 796 high-school girls learned to swim. The total attendance at the plunge for the year was 36,649.

Americanization work at the International Institute was important. The secretaries there speak sixteen languages. Total calls and interviews with clients numbered 11,037 for the year. Twenty-nine thousand persons attended meetings during 1929.

T.A.T. TO CENTER IN LOS ANGELES

with a total of 1275 horsepower from their three Wasp motors.

Maddux, however, returning to the weather question, stressed the point that in average flying conditions his system has never "dropped a ship," and that an efficient communication system between planes and ground is the key to the hazard.

It was pointed out that transports on the transcontinental system already are equipped with two-way ground-to-plane contact with a complete ground weather reporting organization. Since institution of this safeguard several months ago the cross-country ships have not encountered unexpected storm areas and have landed when informed from stations ahead that it would be hazardous to proceed.

These same precautions will be taken on short trips—Los Angeles to Agua Caliente and Los Angeles to San Francisco—at once, Maddux declared.

Maddux was in New York when one of his transports crashed at San Clemente.

He was not hesitant in pointing out that this accident brought home the fact that the short lines require the same ground direction as the coast-to-coast route, and that its institution will be made at once.

Veterans Given Memorial Site

A request by the Veterans' Association of Battery D, First California Heavy Artillery, U.S.V., for a site in Pershing Square on which to erect a memorial to the one unit recruited in Los Angeles which saw foreign service during the Spanish-American War, was approved yesterday by the Park Commission, which passed the request on to the Municipal Art Commission for decision. The location is at the southwest corner of the square.

President J. W. P. Diss and Secretary Frank S. Henderson stated for the veterans that the Federal government has agreed to furnish a heavy field gun of the type used during the war with Spain, and that civic organizations and individuals had promised co-operation toward furnishing necessary materials.

The proposal is to place the gun on a granite emplacement with bronze tablets on four sides.

EPIDEMIC OF ROBBERIES BREAKS OUT

Seven Hold-ups Reported in Los Angeles and Near-by Towns During Night

Seven robberies were reported to the police and Sheriff's office in Los Angeles and vicinity last night. They included two "strong-arm" jobs, a robbery of a pedestrian by a man and woman, the hold-up of two grocery stores, a sweetshop in Pasadena and a service station.

Raymond Clark, clerk in a Clarence Saunders grocery store at 4262 South Western avenue, opened the cash register for a bandit, who pressed a gun against his side while a second bandit kept watch outside. The thieves obtained $200.

C. L. Vandinburger, 447 Arbor Vitae street, Inglewood, was held-up near his home by a man and a woman driving a coupe. As he started to go into his home the man leaped out, covered him with a gun and took $45 while his woman companion kept the motor running.

C. P. Kirkland, 1422 Malvern street, and Max Goodman, 495 East Avenue 28, were "strong-arm" victims they reported to the police. Kirkland was relieved of $8 by two thugs, who choked him at Alvarado Terrace between Pico and Twelfth streets. Goodman lost $30 and some small change when assaulted and choked in front of 2690 North Workman street.

Pasadena police reported the attempted hold-up of the Sunshine Sweetshop, Fair Oaks and Montana streets. The proprietor exchanged shots with the thugs and drove them off. R. O. Richards, running a grocery at 1428 Market street, Gardena, was not so lucky. A young man entered the store, held him up with a nickle-plated revolver, took $40 and escaped through the back door.

The Dawson Service Station, 1800 West Twelfth street, was held-up and robbed of $60 by two men, who drove up in an automobile and covered Frank Zaugg, attendant, with guns, he told the police.

COURT AIRS AVILA ADOBE PAVING ROW

Injunction Battle Over Olvera Street Improving Heard by Judge Gates

Argument on the legal aspects of the injunction sought to prevent the improvement of Olvera street as part of the plan to restore the neighborhood of Avila adobe house with Spanish atmosphere, was heard by Superior Judge Gates yesterday.

Attorney J. Wiseman McDonald, for Mrs. Constance Simpson, protesting property owner, argued that the city is exceeding its police powers, and that the value of Mrs. Simpson's property, for its peculiar uses, light manufacturing and retail Mexican stores, is depreciated by the pavement, which precludes the use of the street by vehicles.

Attorney McIntyre Faries, for the defendant, who entered a demurrer to the plea, argued that the uses to which the property will be put after its improvement, will make the property of more value than any use to which it could be put without the improvement. Attorney Faries pointed out that vehicular traffic can reach the stores on the street as well from adjoining streets.

Judge Gates took the case under advisement.

Man Found With Wrists Slashed

With his wrists slashed and police declaring the wounds to be self-inflicted, John Loreta, 37 years of age, 1548 Wilshire Boulevard, was found last evening near death at Macey and Alameda streets, by two Southern Pacific switchmen.

Loreta was taken to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where it was announced that his condition is critical, but that he might recover. He refused to make a statement, police say.

TULARE PLANS DRIVE FOR USE OF BUTTER

TULARE, Jan. 31.—Use of butter substitutes by residents of Tulare district is responsible for the recent drop in butter prices, W. J. Higdon, prominent dairyman, told directors of the Chamber of Commerce at their weekly luncheon session. Higdon declared that many farmers of this district cash their pay roll checks from dairy products and then take home substitutes to use themselves. The chamber directors voted to sponsor a campaign asking local merchants to push sales of butter in preference to substitutes.

ARMSTRONG ACCUSED OF BAD TEMPER

Wealthy Pasadenan's Wife Also Charges Jealousy in Getting Reno Decree

RENO, Jan. 31. (Exclusive)—Earl V. Armstrong of Pasadena was of an extremely jealous disposition and sought to control every action of his wife, Lucile Cary Armstrong, the latter testified here yesterday in a divorce action. She was awarded a decree. Each is to have equal custody of their three children. A property settlement effected out of court and given court approval, provides that each shall retain their individual property, Mrs. Armstrong to keep her home in Santa Barbara, while Armstrong retains the home in Pasadena.

Armstrong had an explosive and ungovernable temper, his wife charged. Whenever she made any effort to deviate from the control he sought to maintain over her, she said, he would give vent to this temper. He would not permit her to attend a luncheon in a public cafe unless there were at least three women of whom he approved with her, or he was with her himself, she told the court.

Mrs. Armstrong also testified that he would not allow her to leave their home in Pasadena even to visit her sister, Mrs. L. W. Fox, Jr., in San Francisco. He even refused to permit her to entertain friends of her sister before the latter was married, she said.

In Washington while they were on a visit, he took a dislike to their chauffeur, she said, and spoke of him as a bandit. Mrs. Armstrong said he was all right and he chided her for taking the man's part. When they visited his parents and his own stepfather kissed her, she said, he became angry and at Cannes, France, he scolded because she obtained a table in a certain location he didn't like.

During the time Mrs. Armstrong has custody of any one of three children, aged 16, 13 and 9 years, respectively, Armstrong agrees to pay her $350 a month and while she has all of them he is to pay her $500 a month. The oldest is to select the parent she wishes to make her home with, the agreement provides, and Armstrong is to pay for their education. Mrs. Armstrong asked for no alimony for herself.

New Daughter for Champion Middleweight

Mrs. Margaret K. Walker, estranged wife of Mickey Walker, middleweight champion prize fighter, gave birth to a daughter last Monday at the Pasadena Hospital, it was learned yesterday. The couple have another child, a son, who is 5½ years of age.

The present separation of the couple is not the first during their wedded life. About four years ago they parted, but there was a subsequent reconciliation.

Early last year reports of strife between the pair again were published and on July 3 Walker announced that his wife had left him. Eight days later she filed a suit for separate maintenance in Trenton, N. J., in which she charged her husband with beating her and with other acts of cruelty, and asked for the custody of their son.

Favorable reports were issued from the hospital on Mrs. Walker and her new daughter.

Girl Ends Life Following Tilt

Firing a shot into her breast, Edna Hatcher, 14 years of age, of 389 Harvard avenue, Bellflower, inflicted a wound of which she died last night in the Artesia Hospital, deputies reported to the Sheriff's office. The girl was a daughter of J. L. Hatcher, who had married a second time.

Deputy sheriffs reported that the stepmother said she had corrected the girl yesterday afternoon and that angry words had passed between them. Then, Mrs. Hatcher told the officers, the girl locked herself in her room and shot herself with Hatcher's .45-caliber automatic pistol. Dr. J. S. Simms of Bellflower, who was summoned, had the girl removed to the Artesia Hospital. The doctor said that the bullet lodged above the heart.

NEW YORKERS TO RALLY

The first 1930 rally of the New York State Society will be held Thursday evening in Veterans' Hall, 346 South Hill street. The Wallis Dramatic School will present a one-act play, and Betty Alice Wilson will give readings. Dancing will follow the program.

JEANETTE MACDONALD SIGNED

Chester Morris Featured in M.-G.-M. Prison Story; Ex-Follies Girl to Play in Lasky Feature; Florence Eldridge in "Play Boy"

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Now it is finally settled by United Artists, who will play the leading feminine role in "Bride 66." Jeanette MacDonald has that honor, signing yesterday for the role.

JEANETTE MACDONALD

Paul L. Stein is to direct, and the picture will be put on with an all-star cast. It is a musical, with the score written by Rudolph Friml. Herbert Stothart, affiliated with Oscar Hammerstein in many stage ventures in New York, wrote the book.

Miss MacDonald was noted as a musical-comedy star on Broadway before going into pictures. She is under contract to Paramount, and has been loaned to United Artists for this role. She scored heavily as leading lady to Maurice Chevalier in "The Love Parade."

CHESTER MORRIS TO PLAY IN "BIG HOUSE"

Ever since Chester Morris made a hit playing the lead in "Alibi," he has been kept busy in pictures.

CHESTER MORRIS

His newest role, according to announcement yesterday from the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, is that of the convict hero of "The Big House," a drama of prison and jail riots. George Hill will direct, and Wallace Beery and others will appear in the cast.

The story is an original by Frances Marion, who recently did the dialogue and adaptation for "Anna Christie."

Morris was noted on the New York stage before going into pictures. He comes of a theatrical family, and was in vaudeville with his father, mother, brother and sister before going on the New York stage.

The actor may not be the only member of his family to go into pictures, either, as there arrived in town yesterday to visit him his father and brother, both skillful actors and writers. They wrote, indeed, all the playlets in which the family appeared in vaudeville.

Richard Wallace to Travel

Richard Wallace, Paramount director, is finding a diet of all work and no play very tedious. At any rate, he is now planning a long trip.

The director will leave Friday for a fifteen-week trip around the world, having won a leave of absence from Paramount. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Wallace. Wallace is now directing Moran and Mack in "Two Black Crows in the A.E.F."

Sailing from San Francisco on the S.S. President Fillmore, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace will visit Honolulu, Yokohama, Shanghai, Hongkong, Manila, Singapore, Cairo, Alexandria, Naples and other points of interest.

Chinese Star Here

The beauty, grace and talent of the Flowery Kingdom are more or less summed up in Olive Young, the Chinese cinema star, who arrived in Hollywood but a short time ago, but who already has completed her first talking picture.

Miss Young, who speaks English fluently, like so many of her countrywomen, played an important role in Hoot Gibson's latest picture, "Fools' Luck." She is the first Chinese actress to come to Hollywood from the companies of the Far East. She was a star with the Great Wall Film Company and came to this country for the express purpose of getting acquainted with talking pictures.

She tells us that the oriental film companies of China and Japan last year produced more pictures than we did here in America. Over six hundred pictures were made.

Florence Eldridge With Warners

Production can proceed now on "Play Boy," out at Warner Brothers' Studio, since it is all settled who will play opposite Frank Fay in that picture.

FLORENCE ELDRIDGE

Florence Eldridge is the lady who will assume the heroine role in this picture, which Michael Curtiz is to direct.

Miss Eldridge came from New York not so long ago, to play opposite Edward Everett Horton in "Her Cardboard Lover," and without having the least notion in the world how great a success she was going to be in pictures.

Geneva Mitchell With Lasky

What luck those ex-Follies girls do have. Now it is Geneva Mitchell, former Follies beauty, and later Leon Errol's leading woman in the musical comedy, "Louie the Fourteenth," who is to play one of the five leading ladies in Buddy Rogers's next Paramount picture, "Safety in Numbers." Miss Mitchell will have only to be herself, since she plays the role of a Follies girl.

Miss Mitchell has been in Hollywood eight months, during which she has appeared in nine talking and singing motion pictures, including "Son of the Gods," "Back Pay" and "The Swan."

ACTOR HELD GENEROUS

"Lawrence Tibbett is most delightful to work opposite," according to Florence Lake, seen as Tibbett's sister in "The Rogue Song," current Chinese Theater attraction. "He is generous with his scenes and gives everybody a fair chance to share with him the best camera angles."

MARY ASTOR CHOSEN

Mary Astor, dark-haired heroine of "Dressed to Kill" and "A Romance of the Underworld," has been signed to appear opposite George Bancroft in his next Paramount starring vehicle, "Ladies Love Brutes."

SCREEN PLAY STARTS RUN AT WARNERS

"Sacred Flame" Relates Intimate Story; Pauline Frederick Starred

BY PHILIP K. SCHEUER

Yesterday at Warner Brothers' Theater in Hollywood, "The Sacred Flame" burned steadily if not too brightly. This is the screen adaptation of a play by W. Somerset Maugham which survived for a while on the New York stage about a year ago, made into a Vitaphone script by Harvey Thew, directed by Archie Mayo, and starred in by Pauline Frederick. As such, it is subject to most of the weaknesses that the translated drama is heir to, depending largely on its Maughamish talk to carry it through. And it is surprising how penetratingly the ear of the microphone detects artificialities which, coming across the footlights, would sound like eminently respectable British small talk and large.

The difficulty with these drawing-room plays is that they are so thoroughly just that. And in a film made from them there is not even the coming-up-for-air supplied by an intermission now and then. Thus, although I never saw "The Sacred Flame" in the theater, I knew just as clearly as if ever I had that cigarette-time arrived when Mrs. Taylor's butler rapped obsequiously on the door and queried, "Shall I serve lunch, madame?" and Mrs. Taylor sighed a relieved, "Thank you, Simpson." But the picture show went on.

However, break or no break, the current talkie does develop an interesting idea to a rather startling (for the movies) conclusion. It has, in addition, the always charming Miss Frederick, the lovely gracious Lila Lee, and the earnest Conrad Nagel to cast a familiar glow over the whole proceeding, even if the others in the company are—barring Alec B. Francis—a trifle less expert.

"The Sacred Flame," like other recent dramas and novels, is concerned with the predicament of a married couple, who, on the eve of their honeymoon, are deprived of the happiness usually attending that event. Hopelessly crippled in an accident—the nature of which, somewhat indefinite, seemed to indicate that he fell out of an airplane—the husband stands in the way of his wife's happiness for three years. She, intending to remain loyal, falls in love with his brother in spite of herself. And then the husband is found dead from an overdose of sedative. It looks like murder.

The climax is worked out from here, with the finish raising the question, "Is homicide sometimes justifiable?"

Miss Lee and Mr. Nagel play the wife and husband, and Walter Byron the brother. Miss Frederick, who has really little to do, is the mother of the two men. Dale Fuller fills the role of the husband's nurse, a thankless one, sincerely enough in her way. William Courtenay, whom I always mistake for Theodore Von Eltz, is required to stand around and look sad.

Warner's surrounds the feature with varieties presenting Giovanni Martinelli in "Il Trovatore" airs, Winnie Lightner and a blackout sketch.

PLAYLETS PLEASE AT WRITERS' CLUB

Edward Everett Horton, Robert Edeson and Others Contribute

BY KATHERINE T. VON BLON

This week's play nights at the Writers' Club offered some artfully concocted playlets for the delectation of the audience assembled. The names of such universal favorites as Edward Everett Horton, Robert Edeson and Lawrence Grant added glamour to the roster.

The play of the evening proved to be "Noel," by Lawrence Grant, a finely integrated moment traced with poignant pathos. A denouement powerful and tragic in its implication brought the play to a conclusion. The climax was reached through a logical and human emphasis.

Lawrence Grant's knowledge of the theater indeed stood him in good stead. Robert Edeson gave a strangely moving performance of the peasant father. The final scene was limned by Edeson with a tenderness combined with tragic power. Elizabeth Ross as the mother showed pathos and resignation. Lee Shumway and Daisy Belmore completed the finely etched picture.

In "The Little Brown Jug," from the pen of A. L. Weeks, the subject of prohibition strikes a new flame. Its revelation was novel. Situations were well maneuvered and the dialog amusing. Edward Clark, Irving Bacon, James Marcus and Robert Elliott all contributed their quaint humor to the hilarity of the scene.

"A Hint to Brides," by Kenyon Nicholson, somehow belied its title, for it was a trifle far fetched and more in the burlesque manner than that of comedy. Unfortunately, it gave little opportunity for these inimitable light comedy talents of Edward Everett Horton. However, he managed to extract the maximum of humor from the situations. Alma Rubens was given a rousing welcome. A chic black evening gown and a severe hair arrangement heightened her individual beauty. Marjorie Bennett and Phil Tead as the burglars were natural in manner.

George Kelly's "The Torch Bearers" invariably proves a mirthful affair, and the Writers presented the second act with joyous abandon. Lloyd Corrigan in artful manner and language elected to reveal the subterranean issues at stake. Waldemar Young and Lillian Elliott brought more than a little skill and fun to their parts, and Harold Minjir's characterization was highly amusing. Michael Raffetto and Helen Bolton were responsible for much of the mirth.

Gene Morgan on Loew's Program

Gene Morgan will be special master of ceremonies for the fourth of the Saturday midnight revels at Loew's State tonight. A number of other special attractions have been arranged, headed by Carolynne Snowden and her revue.

Stage Arguments to Be Continued

Anne Cornwall

Aids in the presentation of "Give and Take," the comedy starring Kolb and Dill at the President Theater, starting tomorrow. The noted comics engage in another of their well-known word battles.

R.-K.-O. BOOKS VALLEE FILM

Rudy Vallee and his Connecticut Yankees head the list of new releases scheduled for the R.-K.-O. Theater. Vallee makes his bow Thursday in a film produced by Radio Pictures, "The Vagabond Lover," under the direction of Marshall Neilan.

Sally Blane, Marie Dressler, Eddie Nugent and others are in the cast. Vallee offers four songs, "A Little Kiss Each Morning," "I Love You," "If You Were the Only Girl in the World" and "I'll Be Reminded of You." The story was written by James Creelman, Jr.

On the 12th inst. the comics of vaudeville, Olsen and Johnson, share the spotlight on the stage with the Columbia picture, "Wall Street." The film tells the story of a Napoleon of finance who forces himself to the top by ruthless selfishness and vindicative actions. Ralph Ince and Aileen Pringle head the cast. R. William Neil directed.

Robert Armstrong in "The Racketeer," with Carol Lombard, will be shown on the 20th inst. It is an all-talking love romance of the underworld produced by Pathe. For the following week, "The Grand Parade," written and produced by Edmund Goulding, will be shown. Helen Twelvetrees and Fred Scott head the cast. Fred Newmeyer directed.

LATE SHOW TO START NEW FILM

"Son of Gods" Provides Richard Barthelmess With Appealing Role

Hollywood stars and celebrities will be present at Warner Brothers Downtown Theater at midnight tonight to attend the world premiere of Richard Barthelmess in "Son of the Gods." With Barthelmess in a role said to be superior even to his characterization in "Broken Blossoms," this premiere is being eagerly awaited by the film colony, it is said.

Adopted from Rex Beach's novel, "Son of the Gods" presents the star in a role of wide appeal. Brought up as a Chinese boy, Sam Lee, Barthelmess encounters the rebuffs and insults of race intolerance on every side, and as the story swells to a climax he is afforded some five acting opportunities.

His leading lady is Constance Bennett, who also has the best role of her career, it is said. Many scenes are in natural color. Frank Lloyd directed from the scenario by Bradley King. In addition to Miss Bennett the star's support includes Anders Randolf, Mildred Van Dorn, E. Allyn Warren, Claude King and Geneva Mitchell.

Dancing Under Stars Catches Public Fancy

"Dancing Under the Stars," the Chinese Theater's newest feature, which has caught the popular fancy of the public, will be repeated tonight in the forecourt of the theater, where "The Rogue Song," starring Lawrence Tibbett, is now in its second week. Abe Lyman's band will furnish the music.

This form of entertainment will precede the gala late frolic, which will have as its guest stars Jack Oakie, Polly Moran in a hilarious skit and "Ukulele Ike" Edwards.

"The Rogue Song," M.-G.-M.'s production, directed by Lionel Barrymore, includes in the cast Catherine Dale Owen, Judith Vosselli, Laurel and Hardy, Lionel Belmore and many others. Abe Lyman and his orchestra are appearing in a stage presentation at every performance.

Mary Boland to Portray Chief Role in Farce

"Ladies of the Jury" brings Mary Boland to El Capitan tomorrow as guest star with the Henry Duffy Players. This will be the first appearance on the coast in four years of the noted comedienne, who has starred in "Meet the Wife," "Cradle Snatchers," "Clarence" and "Women Go On Forever."

Three members of the original cast have been brought here for the production, Hallie Manning, Marie Hunt and George Farren.

Included in the cast are Brenda Fowler, Myra Hubert, Barbara Jo Allen, Olive Cooper, Mabel Hicks, Margaret Gillespie, C. Henry Gordon, Walter Marshall and others.

ARTISTS TO OFFER FILM MELODRAMA

"Locked Door" Opens Today; Cast Includes Noted Stage Personalities

Bursting their way through the door of the Frank Devereaux suite in a fashionable apartment-house, police find the young man dying from a shot in the chest. Locked in the room with him is a woman who refuses to reveal her name but confesses to the shooting.

This is the dramatic situation that develops in "The Locked Door," opening at United Artists Theater today. Heading the all-star cast of this mystery romance are Rod La Rocque, Betty Bronson and two distinguished stage stars, William Boyd and Barbara Stanwyck.

Taylor Holmes in "Let Me Explain," a Paramount-Christie comedy, a Paramount song novelty, "Bedelia," Paramount sound news and Gaylord Carter at the organ complete the new program.

VENETIAN CARNIVAL HERE SOON

"Bambina" Scheduled for Mayan Theater; Costars Two Players

"Bambina," the new operetta which comes into the Mayan Theater Monday evening, depicts a period never before presented as the background for a stage show, it is said.

The setting is that of the merry Venetian carnival times in the early nineteenth century, and offers fine opportunities for colorful and unusual effects, due to the riot of festivity which reigned throughout this period.

The story will be enacted by an all-star cast cofeaturing Nancy Welford and Al St. John, with Marie Wells, Ernest Wood, Wilbur Evans, Russell Scott, Fred Walton, Hedley Hall and others in support. "Bambina" is staged under the personal direction of Edward Royce.

Clarence Brown Films Picture Between Trains

Producing talking-picture scenes on a railway schedule is something new, it is said.

In filming exterior scenes for "Anna Christie," Greta Garbo's first talkie, at the Criterion, Clarence Brown was bothered by the whistles of passing trains. Appealing to the railway company, he was supplied with a time-table fixing the exact minutes trains might be expected. By these he arranged to shoot his long scenes between trains.

Charles Bickford has a featured role in the film, and the supporting cast includes George Marion and Marie Dressler. "Anna Christie" is in its second week at the Criterion.

Whispers in the Wings

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

TWO and perhaps three picture names will grace the cast of "June Moon" when that Ring-Lardner-George S. Kaufman comedy arrives at the Belasco Theater about March 17.

Although the production is not being cast locally—the Chicago company being brought on—replacements in the company will be made before the opening at the Curran Theater on the 15th inst.

George Holland, who represented Schwab and Mandel in the matter of "Follow Thru," and who has the western rights to "June Moon," is responsible for this piece of information. Holland leaves for the East Tuesday and will pay a hurried visit to New York before turning westward again to bring the comedy into California.

He has play production plans for the Pacific Coast for late spring and early summer, if "June Moon" lives up to its hit reputation of the East and does good business here. "Congai," the Harry Hervey drama of the Orient, and "An Affair at Stake," by Robert Buckner, are on his projected list. The latter is a new play. "Congai," however, has been done in New York.

Carlotta King to East

Carlotta King, who recently stepped out of the lead in "Oh, Susanna," goes east Tuesday in response to a wire from her manager that a dramatic part in a new play is in the offing. She wouldn't tell the name of the play.

Sam Harris on His Way

For that matter, Sam H. Harris, the Broadway producer, here in the joint interests of a vacation and business, leaves Monday on the S. S. California for Florida. He will take eleven days to the voyage, spend two weeks in Palm Beach and then return to New York.

A new musical by the Gershwins will be one of the first things to occupy his attention when he gets back. Production may be made this spring.

Horton and Alma Rubens

Edward Everett Horton wagered some money at the Tia Juana races last week on a dark horse named Inca. He won. The horse has been a heavy favorite ever since.

Incidentally, when Horton resumes stage production here—no date set yet—it is said that one of the first things he will do will be a play in which Alma Rubens has a leading part. The two appeared together in a skit at the Writers' Club this week.

Vadja Drama Announced

Fern Andra, said to be the only American girl to reach stardom on the German stage, will be the star of the next play, "Grounds for Divorce," by Ernest Vadja to be presented by the German Guild at the Windsor Square Theater on the 14th inst. This will be her first stage appearance in this country. She was a star for several years for the German U.F.A. studios and recently did a picture here, "The Lotus Lady."

The story goes that it was for her Dr. Rudolf Lothar wrote "The Command to Love," which she played at the Kleines Theater in Berlin, as well as elsewhere in Europe.

PHILOSOPHY THEME OF FOREIGN FILM

Psychological Study of Victim of Circumstance Seen at Filmarte

BY ELENA BOLAND

There is a philosophic motive behind "The Trial of Donald Westhof," now holding court at the Filmarte Theater. It is the philosophy of a weakling and of a certain stage of adolescence; that man is born with his destiny fixed, so that life is drifting, not fighting. This idea, so moulded in Westhof, the central character, grows through its expression into a conflict between age and youth, tyranny and independence, gradually developing Westhof's utter inability to cope with existence.

This U.F.A. production was directed by Dr. Fritz Wendhausen from the novel by Felix Hollander. The film is adapted a shade too inclusively from the book. It was evidently the author's intention, in writing, to weave a many-sided story and also create a strong psychological study of this victim of circumstance. In transferring it to the screen, both items have been attempted, resulting in a clear understanding of neither one nor the other. The plot worked out in a multitude of phases is confusing and the psychology too indefinite to substantiate actions. It may be said, however, that the final disclosure of the murderer comes as a nice surprise, though the confession and denouement are too sudden to be effectual.

Details evolve from the home conditions of a schoolboy, fatherly hate contrasted with motherly love. Brought up on bitterness, the boy is arrogant, though, indecisive. The woman's influence sends him to an aunt in Berlin, where through a succession of persons, he continually contacts those two opposites, masculine animosity and womanly affection. Through infatuation for Bertha, the saloon-keeper's lass, he is seen to murder her fiance, a gentleman delicately delicatessen in his ways. After this, our hero is shown wandering through a nightmare of streets and camera angles, which is the general German way of inferring great mental stress.

The courtroom scene that follows is peculiar in its difference from ours, and yet in its strange likeness. Logic is dispensed with in favor of type reactions. But, as it all ends in a jiffy with the hero being saved by a true love he never knew he had, logic would have been rather unnecessary after all.

A tendency to overact is noticed, the performances of Oscar Homolka as Lessing and Nicolai Malikoff as Kussmaul, being the most truthful. The cast includes Imre Raday as Westhof, Karin Evans and Elizza La Porta.

Ben Turpin looks in both directions as he makes sure he is in "A Safe Proposition," something funny from a by-gone year.

SANCTION ASKED FOR PHONE DEAL

Southern California Concern Proposes Purchase

Pacific Company Wanted to Round Out System

Rail Board's Approval for Stock Issue Sought

Southern California Telephone Company in an application filed yesterday with the State Railroad Commission asks permission to acquire the properties of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in Southern California.

"We recognize that Southern California in its phenomenal advance in the past ten years to the front rank of American business and industrial districts, has developed telephone requirements which can be served best by the expansion of the Southern California Telephone Company to cover the entire southern territory in which we operate," said F. N. Rush, vice-president and general manager of the Southern California Company.

REASON EXPLAINED

"The change is proposed in order to meet this remarkable industrial and population development that has come and will continue to come to this section. This consolidation of properties under the management of the Southern California Telephone Company means that the Southern California company will own and serve approximately 570,000 telephones with a complete toll line system throughout Southern California."

Permission also is asked to acquire the stock and physical properties of the Pacific company's four southern wholly owned operating subsidiaries.

STOCK PLANNED

The four subsidiaries are the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Pasadena, the Corona Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, the Consolidated Utilities Company of Compton and the United States Long Distance Telephone and Telegraph Company. The first three operate local service in Pasadena, Corona and Compton. The United States Company operates long-distance service in seven southern counties.

The Southern California Telephone Company also applied for a permit to issue an additional 500,000 share of common stock, the proceeds of which will pay for the properties acquired.

Petition Made to Change Plea in Death Case

FRESNO, Jan. 31.—As the preliminary to a petition for dismissal of a manslaughter charge growing out of an automobile accident, James A. Reid, local postoffice clerk, today sought a court order permitting him to withdraw his plea of not guilty. After hearing arguments of counsel, Judge Thomson took the matter under advisement.

It is the contention of the defense that the recent opinion of the Fourth District Court of Appeals, in which it was said that evidence in substantiation of the manslaughter charge had not been presented, is sufficient ground for dismissal of the death charge.

Reid also is charged with failure to stop and render aid after an automobile accident, in which it is asserted that his car killed C. T. Linstrum, local printing-house superintendent. The Appeals Court denied a writ of habeas corpus on the lesser charge, and voiced that opinion concerning the manslaughter count.

Dep. Dist.-Atty. Carter vigorously opposed the change of plea, insisting that Reid should be tried on both charges in view of the evidence accumulated by the staffs of the District Attorney and Sheriff.

U-TURN ORDINANCE IN EFFECT AT VISALIA

VISALIA, Jan. 31. — Police are posting "no U turn" signs throughout the business district here and intend to strictly enforce that part of the 1927 ordinance, which heretofore has not been invoked. While some leniency may be shown unintentional violations of first offenders, Chief of Police Harry H. Davis declares it would be wiser for motorists to adhere to the requirement.

LOT PURCHASE ANNOUNCED

VISALIA, Jan. 31.—Representing a price of about $325 per front foot, a vacant lot adjoining the Security Title Building on Locust street, between Acequia and Main, is reported to have been sold to E. M. McCardle of Fresno, through James Erskine, local manager of the title company, for $12,000.

FILM STAR DISDAINS CELESTIAL RIVALRY

Nancy Carroll

"How a captain looks at a star," is the title of a one-act skit enacted on the Lassco liner City of Honolulu arriving from Hawaii yesterday. The stage was "monkey island," the highest deck above the master's bridge. The actors were Nancy Carroll, Paramount red-head, and Capt. George Zeh, the master. The only "prop" was a binnacle in to which the master looks at a star, celestial, but which the star, cinema, found useful only in perfecting her make-up.

Miss Carroll returned after a month at the islands, where she solved the mysteries of the surfboard and the ukelele and deems her vacation well spent. She will be featured next in "The Devil's Holiday," starting at once. Her husband, Jack Kirkland, Hollywood playwright, met her at the dock, having returned a week earlier to the mainland.

Man Bound Over in Poison Case

HANFORD, Jan. 31.—At the close of his preliminary hearing today on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Jasper Palacio, who died of a poisoned draught of wine tonic at Corcoran November 22, last, Joe Martinez was held to answer today by Police Judge H. H. Warnock.

Palacio's widow testified that on his deathbed her husband accused Martinez of giving him "a bitter drink." F. E. Twining, Fresno chemist, testified that the contents of Palacio's stomach contained enough strychnine to have caused his death. Juan Beltran and Paul Peredis, fellow-employees of Palacio, at the Boswell cotton plantation, stated that Palacio had said: "My best friend Joe, he poison me."

Martinez, through an interpreter, refused to take the stand in his own behalf, but said: "I am not guilty. Another Joe gave Palacio something bitter. I gave him a drink to wash out the bitter taste he complained of in his mouth."

Following his preliminary hearing Martinez was arraigned before Superior Judge K. Van Zante and pleaded not guilty. Attorney S. J. W. Sharp and Clark Clement were appointed by the court to defend Martinez. He will be brought in Monday to have the time fixed for his trial.

STORES CLOSE FOR FUNERAL

HANFORD, Jan. 31.—Local stores will close between 2 and 3 p.m. tomorrow during funeral services of Mrs. Annie Boone Lovelace, mother of Strother B. Lovelace, president of the Merchants' Bureau. Mrs. Lovelace died in Oakland yesterday. She lived here many years before moving to Oakland. The services will be conducted at People's chapel at 2:30 p.m. and burial will follow in the Hanford Cemetery.

REWARD ROW COMPLICATES MEXICAN GRAVE MYSTERY

Disagreement over the disposition of the reward money is delaying the return to Yuma, Ariz., of a body believed to be that of W. Paul Loveland, Pasadena architect, according to information from the border town.

Authorities from Yuma, who went to Algodones, Mex., yesterday expecting to return with the corpse and complete identification, reported that they encountered difficulties with the Mexican officials who prevented the removal of the body.

A reward of $1000 had been offered for the finder of Loveland, dead or alive, and a like amount for Frank Baumgarteker, missing wealthy Los Angeles wine merchant. The matter of the payment of the amount in case the body is identified as that of Loveland or Baumgarteker is said to be delaying the official investigation

Authorities here, who forwarded descriptive matter to Yuma, in a belief that the body might be that of Baumgarteker, reported yesterday that they have received no word from the Arizona officials.

The body was found in a shallow grave, where it had been buried by Mexicans who found it floating in a canal ditch. It was identified as Loveland by the authorities, but their findings were not accepted by the wife of the missing architect, who lives in Pasadena.

Identification was made from glasses found in the pockets, but Mrs. Loveland declares that they are not the type carried by her husband. It also became known yesterday that Baumgarteker did not wear or was not known to carry glasses.

Publisher reports that Loveland had disappeared once before and was finally discovered serving in the Italian army were denied by Mrs. Loveland. She explained that her so nwas too young at the time of her husband's war service to be taken to Italy, and she objected mildly to his going.

She does not consider his departure to serve with the American air forces in Italy as a disappearance, and pointed out that she joined him after the war and remained in that country until her husband completed his supervision of construction work for the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

CENTURY CLUB TIPPLE DENIED

Editor Takes Issue With Brookhart Charges

Federal Attorney Declares No Search Impends

Wickersham and Hoover Both Listed as Members

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—Only one member of the Century Club, accused by Senator Brookhart, of Iowa, of serving cocktails to its members, could be found today who would comment on the charges.

The member was Oswald Garrison Villard, editor of the Nation, who said:

"I have been a member of the club for years and never saw anything of the kind Senator Brookhart charges."

RATED AS "DRY"

Mr. Villard generally is rated as a "dry."

Comment among lawyers at the Federal Building today was that no action would be taken on Senator Brookhart's charges.

Asst. U.S.-Atty. Schwartz said the had not read the charges but that "in any event no search warrant can be obtained on mere hearsay evidence."

The Century Club, also known as the Century Association, was founded by William Cullen Bryant in 1847. It has a clubhouse in West Forty-third street, just off Fifth avenue. It lists among its officers, George W. Wickersham, chairman of President Herbert Hoover's Crime Commission, as second vice-president, and Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, as vice-president. The roster of more than 500 members includes President Hoover.

PRESIDENTS BELONGED

Membership of the club has included Woodrow Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt and William Howard Taft. Charles A. Platt is president, Alexander Dana Noyes, secretary, and Henry De Forest Baldwin, treasurer.

The club sponsors an art exhibit each month and its members frequently give lectures on subjects ranging from playwriting to politics and deep-sea fishing.

The membership includes outstanding lawyers, churchmen, artists and men widely known in the realm of letters and education.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

THE DIET FOR NEURALGIA

I have found that practically every case of neuralgia can be cured by dietetic measures alone, although there are a few cases which require manipulative or special treatments. The first thing to do in any case of neuralgia is to thoroughly empty the lower intestines by using at least two enemas daily for a week or ten days. During this time the toxins should be washed out of the system by using no food, but drinking from three to four gallons of water each day. Distilled water is preferable, and one should drink about two glasses of water every half hour.

During this fasting period a relief from the pain may be had by the application of heat from hot water bottles, bags of hot salt, etc., or from a deep therapy lamp. Sometimes counterirritating plasters applied over the sorest spot give immediate relief. The usual plasters are made from mustard, capsicum or Spanish fly.

Massage of the sore nerves is not advisable as this usually only increases the pain. A general body massage over the parts that are not sore may be successful.

Even though the pain may disappear shortly after beginning this fast, it is well to continue for a time so that you will have no recurrence of the trouble. After the water fast of one week, change to a milk diet. The best milk for this purpose is raw certified Holstein milk. Use one large glassful every hour, starting at 7 o'clock in the morning and finishing at 6 o'clock at night. This will take three quarts of milk per day. After ten days the amount can be gradually increased by taking a glassful every half hour during the morning, and a glassful every hour during the afternoon. In this way you can use from four to five quarts a day, and if you assimilate this quantity you should gradually increase the amount until you are able to take a glassful every half hour during the entire day. In this way you will consume six quarts of milk daily.

The milk diet should be continued for at least one month and at least one enema should be used daily, even though the bowels should begin to move naturally.

Severe cases of neuralgia may require at least a month of the milk diet. In returning to a regular diet you must be very careful to employ only the right food combinations. In order to do this, you should make a thorough study of food chemistry so that you will know how to supply your body with all of the elements that it requires and avoid creating new toxins. This treatment may seem to be a little bit severe but one who is suffering from neuralgia is willing to undergo anything that will bring relief. Results from the dietetic method of treatment are much more permanently satisfactory than any other remedy.

POLICEMEN GET SERVICE INSIGNIA

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 31.—Inauguration of a service insignia system to indicate the number of years police officers have served here, was announced today by Police Chief C. M. Richardson. The order issued becomes effective tomorrow. All patrolmen will wear one-quarter-inch gold stripes to indicate service up to and including four years, and a gold star to indicate each multiple of five years' service. The stripes and stars will be worn on the left coat sleeve just above the cuff. Motor officers will wear stripes and stars in the same manner, but they will be silver instead of gold in color.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

ORANGE SOUP

Pare eight oranges, and cut the pulp in small pieces, add to them four cupfuls of water, and allow to boil slowly for one hour, then strain, add to the juice a seasoning of salt, and a few grains of cayenne pepper, when it comes to a boil, add one-fourth of a teaspoonful of soda for every four cupfuls of juice, cream together, one tablespoonful of butter and one tablespoonful of flour, thin with a little of the hot liquid and gradually pour into the liquid, remove from the fire, and add one cupful of hot cream; serve with dry toast or croutons.

BAKED SPANISH ONIONS AND MUSHROOMS

Take one onion for each service and parboil until about half-cooked, hollow out the centers, drain one can of button mushrooms, and chop rather fine, add two tablespoonfuls of fine bread crumbs, two tablespoonfuls of finely chopped celery, a tablespoonful of melted butter, two tablespoonfuls of cream and two tablespoonfuls of finely grated cheese, one teaspoonful of chopped parsley, season with salt and paprika, fill the onion centers with this mixture, place a piece of butter on the top of each one, place in a baking dish that has been well-buttered, cover and bake for thirty minutes. Remove the cover and allow to brown.

NUT DOUGHNUTS

Take two tablespoonfuls of melted butter and rub into it one cupful of sugar, when smooth, add three well-beaten eggs, one teaspoonful of vanilla, sift five cupfuls of flour with four level teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one teaspoonful of salt, add the flour alternately with two cupfuls of milk, when well-mixed stir in one cupful of finely chopped nut meats, place on a board, roll out, cut and fry in deep hot shortening.

HUNGARIAN BEEF LOAF

Take one-half a pound of ground beef and mix with it one-half a pound of sausage, add half a pound of lean boiled ham, chopped fine and an equal amount of bread crumbs, one finely chopped clove of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated onion, one finely chopped green pepper, and a seasoning of salt and paprika; beat the yolk of one egg, add to it four tablespoonfuls of milk; and combine with the mixture, then add the stiffly beaten egg white, place in a buttered mold, cover tightly, and steam or boil for two hours, unmold on a hot dish, and pour around it a tomato sauce.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

YOUR BABY and MINE

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

WAKEFULNESS AT NIGHT MAY INDICATE NEED FOR WEANING

When a baby has been successfully breast fed for seven or eight months, it is difficult for a mother to realize that the time for a change has arrived. Even if the baby shows definite symptoms of dissatisfaction she attributes these to temporary causes, unable to bring herself to a serious consideration of weaning.

There is one almost infallible sign of the need for weaning, and it appears at about the seventh month in most babies exclusively nursed. Wakefulness at night! For months the baby may have been sleeping all night through without a feeding. Suddenly without warning he begins to waken once, twice, three or more times at night, demanding to be nursed and refusing to sleep until he is.

The mother imagines every possible reason. She thinks of teething. She convinces herself that he is cold (and perhaps takes him into her own bed.) She seldom hits upon the real cause of his repeated wakeful spells, a dissatisfaction with his daytime feedings that leads him to perfect orgies of night nursing.

If she can be persuaded that her duties as a nurse are about to end and can make up her mind to begin the weaning process, the problem disappears. If, on the contrary, she asks anyone what to do, she usually gets such a variety of advice, most of it so poor that she is farther than ever from an understanding of the true situation and its remedy.

PROLONGED NURSING DECIDEDLY HARMFUL

If the baby has no teeth at 7 or 8 months, continued nursing is not the way to improve his chances for getting them. The changes in the diet must come from other foods, not breast milk, for there can be no improvement in breast milk at that late date.

To argue that a mother shouldn't wean the baby because he is too young to manage other foods, or because he will have more trouble teething, or that he will be safer from infection are all suggestions which may be true for the young baby, but certainly are without foundation when one is dealing with the baby who is ready to be weaned.

In fact, most of the reasons mothers advance for prolonged nursing are illogical. If the baby hasn't been doing well on the breast feeding for seven months or more, one only courts even more pernicious undernourishment to continue it. If the baby is already showing that the food is not sufficient for his needs, his dissatisfaction will grow all the more pronounced if one continues in the same blind path.

Prolonged nursing, nursing beyond the ninth month or sometimes beyond the seventh month if baby isn't doing well, is merely blinding one's eyes and refusing to acknowledge the real situation. Weaning, if done slowly, is a simple change. It is easier, in fact, to wean the 7-months-old child than the 9-months old one, and the longer nursing is continued beyond this time the more stubbornly the baby refuses milk in any other way.

Must Come to Forestry

Nations approach forestry with reluctance and only when impelled by necessity. They are driven to forestry by different paths, says the American Tree Association. Some countries are forced to forestry by lack of water supply, others to save their hillsides from being gullied and beaten by the rains. Still other countries seek forests to protect them from floods and drought, others to provide their peoples with lumber and fuel.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORNTON W. BURGESS

BLACKY GETS EVEN WITH HOOTY

Getting even may not pay,
But somehow brightens up a day.
—Blacky the Crow.

Now, Blacky the Crow is like a great many human beings—brave when in company, but not brave at all when alone. Blacky certainly loves the company of his own kind. He is never so happy as when he is one of a crowd of Crows.

Now, Blacky was feeling very much put out. He was so. He felt that Hooty the Owl had not only cheated him out of one breakfast, but cheated him out of a number of breakfasts, for he knew very well that he wouldn't dare to go back to Farmer Brown's cornerib for some time. He knew that Hooty, having found him there once, would look for him there again. He would be quite likely to keep a watchful eye on that place early every morning.

"I'll get even with him!" said Blacky over and over to himself. "I'll get even with him in some way. I don't know how I'll do it, but I will get even with him."

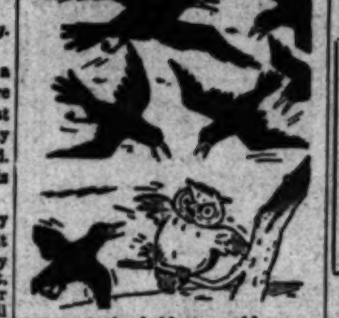
His chance came that very afternoon. It was chance, too; pure and simple. You see, Blacky just happened to find Hooty the Great Horned Owl, taking a nap. Hooty likes to sleep through the day and hunt at night. Blacky opened his mouth to scream at Hooty to wake him up, but closed it again without making a sound. He hurried away as fast as he could. When he was what he considered far enough, he alighted in the top of a tall tree and began to scream as loud as he could. "Caw, Caw, Caw, Caw!" screamed Blacky. Pretty soon there was an answering caw in the distance. Then another and another.

Blacky kept calling and the other Crows kept answering. Those answers kept coming nearer and nearer and from several directions. Pretty soon they were gathered around Blacky and all of them talking at the same time. "What is it?" they demanded. "Why have you called us?"

Blacky's eyes twinkled. "I found Hooty the Owl asleep," said he.

"Where, where, where?" demanded all the Crows.

"Follow me and I'll show you," replied Blacky, and led the way back to where Hooty was peacefully sleeping.



Some of the boldest would swoop down and shriek in Hooty's very ears

Hooty didn't sleep peacefully any longer. Such a racket as those Crows made! They flew over and around him and some of them alighted in the very tree he was sitting in, all of them cawing at the top of their lungs. No one could sleep with such a racket going on. Some of the boldest would swoop down and shriek in Hooty's very ears. He glared at them as only Hooty can glare. He snapped his bill and turned his head from side to side so rapidly that it looked as if he turned his head completely around. Of course, he did nothing of the sort, for no bird could do that. Now and then he hissed. He was very, very angry. How those Crows did tease him! Some of them darted in close enough to peck him and pull out a feather or two. He stood it for a while, then he suddenly spread those great wings of his, and when he did this those Crows all fled in a panic. You see, they knew what some human folks seem not to know—which is, that Hooty can see perfectly well in the daytime.

But Hooty didn't chase any of them. He simply flew farther into the Green Forest and perched in a great evergreen tree where it was dark. He knew the Crows would not bother him much there.

Meanwhile, Blacky went his way chuckling, for he felt that now he was even with Hooty the Owl.

Food Brokerage Company Sold

With the retirement of Cosmo Morgan the food-brokerage company bearing his name yesterday announced it has been purchased by Earle D. Baker, who will carry on the business under the firm name of the Baker Brokerage Company. The new owner has been associated with the concern for fifteen years.

EARLE D. BAKER

Graduating from Polytechnic High School and spending two years at University of California, Baker entered the food industry as an employee of H. J. Heinz Company. He later became secretary of the San Fernando Fruit Growers' Association. From 1918 to 1920 and from 1923 to 1925 he was secretary of the Food Brokers' Association of Southern California.

PLANT FOREST LAND

The Fresno Republican prints a ment from the president of the American Tree Association, criticising the national government for not planting more trees.

This man is an enthusiast; a "bug," he might be called. But he is on the right track when he says that the American government is not doing what it should in the way of encouraging and undertaking the planting of trees. The forest service is doing what it can. The American government should undertake tree planting throughout its landed domain. And every State should undertake the promotion of forestry.

RADIO ASSUMES GUARDIAN ROLE

Now Generally Recognized as "Ears of World"

Protection and Advice Part of Its Wide Service

Army Band Will be Heard Over KHJ Today

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

The "eyes of the world" have been in the past the protectors and advisers of mankind. Today radio, as the "ears of the world," has taken first position. Fancy, if you please, a tremendous ear into which is poured entertainment and advise by thousands of comparatively tiny artists who stand before its orifice, all of this to be transmitted to the brain of the world—the listener-in. The first consideration and the court of last appeal is, of course, the public. If a message delights the ear, many heads are turned to it; if it does not, as many heads are turned away.

Air waves crash in upon the shores of radioland fraught with priceless and worthless freight. How worth while it is to dial a delightful thing, relax and feast on every moment of it. To be transported back to one's day of youth, to a long ago, by a song, a poem or a bit of music. How sensitive the educated ear is becoming; more and more selective in its choice of auditions.

CALM ANALYSIS NOW

The novelty of radio's first unfoldment is being replaced by a calm analysis of what it is and what it should present. It is a tremendous helping hand, reaching into the home, the institution, moulding disorganized lives, smoothing out ugly kinks and lifting on and upward the ambitious, the aimless, the despondent. It skims through the barricades of nature and man to bring light to a darkened world.

It is the unseen hand twirling the dial, the unseen artist courting a hearing, who are trying to find a common ground. Radio can be a bluebird in the home if you will make it so. If you are pleased with a program let the artist and the studio know about it. It will pay dividends by way of similar programs in the future.

SOME DIAL HIGH LIGHTS

KHJ at 8 o'clock this morning will bring the eighty-piece United States Army Band from the Washington War College. An hour of brilliant martial airs and selections from concert and opera will be offered. At 2:30 p.m. a famous aviatrix will speak in the first of a series of aviation programs. At 4 Grieg's "Lyric Suite" will be the feature of the Levitow Concert from the Commodore Hotel, New York. At 6 p.m. Prof. Muscle-bound of the Nit Wits is to take a leap from Washington Monument. At 8 tonight a thirty-piece orchestra and singers will broadcast a program to Butte, Mont., via Spokane. It is so cold in Butte that some torrid music will be sent to the snow-bound. At 8:30 p.m. the Don Lee Symphony orchestra will be featured playing an arrangement of the "1812" overture, and best of all, a women's quartet will be there. At 9 p.m. the cream of KHJ's past week broadcasting will be reviewed.

FARM AND HOME BILL

KFI at 11:45 a.m. will devote three-quarters of an hour to a farm and home program, a discussion of financial and agricultural problems. At 8 tonight, the Gilmore Circus will present the bearded lady, sides shows and pink lemonade. At 9 p.m. an NBC program will present current hits with rhythmic appeal, including "I Love Your Eyes," sung by Bernice Taylor,

WANTED—HELP—Male

Salesmen, Solicitors —10-B

Are You The Type That Can Handle A Real Job Paying $8,000 To $15,000 Per Year?

There are a great many who can but only a few who do. Are you one who can and yet don't?

Let this man tell his story: "My name is Wirick. I was a hospital helper and had never sold anything. I made $100 my first week, $300 the second week, and my third week my check is $274.73. Many other men in the organization have more enviable records than I. However, I hope to aspire to get the checks that my fellow salesmen are getting. I aim to make what Mr. Teshera makes, as his checks run more than 100% higher than mine. He has been with the company two or three weeks longer than I, and neither of us have been with the company two months."

As DIRECTOR OF SALES of one of the largest distributing companies in the country, I often have an opening in my staff, for a position which will pay $15,000 a year, depending upon the caliber of the man. My trouble is not finding the man who is worth this amount to me, as there are many. Because the only qualification I require to make you eligible, is honesty, enthusiasm, determination to work hard, and to be able to make the transfer of large sums of money accurately.

I want a man who, if I made him $25,000 during the next year, his personal nature will not change. He will be no different than when he was making $1500 a year.

Make me prove to you that I have taken men and women earning less than $50 a week, and put them in the $1000 class.

If you qualify, can you keep your head if I make it possible for you to earn this amount?

Sales experience is not essential and you are eligible even if your past salary has been small.

Don't try to analyze yourself, as we are all too charitable with our faults. Come in and see me and I will tell you what it's all about and whether you can take over these duties.

I Also Have A Few Other Openings

Which might interest you, as you can earn much more than the average salary.

A MAN

I am looking for the man who wants to collide—not with a job, but with a position that pays $10,000 a year or better.

If you would like an opportunity where you can make from $100 to $400 a week, attend this meeting.

I have some most interesting checks paid to men who have been fortunate enough to be accepted by me. To tell you that these men have had their earning power changed from $50 to $100 a week to $1000 a week, you possibly would not believe it. A photographic reproduction, however, a square look into these men's eyes, will convince you at a glance that the plan I have will carry you quickly into the $10,000 a year class.

The man who answers this advertisement must have personality and determination plus that quality that makes a REAL man.

Saleswomen, Solicitors —11-B

Sales Ladies

Are you a Sales Lady or would you like to be one?

My firm offers you the most extraordinary co-operation ever offered to a saleswoman or any woman who desires to learn salesmanship and make the real profits and make the kind of returns that makes it possible for a woman to take her place in the scheme of life.

No experience required in our business. We have a plan whereby we put a number of people to work for you.

Unless you are ambitious to make money out of efforts of other people, this position would not appeal to you.

There are two ways to become affluent or wealthy; one is through the utilization of capital and the other through the utilization of labor.

Ladies in this organization who have had no experience in our business, have been able to make more than $50 per week.

For further details, please read our ad under Male Help Wanted, headed

Come—Rosslyn Hotel Annex — General Assembly Room—Monday, February 3, 1:30 P. M.

If it is impossible for you to attend this meeting, write P. O. box 19, Sta. C, Los Angeles, for personal interview.

Our firm is now entering into an expansion with a new department and created a most extraordinary opportunity for an ambitious girl or woman.

WOMEN over 30, good mixers, to sell $10 membership in a financial protection service. $5 commission on each member, workers should average 15 sales each week. Apply 10 to 11 & 3 to 4. 718 LINCOLN BLDG.

Sunday is Bargain Day AT THE HOLLYWOOD BUICK AGENCY'S FOUR STORES

THIS IS NOT a 49c or 69c or $1.98 sale. BUT we do have some of the cleanest well-cared-for used cars to be found any place—cars you'll not be ashamed to drive—some priced as low as $485—some as high as $550 and $685. Just picture for yourself a good-looking Buick either in the Standard Six or the Master Six model—with new tires—a new battery—paint and upholstering right up to the minute. Our cars can be bought on low G.M.A.C. Terms and you can also get what your old car is worth in trade as part payment. BY ALL MEANS before purchasing a used car, visit the four stores of the Hollywood Buick Agency in Hollywood. ALL USED CARS GUARANTEED TO BE AS REPRESENTED.

WHAT A "GOOD LAWYER"

In the last installment of his autobiography former President Coolidge says that a comparatively unknown man, Stephen S. Taft of Springfield, "was the best lawyer I ever knew." This is not surprising. Lawyers know that some of the best legal minds in their profession are more or less obscure country lawyers. But Mr. Coolidge relates that Mr. Taft gave him this "excellent advice":

Young man, when you can settle a case within reason, settle it. You will not make so large a fee out of some case in that way, but at the end of the year you will have more money and your clients will be much better satisfied.

"This course," Mr. Coolidge adds, "did not give me much experience in the trial of causes, so I never became very proficient in that art, but it brought me a more satisfactory practice and a fair income." Which implies he followed the advice.
